INTRODUCTION

WHAT IS THIS E-BOOK ABOUT?

Hello and welcome to the e-book version of this Series of Messages that are linked to the Truths on many levels related to the essence of Humanity that will be revealed within 2023 and beyond. My name is Joshua Shapiro and I will be your host for the materials contained within this e-book. This message series has been appearing as a series of posts on Facebook since the end of January (2023) which were then mirrored to the two newsletters we offer, one which is called the Crystal Skull Explorer's on-line newsletter (this group is a co-sponsor of these materials) and the second one is the newsletter for the members of our Center, where we share with them the latest news and updates. Furthermore, on March 19th, the first segment of the video series version of this series of Messages related to the 2023 Revelation of Truths was uploaded to the Center's rumble video channel with the same title which I (Joshua), also created and produced. (I will share a link at the end of this document, in our resources section, to our rumble channel so you can find it the listing of the videos there) Note: -- As of June 12th (2023), I have uploaded four videos consisting of two Segments and I will continue to be adding more videos to this series over time.

The inspiration I inwardly received which led me to start making the posts for this series of messages (that you are about to read within this e-book) - it officially began at the end of January (2023) while I was lying in my bed (not sure if it was before I went to sleep or when I woke up early in the morning but no matter ...). And then, I heard in my mind's voice, a one-line message. Now, before I share this message, the reader must understand that these so-called inner one-liners come to me all the time, unexpectedly but never-the-less always profound!

So here is basically what I heard as I was thinking to myself this question: "Why hadn't the positive transformations for our world taking us into a time of total peace (or into a "Golden Age") been visibly seen (in a more public way) very much just quite yet? Why are these rumored activities which will take us to this glorious future still being hidden from humanity? Many of us, who were following the alternative on-line news sources to share the Truth of what is really happening within world, we all felt that before the end of 2022, this powerful information and insights would be coming out for all to see, but it still had not done so.

However, as I was pondering to myself the questions, all of a sudden, the Voice said: "(Within) 2023, the {real / full} Truth is definitely going to be revealed to all of humanity". So what did this message mean to me and why did I feel called to respond to it (which later resulted in my writing all of these posts on Facebook initially, which are now contained within this e-book)?

So, going forward, I will call the source of my message (or similar messages), "The Voice". What "The Voice" was saying is that the sharing of the Full Truth about "Everything" was going to begin to happen in this year (2023) absolutely! That is, it would be revealed to all the people of the world in some way and form so that every person on our Earth could clearly hear and see this information and understand it (as there are individuals who hold this knowledge but they have chosen to keep it secret). Furthermore, for many of us who are following our own spiritual path, we do have a good idea of what is happening within our world and like myself, have been inwardly guided by "Spirit" (or the "Voice") where to find these alternative new sources. And then, this Truth will be presented and explained to All from the perspective of how our world will be transformed into a world of Total Peace and Harmony in our near future verses the current chaotic conditions we are experiencing, as being orchestrated by a small group of people who wish total domination and control of our world - i.e. The "Light" vs. the darkness.

However, only those people or groups (who are working secretly behind the scenes) and are actively involved in a systematic planned process for these "Great Revelations", as I would call them, know when this "Great Sharing" will take place. Some people might call this a sharing of "Truth Bombs". Because, most likely, for many individuals in our world who depend upon the major media and key government officials (within their respective country), to tell them what perception of our world they want us to believe in about our so-called planet (in addition to the education that we received in school) - then, how will these individuals be able to deal with their lives when they learn that almost everything they were ever told and taught has been a lie?

Now, for some of you who are starting to read this introduction, after what I just said above in my last sentence, you may be ready to stop reading this e-book and totally delete it! You may be asking how could I be making such an outrageous statement? Yet, I do completely understand why you may think or feel this way. I realize my job here then becomes, within this e-book, to provide for you some form of evidence to back up how I know what I am saying here has to be true. So I promise you, I will do my best to answer your questions, if you give me a chance. 😊

Now going back to my experience in January; after I got "The Message" from "The Voice", I felt I was being asked to take up this task to let other people know what was coming in 2023 and it wasn't going to be easy. However, as I have always done, when I do some type of sharing with others, whether it's a public talk or some type of presentation on-line, I just offer the best information I have gathered so far and let the readers or participants decide for themselves what has value for them. Therefore, based upon my recent studies of a few new subjects plus what is being openly shared on these alternative news sources (and especially for me, I depend upon the social media known as Telegram, that contains a variety of channels who are sharing all kinds of key and insightful information. Telegram compared to other social media platforms for me has been the least corrupted or polluted without being totally censored) this is where a majority of my information comes from which is reflected within this e-book. Therefore, it is obvious that there will be many many many people who were going to be in total shock when these "Truth Bombs" come out - so I asked myself, is there something I could do to soften this blow?

Thus, following my typical pattern of what I go through when I get inspiration to write one of my new book (where - First I get the subject about the book and then shortly thereafter, I will see in my mind's eye the Table of Contents for this book and then lastly, I have a knowingness of how to fill in the written materials for each chapter and section {which of course, takes a long time of very devoted effort})... the same process started to happen to me once again with this project. So, shall we call them a series of messages discussing what is to come during 2023? I have been receiving since January how to break up the information into Posts (or Parts) for this version that I did upon my Facebook page and for our Newsletters and more recently (starting in late March) a slightly different version (that I call segments) came to me for the video series.

For the Facebook/Newsletter posts/sharings - this is what I was shown to do, and what you will be reading within this e-book. These posts were first published on Facebook and then copied from January 26th through May 10th, 2023 to our newsletter members which included the Intro and Parts 1 and 2. What I was intending to include in Part 3, is being done through our video series I mentioned above, entitled "2023: The Year the Full Truth is About to Be Revealed". So I call this document Part I, but in the future since I am using digital slides for the videos, then Part II of this document will be coming through these videos and I will probably make an e-book sometime later, based upon the text and images from the digital slides.

Here was my primary focus for determining what I will be discussing within this series of posts and videos:

My focus will be upon key subjects that we have been taught about linked to our understanding about our world and the reality that we live in but in fact, what we have been educated about is nothing but a deception that has been fostered by a so-called group of Elites (there are various names for these individuals but essentially it is a small group of people who are extremely wealthy and have been controlling our world for hundreds if not thousands of years). The Elite has determined by sharing with us these false histories, not telling us the truth about the world we live upon and doing all they can to stop us from discovering our true spiritual or Divine nature they are able take our power away from us and convince us to follow only their rules and laws. Or, in other words, to become, and this is a harsh way to say it, but become their slaves. I know this sounds almost totally unrealistic but I hope you will remain open to what I will have to share with you to support this conclusion..

In essence, this really is all about that old story of "Good" ("The Light") versus evil (the darkness). Although, for many of us, we may sense that some form of evil does exist within our world but we have been led to believe that its impact upon us is not all that strong. However, I believe (and there more and more evidence coming out for this every day now, mostly through alternative news sources and social media, in bits and pieces) that this so-called "undeclared war" has greatly intensified since Covid-19 showed up at the end of 2019.

Now briefly, let's turn our attention as I wish to speak about the video series version of these Messages. I started them in a slightly different direction. For Segment 1, which I completed on March 18th and uploaded to the Center's Rumble Video Channel on March 19th; within this video I began a discussion of how our world is going to see total peace in our near future as well as what evidence I have starting viewing within this year (2023). I explained how I absolutely know that by 2037-2040 this transformation of our world will be fully completed (i.e. -- heaven on Earth). This "knowing" is based upon two profound and powerful spiritual experiences I have had, a coma experience in 1990 and a spiritually channeled message (by the "Voice") I received about our future in 1996 (these experience are completely shared within one of the free e-books we are offering).

Then in Segment 2 (Part 1 released on May 5th, Part 2 on May 18th and Part 3 on June 1st so far, at the time of the release of this document), I have been examining first, a few key events that have happened from 2016 through 2020 and then, I have been focusing extensively upon events taking place during 2022 and the beginning of 2023. In Part 4 of this Segment, at this time, not yet done, I will continue discussing key events in 2023, up to the time I do the recording. Also in Part 3 and Part 4, I am bringing the viewer up to speed about the purportedly new positive and uplifting financial system that I think we will also see in 2023 offered by the White Hats and Alliance. I believe that through these discussions dealing with a chronology of these various events, the viewers are able to better understand how our world is definitely moving toward this positive future and that it is actually God's Will that this will happen (which is explained a bit more in Segment 1). Once you hear about these two unbelievable personal experiences I discussed in Segment 1, you will better understand why I am choosing which subjects to share in the FB/Newsletter posts/messages and in the video series as well. :-)

Thus, I am using these two different approaches, to do, what I have always done, since I starting doing my crazy travels on faith in the early 1980's and that is to share, as I said before, the very best information I have uncovered during my research. That which totally resonates with my soul and then pass this information on for others to consider. It is not my job here to convince anyone of anything that I will be discussing, but my hope is that for each of you, you will find some gold nuggets that will fully prepare you for this glorious and miraculous future that is coming to our world and what we must endure to get there.. Plus, as all of these wondrous activities take place, then perhaps you will also be able to help your friends, family and extended family members to remain calm if they should go into shock as the Truth is revealed - yes?

Lastly, I am not the only person who is doing this type of sharing, I can assure you. There are many other people involved in the same as each person finds their own unique approach and specializes upon specific information to disseminate. I assume since "The Voice" (or I also call it "Spirit") has been after me (and encouraging me) to do these two approaches, that there are certain people out there (readers), no doubt, who will be reviewing this e-book (that discovered this material in some unique and interesting way -- just as has happened with my other books and on-line interviews, etc ...) and that it will fill in some key pieces and holes for them. Or maybe, it will just confirm what you already know or suspect. Further, other then "The Voice" and what I call my own inner spiritual experiences, the other information I will be discussing with you is about activities, events, insights or past histories that I feel inwardly guided to speak about. I totally trust my intuitive feeling (when I get a hit I literally feel my whole body light up or I sense a very very strong inner vibration) in determining what information is the best to present for you.

Now please understand, I do not have what is called a secret "whistleblower" telling me things, although I have interviewed Gene Decode

(4 times, and you can find these interviews on our video channels), who is very well respected for the information he is sharing and has greatly influenced my understanding of world events. In addition, I did interviewed a super soldier (which you'll have to wait for what that is all about within Segment 3 of our video series) who had a very unique viewpoint about our world as well. Plus, there other people have such contacts and I do tap into what information they are sharing via social media.

OK, so what I have decided to do within this e-book then is to basically share the version of the posts I sent out to our newsletter members so you will be reading exactly what I published through Part 2I, which was the last section of Part 2. Then, please find a section at the very end of this e-book that contains our contact information along with our suggested on-line resources, if you wish to know more on a subject we are discussing. Also listed within that section is how to get the other 8 free-e-books (all in a PDF format) on a variety of subjects that we offer. I believe each one is directly connected in a way to what is happening here in 2023 and where our world is headed in the future. Six of these e-books I have written myself and two of them come from other sources.

Yes, I know, I am throwing at you a lot of information here in the beginning before this e-book's content has started, but it can't be helped. I am a typical Aries and I can not hold back anything which I think may have a great value for you. I hope you find this material helpful and please feel free to share this e-book with anyone else you feel to do so which is why I am making it as a free e-book.

To an amazing journey throughout 2023 and beyond. To the co-creation of making our world a Paradise and one that is, I dear say, if you will forgive me (but this is going to be a part of our future reality) a wonderful place for our Cosmic Brothers and Sisters (you may call them ETs, I like to call them Galactics, some other folk call them "Star Nations") to come and visit and to share with us their stories of what life is like for them on their own worlds.

In Peace and Light always,

Joshua Shapiro

Title: 2023 Message Series - A Key Year!!

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Joshua here -- its time again for some more information sharing ... it's hard to believe that January is already over.

As usual, I woke up one morning and felt inwardly inspired to share various insights (that I think you will find highly interesting) with our extended world family. I strongly believe that this year of 2023, (we are going to see) Great Truths are going to be shared with all of humanity that will be fully backed by total evidence and proof covering many levels. I will need a series of messages to cover such information (Note: Information I have uncovered or walked into on-line via the internet and other insights based on some special experiences I have had and I am still having) and plan to use our on-line newsletters, FaceBook and Telegram to share these insights, so I apologize if you see it more then once ... We have discussed some of this before so ... maybe if you resonate with various parts of this post, it could be shared with family and friends. Anyway, here we go again Joshua and Katrina, CS Explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - I am going to share with you, the first message (slightly modified) that I shared on Facebook last week here - tomorrow I will be sharing with you Part 1A that will deal with some evidence that the history we have been taught (in school and in other ways) about our world may not be the way how events have really happened. Also I recognize, that for some of you, this information I have been inwardly guided to by "Spirit" to discuss, may not resonate for all of you -- all we can do these days is share the best insights we uncover (as there are so many different scenarios being offered to explain what is now happening in our world these days) with each other and then each of us must decide what works for us or not.

From Facebook January 26th (An Introduction):

Hello FB extended CS & Spiritual Family - this is gonna be another one of my inspired messages as I am going to focus about what might be coming up for 2023 along with three free e-books I can offer to you (2 of ours which you might have already and one from a new brother who also is offering a ton of free e-books himself) along with our 3 rumble video channels which are chock full of great insights and highly interesting information and interviews too. :-)

Here are the key concepts of which these books are going to support:

#1 Is it quite possible that everything that we believe about our world and this reality that we live in ain't true at all? And if so, are we ready to toss everything we believe away? My guess is that some of our extended family who are following their own spiritual path suspect this could be true and when this Truth starts coming out in leaps and bounds this year, that such individuals {like yourself} will be able to quickly adapt to it :-)) .. and then ...

#2 That during this year, 2023, what some are calling "Truth Bombs" are going to be revealed big time with full proof and evidence to support them (as the undeclared war happening these days between "Light" and dark comes to an end with the "Light" and "God/Creator" totally winning). It is of course my hope that the information contained within the e-books we are able to offer could be of tremendous help for many people (our friends and family) especially when this Truth is being revealed, for those individual who might experience a great shock and have a hard time to deal with it. Thus, some type of new gentle education will be needed to support them as well as deal with the continued transformation coming to our world.

#3 These 3 e-books we are offering (I will tell you briefly what each is about) are for 3 types of people: A) Those who are already aware that our world is moving into the "Light", the 5D or Paradise and might require just a few more pieces to see a more clear picture of what is about to unfold within our world or; B) You are sensing something big is going on but not totally sure what it is all about but, you are very open to learn more and do your own personal research about these new possibilities and; C) You are not happy with what is happening in this world, you are a bit frightened or concerned about our future and thus, you just maybe might be open to look at some of these crazy explanations to see if you can get some answers about our global challenges and find a ray of hope for our future ...

So, if you do fall into one of these 3 categories of people then, here is what the e-books we are offering and what the rumble video channels we have setup speak about, of which all are highly highly controversial topics BTW. However, for myself, since 2020, and totally trusting in my own inner guidance, I absolutely know that these subjects will be demonstrating that humanity has not been given the real Truth (maybe only a few tiny pieces of it) related to the true nature of Mother Earth by the so-called Elite. And they have done this in a planned way and through a concerted effort because they wish to stop all of us from awakening to our true Divine Spiritual Being and Self.

E-book #1 - Tartaria - around the late 18th century or the early part of the 1800's there still existed a worldwide civilization whom looked human but were taller than us and lived in total peace. Their cities were located all over the world and they were very spiritual and highly technical. However, they were intentionally taken out so our world could be reset (this was about 200 some years ago with a world flood). Part of the evidence that they even existed can be seen on the inside and outside of many of the cathedrals and religious and government buildings that we are familiar with. For you will find inside these buildings, very advance artistic designs using sacred geometry within their architecture and art work plus ... (this is one of our e-books ...)

E-book #2: Our Earth is not a Globe -- or we live upon what people (what has also been discussed within various governmental agency documents if you know where to find them on-line) call "Flat Earth" -- that is, we live on a flat non-rotating earth (with a dome over it which the Bible calls the Firmament). This e-book discusses not only evidence of such (called the GeoCentric Model) but explains why and discusses some scientific fallacies about why we can not be living upon a spherical globe in rotation upon its axis as well as rotating around the Sun (or in other words, that our Earth is a part of a planetary system moving through outer space). This e-book contains over 500 pages which fully discusses this flat earth model, along with information about our sun and a black sun, the moon, the dome, and why our world definitely is a flat circular disk, with an ice wall at the outer edge and the true North Pole is at the very center of our world and plus (this e-book is ours)

E-book #3: "Nothing is True, Everything is a Lie" by James W. Lee - which displays on the title page -- "History is a pack of lies about events that never happened told by people who weren't there."-- George Santayana ... Mr. Lee does a great job in this one e-book to discuss what is really happening behind the scenes within our world. I intuitively chose this e-book because it supports and explains the same core understanding that has come to me via my own investigations, personal spiritual experiences and inner insights. However, I need to warn our extended family, this is a very difficult book to read as it goes into great detail about a very dark aspect of our world which not everyone can handle. However, I truly believe that after you read this e-book and gain its knowledge, you will never again give away your power of your life to other individuals, groups and circumstances that are not for your highest good. Plus, then Creator's Love and Light becomes fully transparent to us to live a happy and peaceful life!

[To visit Mr. Lee's website and see his other free e-books go to:
<https://aplanetruth.info>]

Sorry for this first message being so long -- just doing my thing as I have been inspired to do. To learn how to get one or all of these free e-books, just send us an email (see the on-line resource section at the end of this e-book too) and I will send it out to your way. For the three rumble video channels we offer collectively, I have put the links to the channels in our on-line resource section at the end, also. The three rumble channels are: The Center / Crystal Skull Explorers / CSE Flat Earth.

As I continue to share the next pieces of this series of messages, I will be discussing and focusing upon key aspects of the various subjects that are contained within these three e-books I just mentioned. If these subjects resonate for you or you wish to learn more than naturally I recommend you contact me so I can send to you a copy of (the/each) e-book itself. My further hope is that if you find any of the materials of value then you may wish to share these e-books with other friends and family who are open to such. Or WHEN the EBS happens (some people think when the release of the Emergency Broadcast System takes place all over the world, it will be broadcast on our phones, televisions and probably through the internet on our computers and tablets) then, and only then, will we all know that the Great Awakening has started and its time for us to be the Channels of God's Light to support the many people (friends, family and extended family) who will begin to awaken from their slumber. :-)

I remember, for myself, that before I was born (and was in "Spirit") and then came to this Earth, I volunteered to be one of these information sharers. Plus, I have no doubt this will be one of the key projects and services that our new Center will offer as we go forward and so ...

-- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and a Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something we imagine in our minds :-)

In Peace, Light and Love always - Now that 2023 is here, have you started to notice the subtle changes manifesting and surprising Truths being slowly released to the general public (but surely not by the regular news media)? Stay tuned for Part 1A of this message series next as we take a closer peak at the land known as Tartaria!

Joshua & Katrina

the Crystal Skull Explorers and co-founders for The Center for the Advancement of Humanity

(Note: I hope you enjoy the following images I have attached for this message which you find starting on the next page, with each one including a short description underneath. I think these are clues to what I have been speaking about within this specific message that will be coming up in our near future :-) ... All of these images are from our book on about what I have called the "Blue Crystal Skull". These images were taken during our journey into the southern part of Peru at the border with Lake Titicaca -- there is a special large stone door there known as "The Gate of the Gods" to the local people. Plus, there is one image of the sacred Inca Gold Disc which is rumored to be under the water of this Lake. If any of these images bring forth some questions within you or you wish to discuss them, please feel free to email me at crystalskullexplorers@gmail.com We have lot more of these inspired and illuminating images as you can imagine... Joshua)

This is the ancient (very large) stone door known as Amaru Muru, which is situated in the very southern part of Peru near Lake Titicaca ... the local people say they have seen hooded people come through this door at times and call it in "The Portal of the Gods" in their language called Amayra. The White Line to your right just showed up in this photo taken.

In 2009, Katrina and I led a spiritual tour to Peru and visiting Amaru Muru was a key part of this journey, so we could each do a personal meditation at the door. Here I am doing my meditation working with my personal crystal skulls.

This photo was taken after I finished the meditation at the Stone Door, you can see I was totally out of it as the energy here is extremely strong. Plus, I was playing music from my mp3 player using external speakers and singing out loud to this music (a song I wrote) working with my personal Crystal Skull called "Portal de Luz" (smoky quartz) or "Portal of Light"

This is what the Inca Gold Disk is said to look like which is composed of 90% gold and is linked to the City of Cusco as purportedly a Coat in Arms.

Another photo taken during the 2009 Spiritual Peru Tour, this painting is of one of the rulers found in a tomb in the ancient Moche city of Sipan located in the northern part of Peru. He is known as "The Lord of Sipan" and his bones lie in a glass case in a museum near this city.

In a previous trip, the spirit of "The Lord" contacted Joshua and always acts as a protector and "spirit guide" when he is there.

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 1A - History

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Joshua here - ok its time to continue the series of messages I have been posting on Facebook about 2023 and some evidence or clues that definitely show us that our understanding of what we have been taught about the nature of our reality might not be true at all. This first part will focus upon if the "History" we all believe to be true of the past few hundreds years is how things really happened. There are three sections to Part 1, I will be sharing over a number of days - enjoy and maybe you will find this subject fascinating, if you have not studied Tartaria before Joshua and Katrina, CS Explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - I am going to continue to share with all of you, the second message I posted on Facebook from about a week ago which I have labeled Part 1A that dealt with some evidence that the history we have been taught in school about our world, that it very possibly never happened this way. (Oh boy!!)

Now, when a person is introduced or exposed to a totally different scenario then they have always believed to be true, they may totally reject it or pretend it has never taken place even if there is strong evidence to the contrary. This condition is known as cognitive dissonance. Therefore, when the final details of the Truth dealing with what has been really going on behind the scenes in our world finally comes out, we may see many members of our family and friends acting in such a manner. (So perhaps it is part of our work for our world to help them then??)

Finally, it is not my objective here that all of you will agree with me and believe in the existence of a land, kingdom, or great civilization known as Tartaria, but I will try to share with you over the course of the next three editions of this newsletter compelling evidence of such. So Everyone, here we go (strap in ...) ---->

From Facebook January 30th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 1A - Do we Really Know the True History of our World? -- What about the Existence of Tartaria (the last reset)?

[I am sharing a series of messages that offer key information and insights I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that I strongly strongly believe shows us that 2023 is the year when total truths are about to be revealed!! These next series of messages in Part I are connected to possible evidence of the existence of a great spiritual and technological civilization of tall humans who lived on the Earth not so long ago but ... but a global disaster (possibly a flood or huge mud flood as it is called by the experts) removed these people. This world culture has been called Tartaria or Great Tartaria. We offer to anyone who is interested, a free e-book about Tartaria. There is also a video interview I gave where I did a presentation with digital slides for our friend Nancy for her on-line show which you can also check out if you resonate with this possibility ...]

In Part 1A of this message series - I will list a few of the key reasons why many people are now convinced Tartaria existed:

- 1. There are black and white photographs that have been shared publicly (I have viewed them in various videos that I found their on-line links listed upon Telegram which clearly showed large European cities from the 1840's-1860's with their buildings totally intact but there were absolutely no people walking around during the day when the sun was out - how can this be possible? ... and ...

2. Throughout the world are many many buildings where the ground floor of those buildings is partly above the ground and partly under the ground so that in fact their windows are not fully exposed. The experts on Tartaria ask, "could this be so due to some type of global mud flood (so part of these buildings were covered by mud) that hit our world anywhere from the late 1700's to the early 1800's?" ... and ...

3. Why in the mid-1800's up to the early 1900's were there so many orphans around the world? And why were so many of these children being moved all over the world? Was the purpose of such merely to fill these empty cities I spoke about in #2 above? Also there are photos of large public carnivals or fairs where they had exhibits of babies in glass cases for sale (and so what was this all about as well?). ... and ...

4. Only on Telegram have I ever heard a public leader of a country, that being President Putin of Russia, publicly state (this will never happen in the U.S. media) in one of his speeches a mention of Tartaria by name as being part of Russia in their past. If you can find old maps before 1800, Tartaria is shown there, I assure you. For example, I saw such a map from 1771 in the Encyclopedia Britannica which I will share in Part 1C. The main part of Tartaria was located in Asia where modern Siberia, Russia and China exist today (could the great wall of China be from??) ... and so

Part 1A conclusion: Therefore, if indeed Tartaria really was a key part of the Earth's history (and of course, we can't say for sure as nowhere can we find in any written history nor what we have been taught in school is Tartaria ever ever mentioned [intentionally]) -- this would not only change our known history but would challenge the origin of many of the existing religions upon our Earth and if various older cultures and civilizations (such as Rome or Ancient Greece??) ever really were real too. If this is the case, then we might conclude that the so-called Elite of our world created these false histories to suit their own needs so we would see our world in some alternative view they wished us to see and not how Creator made our Earth.

-- again we have a free e-book you can receive if you wish to read more (or follow the internet links to other on-line sources contained within this e-book) -- just send to us an email and we will attach the e-book to one back. Again, in the resource section at the end of this e-book are our 3 video channels we have on rumble. The interview I did with Nancy Yearout on her show, "High Road for Humanity", go to:

I truly believe what has been presented in this Part is the type of information that is getting ready to come out in floods during this year of 2023 to awaken humanity plus, if Tartaria was real then, we will have direct contact with all of their advance tech in the near future that will be returning to us as well ... stay tuned for Part 1B --

In Peace, Light and Love always - Now that 2023 is here, more and more strange activities and phenomena are taking place almost daily. A recent example, the U.S. just had a Chinese spy balloon going over it, or was it a spy balloon - this seems very strange doesn't it? Stay tuned for Part 1B of this message series as we take another look at Tartaria!

(Note: I hope you enjoy the images I have attached below, these are some of the images I have been sharing with others to show what type of evidence there is for Tartaria ... Joshua)

The Arc de Triomphe (Arc of Triumph) located in Paris purportedly started to be created in 1806 - don't be fooled this couldn't be made by that periods' tools -- it has to be one of the Tartarian structures still standing don't you think?

Also, if you could view overhead the part of the City of Paris that surrounds the Arc, it looks like a computer circuit board. It is speculated by the experts who have been studying Tartaria, they think these structures which are in the shape of an Arc, was used as a powerful electro-magnetic to empower their free Energy System.

Here we see an example of a black and white photo taken of a large city in Russia in the 1840's or the 1850's, it's during the day and no one is walking outside, so strange aye?

In this photo we see a typical older building in Paris and what is being pointed out here is the ground floor, the windows are half above & under the ground - a mud flood in the past?

Taj Mahal

This is another example of a Tartarian building – do you think in 1631-1648 primitive Indians could have build it?

This montage of photographs is to give more visual examples of Tartarian Buildings which have not been destroyed or demolished by the Elite or the controllers of our world as they have tried to remove all evidence of Tartaria. For each of these buildings they give some purported explanation for how and when these buildings were built, all have an antenna at their top!

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 1B - History

Hello extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Joshua here - ok, as promised here is the next part of what I am calling our "2023 Message Series" which I have been posting on Facebook. This is a continuation of the first part (Part 1B) which is focusing upon if the "History" we all believe to be true of the past few hundred years is how it really did happen or did the civilization of Tartaria exist before did you like Part 1A so far? ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - As I promised yesterday, here is the next section of the history discussion about Tartaria and how it relates to key information and truths about our world that have been hidden which I believe quite strongly will be revealed within this year. If you didn't read Part 1A before, I suggest you do so first and then this next section will make more sense - enjoy :-)

From Facebook February 1st:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 1B - Do we Really Know the True History of our World? -- What about the Existence of Tartaria (the last reset)?

[I am sharing a series of messages that will offer the key information I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that I strongly strongly believe shows us 2023 is the year when total truths are about to be revealed!! Here in Part 1B I am discussing the possible evidence for the existence of a great spiritual and technological civilization of tall humans who lived on the Earth not long ago but ... but a global disaster (possibly a flood or huge mud flood as it is called by the experts) removed these people. This world culture has been called Tartaria or Great Tartaria. We offer to anyone who is interested a free e-book about Tartaria and there is a video interview I gave where I did a presentations with digital slides for our friend Nancy for her show which you can also check out (that video link on rumble was given in the message before or can be found on the Center's rumble channel) if you resonate with this possibility ...]

In this Part of this message series - I will list a few more of the reasons why many people are becoming quite convinced that Tartaria existed:

The most compelling evidence for the existence of Tartaria deals with the many buildings that seemingly remain throughout the world, right out in front of our view that showcase numerous buildings of a highly advance design (inside and outside). What am I referring to? Well in the last message I shared some images of such buildings, if you recall, such as:

a) the Arch of Triumph in Paris (see Part 1A for another photo) - these type of advanced designed Arches were purportedly part of the Free Energy systems the Tartarians developed that were functional all over the world. The arches worked like a huge electro-magnetic - if you look at the city of Paris that surrounds this arch from the sky, it almost looks like the houses around it form part of a digital circuit board (they claim this huge structure was done in the early 1800s but what kind of tools and technology did the people of that time have to make this happen?) and;

b) the Taj Mahal in India (see Part 1A for a photo) - they claim it was constructed in the 1630's but again how could people with the primitive building tools of that time make such an incredible and perfect structure? Purportedly, the antennas extruding upwards from the domes were able to link into the aether in the Earth's atmosphere to pull down a highly charged electro-magnetic (free) energy and then it was collected and distributed through an advance device contained within the building connected to the antenna. We see this pattern of antennas upon many other structures and buildings within our world (and this was shown in some of the other images of the buildings I showed in Part 1A as well). This outer view of the architecture of these buildings does not include the intricate carvings and geometric patterns on the walls of Taj Mahal inside (which some say is evidence of Cymatics -- the geometric patterns produced by specific uplifting sounds and vibrations for healing and prayer) and;

c) Star Forts - all over the world are structures which are said to be a type of forts in a five star pattern built in the 1400-1600's ... but again when we view these structures close up they are very intricate and sophisticatedly done that not only would require an advance technology that didn't exist during that time but one would need to be high above these structures to fashion them. These forts seem to also serve some unique function within their Free Energy system - see image attached below and;

d) Many of the Churches, Cathedrals and Synagogues which show so-called religious symbols on their domes or towers were purportedly not used for such religious purposes (if all of these religions did exist in the past as well?) during Tartaria but again were either an extension of their Free Energy System or for a type of spiritual healing (see image attached) and;

e) World Fairs held in Major Cities in the World in the late 1890's and early 1900's - in particular I have seen video or photographs of three specific fairs where the same type of activities took place being in: Chicago in 1893; Paris in 1900 and St. Louis in 1904. In each case, these three cities had quite a number of incredibly designed and advanced buildings, all of a similar design as to the photos I showed in Part IA including a fully developed electrical lightning system.

However, after each fair ended these beautiful buildings (or most of them) were destroyed - why?

I studied in more detail the Chicago Fair, since I was born in Chicago and there are only 3 of over 100 buildings (they say they built in 2-3 years) standing from the fair and I have been inside of each one. It is reported historically that there was one switch President Grover Cleveland turned on to light up all the buildings at the Fair and they also had electrical walkways - they say all of these electrical systems came through Nikola Tesla (but I don't think the electrical systems of this time were so advanced yet!!). Lordy lord, just too many unanswered questions during these Fairs (see image attached) ...

In Part 1C coming up next, I will add a few more insights that have come out linked to Tartaria and these buildings Part 1B Conclusion: ... Do these magnificent structures that we can find in almost virtually every large city in the world offer us very strong evidence of an advanced race of humanity who lived within our world about 200+ years ago? If we are not being told the truth about the real history of our Earth then what else haven't the so-called officials (the Elite) not been telling us? Could the giant skeletons that are being found within the ground {even here in the U.S. which the news media and museums won't ever discuss) be the remains of the Tartarians? ... stay tuned for Part 1C - Joshua :-) ... (JS CSE 417+1)

[Once again, don't forget, if you haven't received a copy of our free e-book on Tartaria to send us an email and we will send it back attached to an email or you may wish to take a peek to all the videos we are offering on our rumble video channels :-)]

As I stated last time: "I truly believe what is being presented within Part I is the type of information that we are getting ready to see come flooding out this year to awaken humanity plus, a large part of the new advance tech we will be given (hidden now by the elite) will be of Tartarian design - could this be where Telsa received all of his inventions? Stay tuned for Part 1C next - Joshua :-) ... (JS CSE 417+1)"

-- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and a Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something we can imagine in our minds :-)

In Peace, Light and Love always - 2023 is here now, and more and more strange activities and phenomena are happening. Stay tuned for Part 1C, the final section of this Part 1 of this message series as we take one final look at Tartaria!

(Note: I hope you enjoy the images I have attached on the following pages, these are some of the images I have been sharing with others to show what type of evidence there is for Tartaria ... Joshua)

Here we see another image of the Arc de Triomphe in Paris, but if we actually went from a much higher view, you would see the layout of the city around the Arc looks like a circuit board.

This is an example of a Star Fort, I think it is found in Holland, many exist in the world.

St. Andrews Cathedral in Singapore, see how such Tartarian Buildings are re-purposed as a Cathedral or Church and given a false history how they were built.,

The top black and white photo was taken of the 1893 Chicago's World Fair, you can see that the structures of the buildings here are very similar to the photos of the other buildings I have shown you in previous sections of this e-book. The bottom image is a painting of what the area designated for this World Fair looked like from the outskirts of other parts of Chicago.

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 1C - History

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Joshua here again with the last part of our new "2023 Message Series" for Part 1 dealing with past Earth History and in particular the great civilization of Tartaria. Ok, here we go again, hang on to yourselves!! ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - As I promised yesterday, here is the next and final section about our past history discussion that deals with Tartaria. Also, how it relates to the very special information and truths about our world that have been hidden for over 200 years that are about to be revealed here in 2023 - enjoy :-)

From Facebook February 7th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 1C - Do we Really Know the True History of our World? -- What about the Existence of Tartaria (the last reset)?

[This is the continuation of a series of messages I am sharing on my FB page which are discussing various key information I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations which I strongly strongly believe shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths are about to be revealed!! This particular message is the conclusion of my posts related to the possible evidence of a great spiritual and technological civilization of tall humans who lived not long ago (two hundred plus years) known as Tartaria or Great Tartaria. However, a global disaster - a flood or mud flood as it has been called, removed all (or most) of these people from our Earth. We have a free e-book on

Tartaria and there is a video where I did an interview with digital slides on an on-line show with our friend Nancy Yearout (the link for this video was given within Part 1A) that you can check out if you resonate with this possibility and wish to know more ... and now we go on to the final segment of this Part ...]

In this last and final section of Part 1 of this message series - I will be listing a few more interesting aspects purportedly linked to Tartaria which is why so many people are becoming convinced this great civilization truly did exist. If you believed what I was discussing in Part 1B about the Tartarian buildings which are still standing today, then is the evidence right in front of us, yes? And so, we go on ...

a) Ancient maps of the world uncovered that clearly show Tartaria residing from what we know today as Siberia, Russia and China within Asia. An example of such of a map comes from the 1771 edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica and the image is included later on ... and ...

b) If you study recorded history of the 1800's as well as into the early part of the 1900's, we find numerous reports of fires occurring within many many large cities in our world and even sometimes the same city having multiple fires (like I saw this happened to Chicago in the late 1800s). Tartarian researchers speculate that the reason there were so many of these fires (or at times earthquakes even like the one in San Francisco in 1906 ... or could the reasons for so many wars in the world {like the destruction of Atlanta during the Civil War or all the cities in Europe which had damage during the 1st and 2nd World Wars}) was that the elite or the controllers of our world wanted to destroy as much as possible any physical evidence of Tartaria like what we discussed before and with the great structures and buildings they decided to keep, make up some explanation for how they were built and have us believe them ... and ...

c) Telegram is one of the best sources for information on Tartaria - there are quite a few channels that cover this highly fascinating subject. If you obtain (or have already received) our free e-book then you will see that we list quite a few of these channels.

Well, oh my God -- you have to hear about this video that I saw on one of these telegram channels: There was a video shared by a person who was filming one of these Tartarian type buildings that I showed you before which had a small dome on the top and an antenna coming out of this dome. Well in this video, at the top of the antenna was a sparking golden light which means that this building was still receiving the free energy from the aether within our atmosphere. Tartarian researchers believe quite strongly that within these type of buildings (which were receiving and distributing this Free Energy from the Earth to all over the world) was a highly sophisticated electrical device that provided this function so it was still there perhaps and had not been eliminated by the elite so these buildings would stop performing this function ... and ...

d) I saw this old newspaper article only one time on telegram and unfortunately I was so excited to read it that I forgot to record the digital image shown. Unfortunately, I haven't been able to find it again. Through a friend of Katrina, I heard about this article before as well. So what was this article about and why is it so important to our study? The article was written for a major U.S. newspaper in 1852 and the author was a person who was traveling throughout the western part of the U.S. First let us consider, before I describe the article, what was happening in the U.S. at this time, according to the history we have been taught ...

Now around this time in our past there were supposedly two wars with Mexico which resulted in the creation of the state of Texas as well as the U.S. gaining other land (California) that Mexico had and; there was the California Gold Rush as well as many people who were traveling out west in stage coaches and caravans to claim a new life in the Western part of the U.S. However, what was the strangest part of this previously published article is that the author described the numerous large ruined cities he was observing during his travels.

Large ruined cities -- how can this be as there should only be the so called primitive Native American tribes living out in these areas? I can't recall which cities he was referring to but I would think he might mean perhaps cities in Colorado (Denver), New Mexico (Albuquerque and Santa Fe), Arizona (Phoenix) and in California (San Francisco). What would such ruined cities look like though? Since within the U.S. all of our current large cities have Tartarian type buildings still, then this must have been the evidence of the great cities of Tartaria still standing at this time before the elite began to dismantle them. Thus, we have rumors of such cities standing not only within all of the U.S. but in Canada as well as South America like in Brazil??

Part 1C: Final Conclusions about Tartaria ... Well, if you have been following closely the materials shared within this three part series linked to Tartaria, I would think for most of you that it can be easily perceived that the existence within our world of these advance buildings/structures and the Star Forts just doesn't seem to make sense. Related to the type of technologies needed to build such structures during the times we are told they were created, it would not be possible at all. As we say in America, "something is rotten in Denmark" (no offense to the Danish).

Further, all the stories we hear about the large number of orphans showing up all over the world in the 1800's is a similar mystery. Unless, there really was a total reset of our Earth around this time as the elite wanted to re-educate the total population with a brand new story about the history of our world that would fit their false scenarios and plans to keep humanity sleeping about our true essence and history. I am sure that once all of humanity goes through the so-called "Great Awakening", during this process we will discover or rediscover the true documentation of the past history of our world and we will know for sure then if Tartaria really existed.

But if Tartaria was real then what other events and activities from our past that we have been taught about will we have to throw away too as being a total fabrication as well? What other histories have been hidden and destroyed like Tartaria? For example, did Jesus really live two thousand years ago? What about all the stories about the monarchies ruling within Europe? Did the Greeks and Romans live as we were told or is the architecture of their supposed buildings and their statues from Tartaria? What about Atlantis, was it really 12,000 years ago when Atlantis sank under the ocean or was it much more recent? Perhaps before the end of this year we will finally learn the full truth and if so I will be very excited!! - Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)

[Of course feel free to shares these posts (or this e-book) with others you know. Also I have already received some feedback about Tartaria from a few of you, so feel free to chat with me or to ask question if you want. There is more to Tartaria then what I was able to share in this short series and of course feel free to contact me by email if you wish to obtain a copy of our free Tartaria e-book.

Once again I am sharing a few more images linked to Tartaria, enjoy. Also I found another book on telegram, a free e-book which it appears is written by the Majestic 12 group. In Part 3 I will go into what this e-book shares and why I feel it can help us but if you already know about this group setup by President Truman in the late 1940's when Roswell and other UFO sightings and crashing were happening, feel free to email me and I will get you a copy.]

Now briefly I want to prepare you for what is coming up in Part 2 - as it will be quite an extensive discussion about the true nature of our world, Mother Earth. I shall not be calling our home a planet (that is the word plane with a "t" added at the end) because this discussion will explain why it is impossible we are living on a spherical globe or planet.

This debate will be between the HelioCentric Model (that we live on a planet which rotates in space, flies around the sun with other planets {outer space being a vacuum} and the whole solar also moving through space) verses the GeoCentric Model (that we live on a flat circular disc that is non-rotating with an impenetrable dome and possibly outside the dome is a watery or liquid substance {like in Star Trek Voyager traveled into the plane of "Fluidic Space"} we float within).

Now I recognize clearly, this next debate ain't going to be for everyone and is another subject that can cause a mental breakdown or reality denial. All I can tell you dear extended spiritual family is that I accepted this challenge myself in 2021 and after 6 months of intense research which resulted in writing a 500 page free e-book (oi vai), I had to admit that the GeoCentric Model makes a lot more sense to me now than the HelioCentric Model. The HelioCentric Model has a ton of holes that I will be discussing which includes aspects that just don't work along side of the scientific and mathematic theories used to prove that its true. So please stay tuned soon for Part 2 of this "2023 Message Series" coming up next!!

-- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and a Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something we can imagine in our minds :-)

In Peace, Light and Love always - 2023 is here now, and more and more strange activities and phenomena are happening. Stay tuned for Part

2, an introduction that discusses why "We can't possibly live on a spherical globe or planet!!"

(Note: I hope you enjoy the images I have attached below, these are some of the images I have been sharing with others to show what type of evidence there is for Tartaria ... Joshua ... PS -- if you want to jump head we have a whole video channel on rumble devoted to "Flat Earth" which ties into our free e-book, see the end of this e-book for the link to this rumble video channel.)

The map of Asia (primarily) shown above was published purportedly in the 1771 edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica. Here we see "Grande Tartaria" (seems to be written in French) taking up a great deal of Asia including all of Russia and some part of China. Therefore, if this map is real it means most likely up to the early 1800's, everyone in the world knew about Tartaria!

This image represents the very sophisticated and colorful lighting systems which still existed in large cities in the world in the late 1800's and early 1900's before there was a systematic process to continue to destroy all evidence of the adv. Culture of Tartaria!

In this photo we see a typical large European city with older buildings but as you can see when they dig underneath ground level there is more to these buildings - evidence of the Mud Flood?

Another drawing of a large city from probably the late 1800's showing how sophisticated and precisely geometrical the Tartarian Buildings were.

In this photo to your left we see what looks like the ruins of a city with a lot of rubble. Then we see two gentlemen perhaps dressed in the late 1800's type of clothes but the man on the left appears very tall - could he be a descent of Tartaria, as there were quite a few people during this time that were photographed and quite tall like him? Notice, in the background to your left you see a tall electricity post different than ours?

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2 - Intro

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Joshua here again with the next part of our new "2023 Message Series" I am calling Part 2 dealing with what I consider to be the two models we have heard about that describe the nature of our World. Ok, here we go again, hang on to yourself as I am going to be discussing one of the most controversial subjects of all times!! ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - We just finished last week discussing Tartaria, hope you enjoyed that. Now it is time to move on to a new subject for Part 2. Before I start though, I am sharing with you this introduction because the nature of this subject is so hotly contested that some people absolutely believe it is a total conspiracy theory or a deep state psyop. But, I feel inwardly compelled to discuss my findings from over the past year and a half as it continues to give us clues what could very well be the truth about our world and a reality hidden from us. I have to speak about this, even if you decide to never talk with me or contact me again. So what is the subject I want to get into, read my post from Facebook below - enjoy :-)

From Facebook February 14th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2 - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Models. The GeoCentric Model) -- An Introduction

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page which I am doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! Within this particular next section of this message series, Part 2, it will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views about what is the true nature of the world that we live upon.

The first view is called the "HelioCentric Model" (which is what we were all taught in school, unless you are over 100 years old and remember something different) that states our Earth is a spherical globe, that rotates on its axis, floating in outer space and revolves around a Sun with other planets within a solar system. Then, this solar system is also moving in space. The second view is called the "GeoCentric Model" (but most people call it the Flat Earth model) and this is where the Earth is a flat circular disc that is non-rotating (or stationary) which is covered by an impenetrable dome with the sun, moon and stars located in the sky near the top of the dome or underneath it essentially.

We also have a free e-book (only 500 pages :-)) about Flat Earth which goes into much more detail than I will be able to share within my posts here. Plus, we have a dedicated rumble video channel devoted to this subject so, if you wish, at any time while I am discussing this new Part, you may wish to go ahead and check it out. If this is the case then feel free to check the resource section at the end of this e-book ...

Joshua :-)]

In the first Part of this ongoing message series we discussed the existence of an advance race of humanity known as "Tartaria". That the Tartarians are an example of the "History" of our world that we not been taught about (i.e.: through our schools, our news media, shown in our various forms of our entertainment and written in our books). Furthermore, within the initial "Introduction" of this full message series, I suggested that it is quite possible almost all key aspects of our life on Earth could be based upon false premises or in other words as I hear quite often on telegram, "we are living in a movie or even a computer simulation".

Therefore, I contend that how we understand the true nature of our world is another one of these areas of study that I strongly believe we should take a closer look at. So, what do I mean by all of this?

We all are familiar with the HelioCentric Model (a round Earth rotating around a sun held in orbit within a solar system moving in outer space) as not only did we learn this when we were young in school but everywhere we look, we always see our Earth as shown as a spherical planet. When you turn on the TV and watch you favorite scifi shows such as Star Trek, Star Wars, Star Gate, etc ... or when we all go to the movie theater to watch a new scifi film - we always see the round Earth sitting in what appears to be outer space with lights (stars) in the background. Further more, many of us intuitively know or strongly believe (absolutely) that humanity can not possibly be the only form of intelligent life in the Universe. That we have been visited by other-worldly beings (Extraterrestrials or Galactics) who come here in some type of anti-gravity craft from outer space traveling to us from their own planet. [Its interesting, as I write these comments that the major media is discussing a number of UFOs showing up in our skies which air force jets are shooting down - is this some kind of distraction or false flag?]

So then, you may be asking, how is it possible that we can't be living in such a universe on such a beautiful planet? For most of us, it seems perfectly logical that the HelioCentric model completely explains everything that we experience here on Earth - like night and day, the seasons, the sun, moon and stars in the sky, gravity and you name it?

Well, now just speaking for myself (and for those of you who know me and have been following my writings, my reports of my travels and my investigations into such subjects as the crystal skulls, UFOs, parallel earths, the spiritual or the paranormal, the Hollow Earth, ancient civilizations and so on) - you might be asking how could I possibly believe in and want to speak about this other crazy world model? That is, the one we call the GeoCentric Model or otherwise popularly known as "Flat Earth"? Did someone brain wash me or has my mind been hacked? Isn't this some type of psyop developed by the deep state or elite to confuse us?

We all know, that for most of us, when we strongly believe in a certain model or foundation about our world and the reality we live in, if something totally new and revolutionary is proposed or comes at us, our basic nature is to fight it and as we say in America, "Say it ain't so Joe!!" But dear extend family member, being a true Aries who relies on his inner guidance and lives to the best of his ability a spiritual life, I am definitely not like this. I seek to understand the 'Truth' of our world and our life, no matter where it takes me (this is what I call a "new adventure"). I know that "Life" or the "Universe" is always going to present to me (really to all of us) new subjects to investigate, especially if it keeps hitting me in the face. Plus, one of the universal truths I believe is - "Nothing ever stays the same, everything changes over time."

So, in 2021 the idea of "Flat Earth" showed up on my door. I also began to observe that there were quite a few people who believed in this model (like thousands upon thousands). Therefore, it was my time to find out what is going on here and to understand why did all these people accept this model?. Additionally, how could I possibly make a true judgment about this model unless I did my own exploration? So I completely jumped into this subject (the Aries way) and what I uncovered is not just a theory or pure fantasy but a good part of the GeoCentric Model is actually based upon science, math and geometry, believe it or not. Further, I discovered that if we completely trust NASA and our scientists, we will miss some big holes contained within the HelioCentric Model as to how it explains the phenomena in our universe and within our Earth. Whereas these weak points saw within the GeoCentric Model's explanations that seem to make far more sense to me and fit physical phenomena we all experience on our world. So much so that I have to say I am a "Flat Earther" now.

Now it's true, it really doesn't matter which of these models is correct or not, our life here on the Earth stays the same. Maybe the real truth is that our Earth is comprised of a part of both of these models (as one of the whistleblowers we interviewed for our new Center, who is a super soldier, suggested to me). But if, we are not open to personally explore a new or different theory or idea, or we wait until some so-called expert tells us what is what, we could be missing out on the most amazing revelations of our world ... anyway ...

At this point though, I realize our world has become so polarized these days due to what has been happening with Covid, medicine, politics, transgender issues and you name it! And that for some of you right now - who are reading these posts (this e-book), you may think I have stepped way beyond the line by speaking about the so-called conspiracy theory known as "Flat Earth". So, if you just can't listen to any more of what I am about to share on this subject, I completely understand. It is extremely difficult to explore a new subject when you feel or know deep down that if you do, your foundation of your basic reality could be greatly challenged. Further, I wish to state that it is not my goal in discussing this model that I am here to convince you that this is the true nature of our Earth. Thus, this is not a debate for me in any way. All I can do, and this is what I have always done, is to share what I have uncovered so far, what I consider to be the most important information and insights thereof and allow each of you to decide for yourself if it has any value for you.

However, I must caution you, this can be one of our most interesting and at the same one of the controversial subjects we have. That for some people, this idea of a different form of our world can be so unbelievable that you could experience what is called cognitive dissonance. That is an inability to accept an alternative reality and this is how the mind protects itself. I am writing this introduction as such, to prepare you for quite a number of posts coming up, which will deal with various aspects of our world, living here on the Earth based upon what we observe and experience as well as how they are explained by both models.

Thus, some people will definitely call Flat Earth a conspiracy theory and will want to challenge every aspect of this model about why it can't possibly be true. Or if you go on "Youtube" and search on the keywords of "Flat Earth", the first videos that come up are all about why this model has to be an out and out hoax and that anyone who talks about it is a moron or completely stupid. Usually when name calling comes up, it gives you a clue that the subject being highly criticized may have more truth to it than you would expect.

Anyway, I will do my best to offer the evidence I have come up with for the Geocentric Model in the next posts or maybe you might wish to wait for Part 3 of this series (now coming out as the a video series). My original goal for this series of messages is again to prepare our extended family for these strong "truth bombs" (both from the Light. the positive side or the dark, the not so nice side) getting ready to come out sometime this year. In order that you won't be so surprised as all this new information comes out and then perhaps, you can assist your family, extend family and friends if they should go into shock trying to deal with the "New Heaven and New Earth" that is almost here.

Finally, within the past few days, a lot of crazy activities are happening now as we move through February of 2023. For example, I have heard via telegram that a number of balloons have been showing up in the skies over the U.S. and Canada and some were shot down by the U.S. Airforce. Are these really Chinese spy balloons or are they something else (a test to shut down our electric grid perhaps)? In addition, the U.S. Airforce, as I shared before is shooting down some type of UFOs (UFO Speaker Alex Collier says Jets can't shoot down ET craft, there technology is too advanced) but then telegram says these particular objects are advanced drones. These days how can we know what is true with all the lies our major media tells us?

Next, it has been publicly shared that Switzerland and Thailand are going to use legal proceedings now to not only shut down the vaccines being distributed in their country but that they are going to sue these companies for the damage it has done to their residents. I think this NFL Buffalo Bill player, Damar Hamlin, who suffered a heart attack on the field in early January, and was taxied off the field that he died but now there is a totally healthy recovered version of Mr. Hamlin walking around (is this a clone?). And what about the earthquake recently in Turkey? Turkish Government officials told the U.S. to keep out of Turkey. I saw a video of a strange light appearing in the sky right before the Earthquake took place -- was it initiated by some type of particle beam weapon in the sky? Did the elites do this because it was a warning to Turkey not to leave NATO and joins BRICS?

Also I have been watching on Youtube the video of the congressional proceedings being carried out to explore how Twitter exploited their cancel culture procedures and blanked out any discussion of the Hunter Biden laptop prior to the U.S. 2020 Election. I think there were four former employees of Twitter who were questioned and it became very clear to the leaders of congress on their panel what the working environment there had been like (as well as being influenced and told what to do by the CIA or FBI) before Musk took it over. We are living in interesting time aye(?) and it seems that our lives are only going to keep getting more and more intense!!

High Level Overview of the Geo-Centric (Flat Earth) Model except this view shows what we will be discussing in Part 2-H where our world or realm is not only the known seven continents on our maps under a Dome but that there could be two more areas of land masses which have a dome and sun and moon under their domes just like it is with us??

If there is anyone in our world who would know our Earth is not a spherical Globe it would have to be this man, Nikola Tesla. And if you view his statement above, this is a definite sign he knew because our Earth has various energy fields that sustain us (Electro-Magnetic, Toroidal & Aetheric)

Above you see some interesting illustrations and drawings. On the left are some maps which shows how the continents look on the Flat Earth and to your right is a drawing of the Hebrew conception of our world, with Waters above the Dome, the Sun & Moon under the dome and another area of the Earth they call "The Great Deep" on the underside of the Earth!!

This interesting illustration shows that very high up in our atmosphere, of which few people are aware, is some type of perhaps an electric or electric magnetic discharge which is known as the "Elves" or "Sprites". These discharges only appear for a brief moment and their form is shown above as their color is an orange or purple. They take on an appearance of like Angels or Flowers and show up in the sky like 90-100 km in the sky (56-62 miles) above as compared to our clouds which only reach a height of 3.5 miles. Could this be some type of energetic discharge off the dome?

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2A
(Is our Earth a Spherical Globe or a Flat Disc?)
The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Joshua here again with the next part of our new "2023 Message Series" (Part 2A) following the introduction to what I called last week Part 2. We will continue to look at the two models of our world with a particular focus upon the shape of our Earth. Ok, here we go again, as I continue to explore one of the most controversial subjects of all times!! ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - So last week I started a new post discussing what is known as the HelioCentric Model (which we were taught in school and is promoted everywhere we look, yes?) against the GeoCentric Model (also known as "Flat Earth" which some folk believe is a psyop or Conspiracy theory to throw us off track). Then as I normally do, I will share with you all (our crystal skull extended family and our Center family members) what I have uncovered about Flat Earth and let you all decide for yourself if any of this information makes sense for you. I already know that some of you might not be happy that I am discussing this particular topic and perhaps you may stop reading, and that's perfectly fine. 😊 However for myself, this is an example of a "Truth" I believe we will all be hearing about in more detail from so-called official sources here in 2023 as our world moves to a Golden Age.

So once again, here is the post I shared on Facebook ... enjoy :-)

From Facebook February 15th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2A - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. the GeoCentric Model) -- Is our World Round/Spherical or is it a Flat Circular Disc?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page along with the members of our two on-line newsletters -- doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! In this particular section, Part 2A of the message series, I will be continuing to explore the two prevalent models or views about what people believe is or could be the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2A - I am going to be look at again, the HelioCentric model vs. the GeoCentric model. When I start to discuss the GeoCentric Model (as usual, it will be done secondly), I will look at the first scientific and geometric measurements that I uncovered during the beginning of my personal studies. There was a simple equation I found that tells us without a shadow of a doubt that our world isn't what we thought it is (which you will be able to verify for yourself, but will you want to??). This revelation literally blew me away as this equation clearly demonstrates (based upon what our own scientists who tell us these are the dimensions of our world) that our Earth can not be a spherical globe! Wait till you see it. 😊

Now - remember, I am discussing both models, and I am not here to convince you of anything. I am only sharing what I learned in my own personal investigation but at the same time, I wish to warn ya here a little bit about what is coming up next.

Now, I believe most of us are beginning to realize about the out and out lies the major media shares with us each day (yes??). Plus, look at what they have been saying about Covid and the vaccines recently too (as the major media is constantly contradicting itself). In addition, all we have to do as well is just look at the results of various world elections as people are realizing there are no more fair and free elections any more. Finally, not only is it forbidden to discuss the idea of the past existence of Tartaria but, if you go on Telegram, it is one of the few on-line sources we have where you can hear about the true world events taking place on our Earth.

Just as I mentioned in one of my earlier posts, the U.S. Congress is conducting a very intense and extensive investigations into Twitter (what was going on before Musk took charge and started to release the so-called Twitter files which this committee is using as their bases for evidence) and this investigation is definitely showing that we have been living in a "cancel culture". It is clear, if the elites of the world don't want us to know something then ... well then ... they will make sure under no circumstance will you hear about it via so-called official sources on news.

{Note - an addition to my post, have you ever heard any of the speeches President Putin of Russia has given to explain why he had to invade the Ukraine and what his troops are discovering there? Most people have no idea of the truth. I listen to what President Biden said yesterday in Poland about the war, and all his points were complete lies to emotionally stir people to fight on the wrong side ... oi vai ...}

Therefore, and so forth and so on, why then wouldn't they (the elites) be lying to us about the true nature of our world as well? Obviously, it is not suiting their plans to tell us the truth here either 😊 ... doesn't that make more sense? Anyway, once again please proceed then on your own risk to the sanity of your mind if you are going to read more. Perhaps for some of you will be receiving confirmation of what you may already know or suspect!! Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The HelioCentric Model: Our Earth is described as a spherical globe, with a north and south hemisphere and the circumference of the Earth at the equator is approximately 25,000 miles around. I don't want to discuss other characteristic of our world just yet as I wish to only focus upon the shape of the Earth in Part 2A, for now.

How do we know that we live on a spherical planet? Well, we have many purported photographs taken from outer space that comes from NASA which they claim show us various spacecrafts orbiting the Earth or ones which have returned from the Moon. And we all have seen these photos or images that NASA has purportedly taken everywhere! If we look on TV (news or shows) or in our movies. Also our newscasts show us this shape of the Earth along with contained in various documentaries and so on. Of course, we have millions of plastic models made of the Earth as well as many many maps which all show us how the continents are arranged, yes? Even if you go on-line and use Google Earth, it will portray these same types of maps. So how could our Earth be in any other form then round or spherical, right? If you say its flat then there must be something totally wrong with you!!

The GeoCentric Model: This model implies that our world is not in motion (but we will speak more about this in Part 2B next), that it is stationary and it lies at the center where everything else revolves around it (like the Sun, Moon and stars). So our world then could not be in Outer Space, and it consists of a flat circular disc of ground which is covered over at its top by an impregnable dome (as people keep asking me if we would fall off the edge if the Earth is flat -- we will also focus more on the dome later in Part 2C).

Now, how can we know that the Earth is a flat plane? There are two ways to show this, either through a geometric formula that is based upon living on a spherical Earth or by looking far out at the horizon of our world. I will explain this simple formula first:

SO, IF WE HAVE A SPHERICAL GLOBE THAT IS ABOUT 25,000 MILES IN CIRCUMFERENCE (at the Equator) -- THEN, WE WANT TO KNOW WHAT IS THE AMOUNT OF CURVATURE OF THE EARTH THAT EVENTUALLY WILL BLOCK OUR ABILITY TO SEE WHAT IS FAR AHEAD OF US IN THE HORIZON? (... do you follow what I am asking here and does it make sense??)

OK, moving on to answer this. So, I saw on a video about an experiment that was done by a man named Samuel Rowbatham, a British chap, in 1839 at the Old Beford canal in England. This canal spans six miles and goes straight forward until it reaches this bridge, or the location selected in the distance for this test, if it could be seen. This video I watched was recommended to me by the co-author of our free Flat Earth book, it was listed upon his website. The video was centered around an amazing Flat Earth book written by Edward Hendrie which was entitled, "The Greatest Lie on Earth - Proof that our World is not a Moving Globe", which was released in 2016. Hendrie totally totally described Rowbatham early experiment and now I am going to share it with you.

So now lets fit all the pieces together so you can fully comprehend and see what I saw as I was watching the video and why there was a big sign of wonderment that came to me face!

First, Mr. Rowbatham asked a friend to assist him with his test at the canal. He needed someone to sail a boat down the canal. This boat also had a flag on it of which its height was important so it also make the boat more fully visible at a distance. At the six mile mark, away from Mr. Rowbatham, on this canal, as I said was a bridge or tower like structure. He asked his friend to stop the boat there. What Mr. Rowbatham was doing simultaneously (six miles away) was he was in the water, with a telescope just above the level of the water looking straight out to see if he could clearly view his friend in the boat.

Now, by utilizing the geometrical based formula that uses the actual measurements of the spherical world we all live upon, with a circumference of about 25,000 miles, we can calculate the exact curvature of the Earth as seen by Mr. Rowbatham that is six miles away him. And if this formula is calculated correctly, then the curvature of the Earth should be so high that it will block any possibility for Mr. Rowbatham to view his friend at a distance through his telescope (their version of the day like the zoom on our digital cameras) ... that is to see both his friend and the flag on the boat. Well, what do you think was the result of this experiment was before I give you the formula and tell you what actually happened?

Now, you can look this formula up on Goggle yourself and discover that it will produce a legitimate approximation of the value of curvature in inches which should obscure Rowbatham's view of the horizon at the distance that is away from his standing position. OK, then the formula is calculated as (it follows the geometry as was taught by Plato):

For every mile away from your starting position, we multiply the number of miles by 8 inches squared and this will tell you what the curvature of the Earth will be from your standing position .. got it?. So then, let us use Rowbatham experiment to see what this means and then determine if we can predict the results of his simple test.

So, his friend was 6 miles away from him (squared or 36) multiplied by 8 inches = 288 inches which if we divide it by 12 inches per foot we get 24 feet. Therefore, there should be 24 feet of curvature of the Earth in the horizon. Thus, no Mr. Rowboat, with your telescope that is just above the water looking straight ahead, it should be impossible for you to see your friend and the boat. "Did we get this right, Mr. Rowbatham"?

Rowbatham: "Ok, let me check please, hold on for a moment. Why No Sir or Madame, you do not have it correct because I can clearly see my friend on the boat straight ahead and the flag as well!" === (Joshua) "But Mr. Rowbatham, what does this mean then? This is outstanding!"

Rowbatham: "It means the Earth can not be a globe!!!"

So dear extended family do you agree? Do you want to check out the Math formula for yourself too? You see math is one of my strong points. Or perhaps, you would prefer to do your own test by going to a local large body of water yourself (like a lake or ocean); taking your photo camera with you that has a good zoom and see if you can duplicate these results by looking for a boat that is 6 miles out, 10 miles out, 20 miles out, etc ...from the shore. If our Earth is a globe you shouldn't be able to see any of these boats in your camera straight on.

Hmmph ... could there be something fishy going on here? Well then, let me share some other bullet points for you on a few other issues I uncovered about why our Earth is a flat non-rotating disc:

a) Flat Earth Researchers, when they have been on normal airplane flight will sometimes try to speak to the pilots of the plane if they are willing to do so. When this has happened (and it has) and they ask the pilot this question: "What do you see from the cockpit of the plane while you are 30,000 or 40,000 feet up in the sky? Is the horizon is curved or flat?" This also assumes these pilots will speak the truth and that they don't feel pressured that they have to lie or not answer. And what they found (shown on video too) is that the pilots will tell them the horizon, from their observation position is flat (there is a rumor that there is a special type of glass used for the passenger's windows that make the horizon look curved - could this be true?). Oh jeez, plus my friend videoed an airline pilot admitting to her how easy it is to land their plane straight on due to this nature of the Earth and ...

b) When a high altitude (helium based) balloon is sent up into the sky, perhaps as high as 100,000 or 120,000 feet up and it has a live video camera on board to show what it sees up there - you can observe from its video once again, as the camera circles around the whole horizon (360 degrees) that the horizon is also completely flat ... and ...

c) In our free e-book on Flat Earth (regardless that it has five hundred pages, you really must check it out) I found on the internet some official documents from NASA, can you believe it(?), with the NASA logo and everything. These documents were released from June of 1987 through August of 1988. These documents were about an experimental aircraft and were giving instructions how to fly it. Throughout these documents the writer kept saying here and there this phrase: "on a flat non-rotating earth"? Imagine this, why would they say this if ...??? ... and ...

d) In 1931, Swiss physicist, Auguste Piccard, and his colleague, Paul Kipfer, became the first humans to reach the stratosphere using Piccard's balloon. They achieved an altitude of 51,762 feet (15,777 m). Upon returning to Earth, Piccard described what he saw during his flight, and here is his exact description which was quoted from him: "It seemed a Flat Disc with an upturned edge."

Now I don't know about you, as I could keep sharing many more examples like these so far, however, I would say these folks are pretty convincing as they describe what they have seen high in the sky. And that being a totally flat horizon, meaning geometrically the surface of our world couldn't be curved. This is why I just had to keep going on with my personal exploration if we are living on a Flat Earth, wouldn't you? Thus, in Part 2B we will explore if our Earth moves throughout outer space, if it revolves in 24 hours around a central axis; rotates around a large Sun also in outer space and that our whole solar system is also in motion or, could it be something else?

See you next time for Part 2B - hope you are enjoying this series,
Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)

This image is a representation of the experiment performed by Rowbotham and his friend on the canal in England. Location A is Rowbatham and Location B is the bridge on the canal with his friend in the boat with the flag on it. You see Rowbatham is in the water looking with a telescope. The top image shows how it would be if we live on a spherical globe and the bottom image is if we live on a Flat Earth as Rowbatham was able to see his friend.

In 1931, Dr. Auguste Piccard was the first man to reach the Earth's stratosphere as he flew to a height of 51,000 feet up in a form of high altitude balloon - see what he saw above?

This strange looking diagram shows you the 4 Directions on a Flat Earth if it is a circular disc. North points to the North Pole at the very center of our Earth (see N) ... South is towards the edge of the disc in all directions (where Antarctic is, see Part 2G); and East and West is moving circular around the Earth with West to your Left and East to your Right. Does it make sense?

This is what R. Simmon said how he crafted the famous so-called photograph (or photos from a graphic image) known as the "Blue Marble".

This is a digital image of the famous Alexander Gleason's map of the World constructed in 1892, which depicts our Flat Earth. The white circle shown at the edge represents Antarctica. Flat Earth researcher Eric Dubay, believes this is one of the most accurate maps of our world.

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2B

(Is our Earth rotating in Space or Total Stationary?)

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hey extended spiritual family (both for our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Hello All, it's Joshua back at ya with the next part of our new "2023 Message Series" following Part 2A where we looked at the shape of our world. We will continue exploring the two model's perspectives as this time we will see if our Earth is truly in motion or not within this next section ok, here we go ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center.

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - Sorry I am a bit late sharing this next part of the 2023 Message Series. Part 2B, is going to take a look at the HelioCentric Model vs. GeoCentric Model as they describe if our Earth is in motion and rotating or it is not. Again, my old goal here is to share with all of you the information I have uncovered looking at what people are calling "Flat Earth" as it compares to what we learned in school about our world's shape and condition. Then, you can decide for yourself if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes sense for you. And if it does, is this not another sign that great Truths about our reality living here on Earth have been hidden from us for a very long time? Now, here is my next post I placed upon Facebook ... enjoy 😊

From Facebook February 18th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2B - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- Is our Earth rotating on its axis moving in Space or is it non-rotating and stationary?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page which I am doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views which discuss the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2B - I am going to continue looking at what these two models have to say about whether our not our Earth is rotating and in constant motion or if it's non-rotating and stationary - the HelioCentric model we learned in School vs. the GeoCentric model.

As before, we will first take a look at the HelioCentric model which is the model that our so-called experts tell us is how life functions upon Mother Earth and then, we will jump into what the GeoCentric Model has to say. Again, I am not here to convince anyone of anything. However, I will caution those who don't like to be exposed to change (or ideas of alternative realities) that what I will be sharing in this post you may find it so challenging that you could come away with the feeling of, "Oh No, it's can't be so - therefore, I won't pay any attention!" == Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The HelioCentric Model: For all our lives we have been told in no uncertain terms that our Earth is revolving around its axis and completes one full revolution every 24 hours. Further, over the course of a year, the Earth tilts up and down upon this axis which causes the change in our seasons. Finally, we are told that the Earth revolves around the Sun in outer space which it complete one orbit of such in 365 days (more or less). However for Part 2B, we will not be focusing upon the Earth's orbit and the Sun itself (to be discussed in Part 2D).

Now, how do we know that our Earth is rotating? Well as far as I know, none of us have ever seen an actual photograph or video of this but NASA has been more than happy to provide for us many computer graphic simulations. We assume our world must be rotating because over 24 hours we experience a change from night to day and back. This is due, as we are told, to which part of the surface of the Earth is facing the sun. And the change in our seasons happens due to the tilt of the Earth on its axis. Not let's discuss briefly what are some of the forces that scientists say keep us peacefully glued upon the Earth's surface while the planet is rotating (not gravity yet though).

First, we are taught of the existence about "Centrifugal Force". This is defined as: an apparent force that acts outward on a body moving around a center, arising from the body's inertia. There is even a formula that has been calculated which describes how this force works. But now, what is inertia?

"Inertia" is the tendency of a body to resist a change in motion or rest. When a vehicle stops, you tend to jerk forward before coming to a complete stop. In the same way, you will jerk backwards when the vehicle begins to move.

So our HelioCentric scientists are basically saying that as our world revolves these two forces are what keep us firmly planted to the ground and since we are moving with the Earth, this is why we don't experience any movement or motion, right?

Now let's see what the GeoCentric Model has to say.

The GeoCentric Model: Whenever this model is discussed, our Earth is always described as a flat non-rotating plane. We already discussed in Part 2A what is meant by our world being flat by but how can our world be non-rotating as well? Please find below some of the discussions that have been publicly shared by various "Flat Earth Researchers" as they offer their evidence to support this model:

A) Why don't we feel any movement when we stand upon the Earth? Well, of course we can feel earthquakes yes(?), but normally when we walk upon Mother Earth's surface all is still. The researchers say we have this experience everyday because the earth is stationary. Thus, can this just be the simple answer to this question? ... or ...

B) Next up, of course, we have to say something about centrifugal force and inertia and why this can't be the explanation that we don't feel any motion as we stand on the Earth. The answer I want to use to counter this explanation comes from a gentlemen that I saw on a video on Youtube who stated that he is both an airline pilot and an engineer. His comments also will pertain to gravity (which some people might say is the real force that keeps us on the ground or that these two forces we discussed before come from gravity ... but we will discuss this topic in Part 2F). Ok, here is what he stated: That if the two forces we have previously described were in effect then, all the clouds and the wind would always move in the same direction (the direction in which our world is moving) but in fact, this is never the case ... or ...

C) The Coriolis Effect - What is this? We are told by the HelioCentric Scientists that because the Earth is rotating on its axis, there is another force that will pull on you a bit, especially when you are flying in the sky and this is the name they've given to this force. That you will be pulled slightly to the right in the Northern Hemisphere and slightly to the left in the Southern Hemisphere and this is an absolutely scientific proven effect. Therefore, if you are a pilot you must make a compensation for this. This would also apply to a soldier who is firing a cannon or weapon with a missile moving outward, that similarly you would need to compensate when aiming where you wish the missile is to land.

Note: I forgot to say in Part 2A - Since we are mentioning how the rotation of the Earth affects planes, I forgot to discuss in the previous section how the shape of a globe would affect the flight of a plane. So let me write it down here so that both of these sections will be complete. The key point I wish to add here is: if the Earth has a curvature, then the plane would have to always fly a bit at a downward angle to move in alignment with the Earth (or gravity should force the plane to do this).

Let's go back to answering our questions about the Coriolis Effect (which would further prove that our Earth is not rotating) and to do this, let me share with you a conversation my friend Shirley had with a pilot at an airport after she disembarked from her flight:

Shirley: (she didn't record on her video the pilot's face so he wouldn't get in any possible trouble, of course): "Yes, when you guys fly -- when you are flying the airplane, does the airplane ever dip (the nose dipping down is what she meant) or is it always flying straight?"

Pilot: "Uh it can, depending on turbulence ..."

Shirley: "Well, besides the turbulence like normally, do you guys ever dip (the) nose down like in a normal flight?"

Pilot: "Some planes fly at a different angle but normally, no it stays level."

[What Shirley is asking here is if pilots have to consistently keep the nose down to fly level - but this pilot says there is nothing special they have to fly their plane straight on!]

Further, going back to the pilot - engineer I mentioned before, he said that when they manufacture a plane, so the plane will stay level in the sky, they have to make the nose of the plane standing or pointing up slightly!

So what I think is being said here is that it appears the idea of this Coriolis Effect existing may be totally manufactured to try to prove our Earth is rotating but in truth there is no measurable effects of such a force existing. ... or ...

D) Logically, there should be a huge difference in the time it takes a plane to arrive at their destination when the plane flies from West to East verses it flying from East to West, so why is this? Before answering this, remember we are told our Earth rotates on its axis from West to East and does so at 1000 miles an hour.

Let's consider the following situation: Say we are flying in the direction the Earth is rotating which as stated before is from west to east. Our flight is going from Los Angeles to New York City at 600 (or 650) miles an hour so we would reach New York City in about 4 hours by its distance (assuming there are no delays). However, the Earth is rotating faster than our plane is moving, it would take a very long time flying in this direction (1000 mph vs. 650 mph) because the plane can't keep up with the speed of the earth. In fact, it would have to be suspended in the air and wait until its destination comes under it yes? The Heliocentric Model says "No, this is not the case because gravity holds everything in place moving with it at the same pace whether an object is on the ground or in the air. Thus, this is why the Plane flying in this direction gets there straight on. But again, if this is exactly what happens then why doesn't the wind and clouds all go in this same direction and at the same speed? So the Heliocentrist's argument seems to be a bit fishy for some people.

Conversely, if the Plane is flying East to West then it should arrive at its destination extremely quickly because the Earth is moving faster than the plane in the air and thus, its destination based on our example of NYC to LA should take far less than 4 hours. But oops, this won't happen again due to the gravity of the Earth holding the plane so it will move along with the speed of the Earth as well as its own speed (are you able to follow this philosophic discussions dealing with the speed of the Earth and the plane?) ... or ...

E) What happens if we shoot a bullet or cannon ball directly up into the sky? Well, we are told due to the rotation of the Earth we would expect that when it came back and landed on the ground it should be quite a distance away from our starting point. But in point of fact, the bullet or ball will always land within 2 feet of the location where it was shot from. Again, this is due to gravity as the Heliocentric say or is it due to the Earth just being totally stationary.

Conclusion: In my mind, as I studied this debate if the Earth rotates or not, I found the phenomena that we all experience when we fly on a plane where it seems the pilots need to make no alternations of their flight path except to keep the plane as level as possible (unless the weather forces them to fly at a different altitude) is pointing to a stationary Earth (the simplest explanation). And the same for me when looking at a cannon ball shot directly up into the sky and coming straight back, the simplest answer again is a non-rotating Earth ...

Ok then ... time to take a peek at Part 2C. Here we will be looking at first, if the Earth is indeed traveling through Outer Space (which is considered to be virtually a vacuum) and that just outside of our atmosphere exists what are called the Van Allen radiation belts. Then we will discuss if there really is an impenetrable dome at 73 miles above our head where we can find, high up in our atmosphere, underneath the dome, a spectacular display of numerous orange-red electrical discharges that could be bouncing off this dome.

See you next time for Part 2C - hope you are enjoying this series,

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2C

(Does our Earth Float in Space or is It Under a Dome?)

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Hello All, Joshua here again with the next part of our new "2023 Message Series". We will continue looking at the two model's perspectives, this time if our Earth is floating or moving in Outer Space or if our world is under an impenetrable dome as is shown in diagrams drawn by many ancient civilizations. So for now, its time to look at the next aspect of our investigation ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - So how is everyone doing so far? In Part 2A & 2B did you see why there really are so many people who are open to the GeoCentric (Flat Earth) Model and don't think how our world is described in this model is pure fantasy? So in this edition, I will be looking at how our two models describe what is above our atmosphere essentially if its Outer Space or is it a physical (some call it a glass) Dome and is this what the Bible in Genesis is discussing as "The Firmament"?

I have to stay this statement again (as I don't know which segment of these messages you may be reading), that my only goal here is to just share with all of you the most interesting information I have uncovered that discusses Flat Earth plus, I am just comparing it to the reality we were taught in school about our world. Then, you can decide for yourself if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes any sense for you. And if it does, is this yet another sign that there have been great Truths about this reality (our physical earth) which have been hidden from us for a very long time?

Now, here is my next post I placed upon Facebook ... enjoy 😊

From Facebook February 20th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2C - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- Is our Earth floating in a near vacuum-less Space or is our World under an impenetrable Dome?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page. I am doing my best here to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations which in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views which discuss what is the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2C - I am going to continue discussing what these two models have to say about whether our Earth is floating in Outer Space verses the idea, as has been depicted in drawings done by many ancient cultures that our world is enclosed by an impenetrable Dome. Whereas, the HelioCentric model we learned in School vs. the GeoCentric model that is being shared throughout the internet.

As before, we will first look at the HelioCentric model which we have been told by the so-called experts, all our life, is how things work on Mother Earth and then we'll jump into what the GeoCentric has to say. Once again, it is not my objective to convince anyone of anything but to offer various perspectives and let you, our extended family member reader make their own decision. I do believe very strongly the HelioCentric Model is part of the Truth getting ready to come out this year though 😊 == Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The HelioCentric Model: Whenever we see an image of our Earth, we always see it enclosed in a dark background, representing Outer Space with Stars all over this landscape. Of course, these lights or stars are supposed to represent other Suns. We are told Outer Space is near vacuum-less and that just outside our atmosphere is what is called Low Earth orbit, where a spacecraft or satellite can orbit around our Earth as there is no gravity in this band of Space.

In the Atmosphere Layer Diagram I found on the internet, which I have included in our free Flat Earth e-book, let me summarize from this diagram the name of the layers in our atmosphere, based upon this model which scientists have stated exists:

The first layer or Troposphere is where our planes and various balloons fly; The Stratosphere, the next layer up, is where we might find a NASA shuttle and the ozone layer; The Mesosphere, a lower layer, seems to be for clouds and rain but of course the clouds can also be at a lower altitude and also here, the image I showed before in the Introduction of the "Sprites", that is a high altitude electrical discharge which is red or orange in color is shown here on this level too; The thermosphere shows the location of satellites which is also call low-earth orbit and can be traveled by spacecraft too and the final top layer is called the exosphere which is defined as the top layer of the atmosphere which would touch the region of Outer Space.

Then of course, if we want to travel to the stars or go to the moon or other planets in our solar system, our spacecraft would head out into Outer Space itself. Similarly, if our spacecraft wanted to return to the Earth, it would come through Outer Space (or if we had any non-worldly visitors as well) and then down through the various layers of our atmosphere. This is of course how space travel is depicted in all of our SciFi TV shows or movies whether we are traveling to the Earth or any other planet.

Further, there is a discussion of the Van Allen Belt which is defined online as: A radiation belt that is a zone of energetic charged particles which are believed to mostly originate from the solar wind that are captured by and held around a planet by that planet's magnetosphere. Our Earth has two such belts.

It is important to understand about this radiation belt as it produces some irregularities which is why the Heliocentric model might not work perfectly in fully explaining our world. One of the reasons I need to mention here right now, before we take a look at how the Dome is discussed within the GeoCentric Model. This insight relates to a video I watched with astronauts who were supposedly working on one of the Space-Stations or Shuttles in low orbit. During this video they discuss traveling past the Van Allen Belt needed to go to Moon. They were saying that the radiation of this belt is far too dangerous for any human to deal with and we can't travel beyond it. Yet, on the other hand, we all know that we have sent Men to the Moon several times in Spacecraft which then, contradicts what the astronauts said in the video. If we look at Google to discuss this subject it says: "the Moon is well beyond the Van Allen radiation belts. The Moon orbits the Earth at an average distance of about 384,400 kilometers. The Van Allen radiation belts extend to a maximum distance of about 60,000 kilometers". So I have to ask this question out-loud then, "Is this a clue that we are being fooled about Space Travel by NASA?"

One other slight problem with the Heliocentric model has to do with the vacuum of space. Why you ask, because you see, what a vacuum will do (and this is demonstrated in any artificial vacuum we can create using special tech) is to suck in to itself any materials or substances that are close by. So based upon this observation, how could our atmosphere stay linked to our Earth and not be forced into the vacuum of Space? Do you think Gravity can hold it back? This is another point we must give careful consideration to and when I speak about gravity in a future section might, it might make a bit more sense there.

Now let's see what the Geocentric Model has to say:

The Geocentric Model: If one studies the Bible (and of course there are many people who believe this the most sacred document in our world, especially both Jewish people and Christians that follow the Old Testament) in Genesis, it specifically speaks about something called the "Firmament". For those who study this model, which discusses there is an impenetrable dome over us, they believe this is what is meant by the "Firmament". Many people who ask if the Earth is flat, then why don't we fall off the edge but could it be that this Dome is what keeps all life on Earth contained inside and in a way protected? People who believe in Flat Earth, many believe that the existence of the Dome is definitely a sign of some higher intelligence (possibly God) who has created our world. Further, the "Firmament" is referenced in other sacred scriptures such as "The Book of Enoch" (hidden books of the Bible) and the Qumran. If we translate the Hebrew word in the old testament for "Firmament", there is another meaning which comes out and that being "The Vault of Heaven" or "The Expanse".

Now in this part I don't want to go into great detail about the lights we see in our sky just yet but I have to say a little about them here. So within this model, the Sun, the Moon, and the so-called other Planets that fly with our Earth (they are called Wandering Stars but no solar system is described in this model) as well as other Stars we see in the night's sky, like the North Star (Polaris) and the Stars of the Zodiac, according to the GeoCentric Model (get ready) - they all have to be floating or moving in the high atmosphere of our Earth under the Dome. For many of us, if this is true it would be a big big shock I would say, so are you shocked? I know the first time I heard this, I was.

Further, if this Dome exists, it means there is no low-Earth orbit, or in other words the way our satellites and spacecrafts are depicted can not be true! That in truth, any satellite flying in the sky must be using some type of high altitude helium balloon which is strong enough to carry quite a bit of equipment. Also, it means if we send up any spacecraft or rockets into the sky that use booster rockets, they have to eventually come back down to the Earth and will usually splash into a body of water (but you will never hear about this).

Now lets see what other information has come up in my investigation which seems to indicate that this Dome is real. It is important for you to understand the Dome first before I can speak about the Sun, Moon and Stars (the lights up in our sky).

A) In 2014, a group of amateur rocket enthusiasts sent up what they called the Go Fast 2014 Rocket from within the U.S. They attached a camera to the rocket which sent back video they could see and record of its travel up into the sky. In our free e-book we have a link to their video if you wish to watch it. When it was 73 miles up in the sky, all of a sudden the rocket stopped and hung in mid-air - what did it hit up there I wonder? ... and ...

B) To support point A), we find in the 1958 Encyclopedia America there is a passage which discusses how high up in the sky the Dome is suppose to be that is based upon observation of flights in Antarctica and from this, they were able to calculate, guess what, the dome is 73 miles up ... and ...

C) Remember we spoke about the orangish-red electrical discharges, which last less then a second, that appear high up in our atmosphere called Elves or Sprites? Well if you take an image of this and freeze frame it, you can almost see a shadow of a round type of structure above it. Perhaps then, this electrical discharge comes off the dome linked to some energy field of the Earth (could it be electro-magnetic, or the Aether, tachyon or the toroidal field) ... and ...

D) In the book of Genesis in the Bible, it speaks about the Waters above and the Waters below. Obviously the Waters below are on the Earth surface (Lakes, Rivers, Seas, Oceans, etc ..) but what exactly are the "Waters Above"? Some people believe the "Waters Above" are outside the Dome so that outside the Dome it could be as was discussed in a few episodes of Star Trek Voyager where they encountered an alien race from another dimension called Fluidic Space. However, I am bringing up these waters, because there could also be some form of gravity holding the Waters under the Dome. The reason I say this is because when a rocket is fired into the sky, and as it approaches the dome, it splashes a fluid-type substance and then hits the Dome - again our free e-books has a link to video of such ... and ...

E) Operation Fishbowl - Wikipedia says, "Operation Fishbowl was a series of high-altitude nuclear tests (using nuclear missiles) performed in 1962 that were carried out by the U.S. ... Further, publicly these tests were announced and it was explained they were carried out to better understand the true nature of the Van Allen Belts. However, Flat Earth researchers believe this was a cover to explain why nuclear missiles were being shot at the Dome to break through it which totally failed and so they created this fake radiation belt to help explain why no one can leave our world through the Dome. Some other people feel when Hillary Clinton said in her 2016 Presidential campaign speeches: "although we weren't able to shatter the highest, hardest stained glass ceiling this time" that this was also in reference to the Dome ... and ...

F) Finally, here is a story that a soldier talked about during his service while stationed within Antarctica, that he wasn't suppose to share. It dealt with a strange type of ice they found under the ground that had totally different properties than regular ice. First of all it is called "Sky Ice" (does this imply this ice is in the sky?) and it has a sky blue color to it. You can not touch it with the flesh of your hand as its temperature is way too cold. It is lighter than regular ice and when it heats up, it doesn't melt it just disappears so it can only be worked with in the Antarctica. Again in our free e-book we have the full account made by this ex-soldier. We also have a link to another video that show photos which were taken by a ship from the 1920's to the 1930's that traveled to Antarctica before it became legally forbidden (wonder why?). In these photos which are black and white, you can see within the sky, that it seems to be filled by some type of brittle substance. When they colorized these old photos we see this substance being a sky blue color. Could it be that this "Sky Ice" is the material of what the Dome is made of. Also they say that when the "Sky Ice" is damaged, it automatically re-grows itself. Amazing huh, the mysteries we have in our world?

Conclusion: Have you ever wondered why a rainbow has a shape of a dome? Could it be that it's a reflection off the Earth's dome is what reflects the Sun rays to be a rainbow? Also if we had an tiny anti-gravity powered craft and could just effortlessly float up into our sky, would we be able to clearly see this Dome as well as that of the Earth's surface being flat? Could this be why we are not allowed to have such vehicles (even though we have had this technology for a long time - certainly the Tartarians had it!) and have to stay with our cars and propeller and jet planes? And lastly, I have included a collage of images at the end of this section, which Flat Earth researcher, Eric Dubay shares publicly that clearly shows what previous Earth civilizations have drawn about how they perceived the shape of our world. And within each one, they all have a type of Dome structure over the Earth's surface. What did these civilizations know that we don't, I wonder?

In Part 2D we will take a look at the Sun, if it is millions of miles away in Outer Space from our Earth or if it is a tiny self illuminated body that rotates over the surface under the Dome. Plus, does our world also have more than one Sun? I saw recently on Telegram, people who have taken photos or videos of two golden yellow suns in the sky (yes its true) plus there are legends of another kind of sun that maybe linked to our Earth (underneath?). ... See you next time for Part 2D - hope you are enjoying this series, Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)

In Point A of the GeoCentric Section for Part 2C we discussed a hobbyist rocket group known as the Go Fast 2014 Rocket Group, who sent up a rocket into the atmosphere of the Earth. This image is taken from the camera onboard and when it reached an altitude of 73 miles, the Rocket literally stopped by what?? Could it have hit the Dome by chance and could go no further??

Above you can see a graphic diagram of purportedly the various layers said to exist in the Earth's Atmosphere with the Exosphere & Thermosphere for near orbit objects and outer space beyond but is this truly how our atmosphere really looks like?? (Where is the Dome for example??)

Above is an image of the Hebrew version of our world, which shows some interesting aspects of the Flat Earth model. In Hebrew the Firmament is called Raquia which also means "Expanse" / "Dome" / "Vault". You see above the Firmament (in the dark green circle) is the Waters Above & the Heavens - The Upper Seas. Under the Firmament or the Dome is the Stars, Moon and Sun. They believe there are Pillars of the Earth which hold up the Flat Earth's surface and finally under the Surface is the Great Deep.

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2D

(All About the Sun(s) - Floating in Outer Space or Under a Dome?)

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Hello All, Joshua here again with the next part of our new "2023 Message Series". We will continue looking at the two model's perspectives, but this time we check to see if our Sun is floating or moving through Outer Space and 92+ million miles from our Earth or, if our Sun is revolving over the surface of the Earth under an impenetrable dome? So now its time to look at the next aspect of our investigation ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - We hope everyone is doing well these days. Through the various channels I follow on Telegram, I feel like a major door (towards our positive future) is about to break any time this year. I hope this message series has offered some new perspectives on why there are many people now giving a serious look at the GeoCentric (Flat Earth) Model. So in this edition, I will be looking at how our two models describe the Sun (floating in Outer Space far away and huge, or a small brilliant light revolving over the surface of our world under the Dome).

I have to stay this statement again (as I don't know which segment of these messages you may be reading), my only goal here is to just share with all of you the most interesting information I have uncovered that discusses Flat Earth as I am then, just comparing it to the reality we were taught in school about our world. Then, you can decide for yourself if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes any sense for you. And if it does, is this yet another sign that there have been great Truths about this reality (living on our physical earth) which have been hidden from us for a very long time?

Now, here is my next post I placed upon Facebook ... enjoy :-)

From Facebook March 4th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2D - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- Is our Sun floating in Outer Space 93 million miles from our Earth and 1000 times the size of our world -or - is the Sun under the Dome and quite small, flying over the Earth?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page, doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations, that in my humble opinion, shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views about what is considered to be the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2D - I am going to continue to speak about what these two models have to say about the true nature of our Sun which we see in the sky. That is, we will first consult the HelioCentric Model that describes our Sun lying in outer space 93 millions from the Earth which rotates around it and then secondly, we will discuss what the GeoCentric Model states about our sun that it is quite small, is under the dome and revolving up in the sky over the surface of the Earth. Obviously, we all were taught that the Sun is huge and far way from us in Outer Space but there are some inconsistencies with this idea that I will show you as you read on.

Once again, as I always say, it is not my objective to convince anyone of anything but to offer various perspectives and let you, my extended family member who is reading this post, make up your own decision. I do believe very strongly however that the GeoCentric Model is part of the Truth that (has been hidden from us and) is getting ready to come out later this year including full evidence that will support such too ...

Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The Heliocentric Model -- (According to Wikipedia:) Our Sun is 864,000 miles in diameter (1,392,000 km) which makes it 109 times as wide as the Earth and it has a temperature of 10,000 degrees Fahrenheit on the surface. Our Sun is a bright, hot ball of hydrogen and helium which is located at the center of our solar system. The Sun is also 92.15 million miles away from the Earth. [BTW the word Helios comes from Greek word for "Sun"]

Like any other Star, the Sun is a gigantic nuclear reactor. Nuclear fusion reactions transform hydrogen and helium in its core, releasing energy. The temperature at the center of the Sun is fifteen million degrees.

Further, as the Earth rotates on its axis, the side of the surface facing the Sun will see day (or light) and the side which is not will see night (or darkness). The seasons of the Earth have to do with how much warmth we receive from the Sun or that we don't receive. On Google I found this is controlled by: The earth's spin axis is tilted with respect to its orbital plane. This is what causes the seasons. When the earth's axis points towards the sun, it is summer for that hemisphere. When the earth's axis points away, winter can be expected.

Now let's discuss some challenges to the previous descriptions of the Sun that we have all been taught and part of its behavior which for obviously those who support "Flat Earth", just doesn't make sense before we take a peek at the GeoCentric Model:

#1 How can a flame or nuclear explosions be happening to the Hydrogen and Helium gases within the sun when such activity exists within a near vacuum-less environment (which is what Outer Space is purportedly composed of)? We are able to create a vacuum-less experimental environment in an enclosed space here on Earth and if we try to get a flame to ignite inside of this, it goes out immediately. Thus how can our Sun be located within Outer Space and exist as a continuous flame of gases is the challenge being made here ... and ..

#2 If the Sun is 92+ million miles from Earth then by the laws of physics and geometry, the rays of the sun should hit the surface of our world in totally straight parallel rays - yet when we see the rays of the sun come down from above through the clouds it always appears at various angles which is called "crepuscular sun rays". For such rays to exist then it would make more sense that the sun must be far closer to the Earth ... and ...

#3 During a Solar Eclipse, which is where purportedly the Moon moves in front of the Sun as it faces the Earth and totally blacks out the light of the Sun: When this event happens, the Sun is totally hidden or concealed from our sight (this is also based upon our location on the Earth) by the Moon. However, based upon what are the perspective sizes of the Sun and the Moon plus their relative distances from the Earth, when such an eclipse occurs then the Rays of the Sun should not be fully covered up (you will still see some light still at the edges of the Sun). However, if the size of the Moon was the exact same size of the Sun that appears in our sky, then and only then could a total black out of this type of eclipse take place.

Now let's move on to the GeoCentric Model and see what it has to say about the Sun and how this model explains all the phenomena of the Sun that we observe in our sky ...

The GeoCentric Model: In this model, as crazy as it may sound to each of us, the Sun and the Moon (in section Part 2E we will discuss more about the Moon) are the exact same size (as I mentioned before) being only 32 miles in diameter. They are both revolving in the sky over the flat surface of the Earth, but not on the same line of trajectory. The Sun will complete one revolution over the flat surface in 24 hours. Further on, within this post, I will explain in much more detail how this small and close Sun is able to perform all of the phenomena we know associated with this bright body of light.

Further, it is estimated that the Sun is only 40-50 miles above the Earth (which is 209,000 feet to 260,000 feet, as our planes fly only 30-40,000 feet up in the sky). I will further state as well, yes, there are quite a few aspects of the Sun we still don't fully understand within this model but if we had access to an anti-grave ship (which BTW we do have, but they are hidden from the public by you know who), we definitely would know the truth about our Sun and could do a more comprehensive study upon it.

Let's now look at some of the key aspects and details of the Sun as discussed within this model:

A) What exactly is the Sun? - Many Flat Earth experts refer to it as a "self illuminating light" which is also able to generate heat - but as far as where the source of this light comes from or is generated, this can only be speculated upon and will be discussed shortly in section B). Therefore, the sun is not from hydrogen or helium nor does it work like a nuclear furnace ... and ...

B) Where could the source of the Light of the Sun be coming from?:

I) From the co-author of our free e-book on Flat Earth, Corey Kell, an engineer and scientist, he speculates there could be some type of advance device created by a Galactic Race who may have engineered the current shape our world (including making and maintaining the dome) that is flying in the sky and emits this light ... or ...

II) There is a rare video available on-line that shows a man (speculated to be a Mason) drawing on a whiteboard what their understanding of the true form of our Earth is (being flat with a dome and so on) ... In his diagram we see (see below for the following section about there being more than one Sun) that rotating on the underneath or back surface of the Earth is what appears to be a "Black Sun" - that rays of this Sun pass through an opening at the center of the underside surface of the Earth and goes totally up and outwards through a huge hole that extends entirely through the solid ground of the surface of our Earth and then ... it comes out of an opening at the area we call the North Pole. As these rays of light continue high up into the sky (our atmosphere) eventually they will strike the Dome and this is reflected off it which eventually this light reflection becomes the illuminated Sun (a link for this video is in our free e-book) ... or ...

III) Brian Lambert - a Flat Earth researcher - speculated that the Light of the Sun comes from a Pyramidal Star that lies outside of our Dome within a Red Rectangle Nebula, that can be seen in the far sky. This Star sends plasma energy toward our dome and a portion of this energy is reflected by the dome into our sky which is able to create the light we see as the Sun ... and ...

C) To explain how we have Day and Night: This has to do with what is called visual perspective and the appearing and disappearing of an object in sky linked to what is called a visual vanishing point in the distance. What this means is as the Sun is moving in its trajectory over the Flat Surface of the Earth, as it begins moving toward your position upon the Earth and then comes over your head (up in the sky) the Sun's light will begin to illuminate your part of the Earth (which will produce the phenomena of "sun rise"). Then as it flies past your position overhead and heads away from you, towards the horizon, eventually it will come a point in the far distance that the sun can no longer be seen by the naked eye which then will turn into night as the Sun's light will no longer illuminate your part of the Earth ... and ...

D) How does the Sun revolving over a Flat Earth surface explain the occurrence of our seasons? Well, according to the GeoCentric Model as the Sun is revolving in a circular motion over the Earth, as it moves over the course of the year, its pattern of flight behaves as if it is following like the grooves of a record. For the Northern Hemisphere, it will be flying above the Earth using these so-called rings in the sky lying up North so the sun is closer to this part of the Earth thus creating the warmer Spring and Summer seasons but in the Southern Hemisphere, the Sun would be farther away thus creating their fall and winter. And then as the Sun moves to the more southern rings of its revolution, then the opposite situations will take place (see the illustration I have included after this post to visualize this) ... and ...

E) How can we show that the Sun is closer to the Earth's surface and is revolving in the sky under the Dome?:

I) Corey Kell setup a simple but sophisticated equipment station (see photo attached later on in this section) which is able to measure the angle of the Sun in the sky relevant to the Earth. When recording these angles over a full year it becomes obvious that the Sun can not be 92 million miles away as certain angles which are measured would be impossible for an object in the sky that is that far away from our world, plus ...

II) We discussed before that the rays of the sun (crepuscular) which come through the clouds appear at various angles in the sky. These rays can only appear in such angles if the sun is close to the surface of the Earth plus ...

III) People flying high up in the sky have noticed at certain times the light of the Sun appears from underneath the clouds - this can only be possible if the sun is low in the sky plus ...

IV) In a video taken of the Sun from a high altitude balloon, you can easily see the Sun is a very bright light that appears to be floating in our sky and it can't possibly be that far away shining from a dark colored outer space. (Certainly if we had a levitation craft and could go under the dome we would see the Sun like this as well.)

Finally, can our world have more than one Sun? Before, when we discussed the source of the Light of the Sun, we mentioned there could be another sun on the underneath side of the ground of the Earth itself, which is flying over that underneath surface and has been described as a "Black Sun". During World War II, the Nazi's had a secret society called "The Order of the Black Sun" plus there are various older legends that speak of a "Black Sun". So we must mention the existence of such here.

Additionally, I have seen photographs and videos taken by individuals around the world that have been shared on telegram where there are clearly two golden yellow suns in their sky. How can this be possible you ask? I will offer some possible explanations below:

A) Are we living in a Computer Simulation?: -- Over the course of the past ten or twenty years, a number of people have recorded while using their mobile (cellular) phones some very strange phenomena happening within our world. Recently I saw a video of a bird in the sky totally suspended and making no movements (how can this be, it doesn't make sense?). Or, similarly in another video there was a helicopter in the sky hovering yet its ratter blades were not moving. There has been videos of people and cars just appearing out of nowhere and similarly people just walking and suddenly disappearing. So could this "second sun" in the sky be a break down in the programming of this computer simulation or matrix that we are living in?

B) Project Blue Beam - Have you heard of this technology? It has been reported that the Elite have such an advance 3D holographic technology where they can make whatever they wish to appear and this seems to be a (some) highly realistic object(s) that show up in the space around us. There is speculation being given right now that since people don't believe so much any more in the Covid or the vaccine, they will start using Project Blue Beam to fake an alien invasion of the Earth to try to control us better (also some people believe this tech was used to simulate the planes that hit the World Trade Center Buildings during 911???). So could the "second sun" be a computer simulation using this tech?

(Note: - extra note, in mid-March, I saw on Telegram a woman claiming that by using a type of advance technology, they actually are projecting an image of the Sun over the real Sun (as there are daily solar eclipses happening) and thus this second Sun we see, could be when this projected sun image is not over the real Sun, could this then be it?)

C) I will be jumping ahead here a little bit from my steady progress of revealing the various aspects of the GeoCentric Model, so you may want to pass on this point ... but. it is believed that outside our Dome could there be other areas of our Earth that have their own Dome and hold other continents including having their own Sun and Moon flying over them? So could this second Sun be the Sun we see from this next domed area of our world or realm shining through our Dome?

Conclusion: For most of us, we have always been accustomed to thinking of our Sun as being huge and very far way from our world in Outer Space. So the idea of a very brightly illuminated light (I didn't say this before but it could be composed of plasma) that is only 32 miles in diameter and only 40-50 miles above us -- seems ludicrous!! Just this idea alone might cause some of you to completely throw the GeoCentric Model into the proverbial garbage can. But there were some aspects of the HelioCentric model which I discussed that have some problems being possible and true as well if you think about it.

For all of humanity, the Sun is vital for our very existence due to its light and warmth and energy. For example, to be in good health human beings need the light of the sun to go into their eyes which nourishes our pineal gland. So no matter which model we use, we probably can't fully understand yet, all there is to the Sun. But again, looking at all the points that we have checked out within this post, as well as the various issues that were brought up along with the physical observations of what we perceive that our Sun does, I think the GeoCentric Model makes far more sense to describing the behavior of the Sun. I am sure once the full Truth of everything is revealed we will know all of this for sure!! :-)

Now, in Part 2E coming up next, we need to take a look at the Sun's companion, the Moon. If the Moon is floating in Outer Space about 239000 miles from Earth and rotating around it or, is the Moon under the dome, the same size as the Sun and flying over a Flat stationary Earth?

See you next time for Part 2E - hope you are enjoying this series,

(Note: I hope you enjoy the images I have included on the following pages, these are some of the images I used for our free "Flat Earth" e-book {which feel free to email us if you want to take a look at this very comprehensive book} or see a direct link to this e-book in our on-line resource section at the back of this e-book..)

This image shows how the Sun moves when it is circling over the Earth, it's orbit and what area of the World is covered by its light (daylight).

This image is created by the group called "Vibes of Cosmos" and shows the Black Sun (in Red circling underneath the Earth) and that the refraction of its Light off the Dome coming up through the opening at the North Pole creates the Sun and Moon that we see.

This image shows the Flat Earth in the background with the orbiting of the Sun over the surface of the Earth and that the Sun flies over various tracks which take it closer to the North Pole (N. Hemisphere - Summer) or farther away (winter).

To your left is a photograph of the device used by the special contributor and advisor for our free e-book on Flat Earth, Corey Kell (who we mentioned in Section E, Part I of the Geo-Centric portion) to measure the angle of the Sun in the sky relative to the Earth. Although this device might look simple (it is not very expensive for you to duplicate the various components) it offers precise measurements and clearly showed that the Sun could not possibly be 92+ million miles from the Earth.

Above we see the drawing created by the Mason discussed in the GeoCentric materials, Section B, Part II. As you can see this drawing is similar to what the group "Vibes of Cosmos" showed us with a bit more features. So once again, we see the Black Sun underneath the Earth's flat surface, and that the people who live in the continents of the underside of the Earth are called Summerland. Next, through the opening at the North Pole, the light of the Black Sun comes out and is reflected off the Dome which creates the Sun and Moon (32 miles wide each). Also the Mason shows Polaris (which stays stationary over the North Pole, we will discuss the Stars in Part 2H) and that the Northern Lights also are manifested from the light of the Black Sun refracted off the Dome.

Title: 2023 Message Series - Taking a Break
(3 Unbelievable Videos - Look at the Moon,
Are we in a Computer Simulation{?}, Looking Glass)

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Hello All, Joshua here again following my inspiration to give you all a break from what I am calling the 2023 Message Series, Part 2 as we are looking at two totally different models how they describe our Earth. Recently on Telegram, I saw these 3 videos I am going to share with you that are in alignment with the idea of a Great Truth that is about to come out this year. Each of these videos is one that is perhaps hard to believe so make sure you are in a calm state before you watch them - aye?? ...
Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

[Special Request: - if you live in Florida, we are beginning to setup some interesting projects there, please feel free to contact Joshua at the e-mail address shown in the resource section at the back of this e-book - thank you :-)]

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - Hope you have found some new insights or certain information which has some value for you via this Message Series. As we continue moving forward in this year, it seems like every day now, there are new happenings and developments taking us closer to a key moment when some profound truth is about to be revealed to everyone in our world. If the new financial system with its so called rainbow currencies gets announced or the Emergency Broadcast System takes place, dear extended family, we are there.

Time to take a break - I saw on telegram in the past few days these three amazing videos. So please find below a separate link to view each video along with a short description. Two of these videos are indirectly linked to free e-books we offer. These videos for me, completely and absolutely support a portion of the Truth about the nature of our World and what is coming out in our not too distant future. Please feel free to share this post with others as well....

SHORT DESCRIPTION AND HOW TO VIEW ALL VIDEOS

VIDEO #1 - 36 second view of the Moon at the Arctic

Description shown on Telegram:

Ummm Phil to Chat 1 ... Phil to Chat 1 :-)

This video was filmed inside the Arctic Circle, just between the Canada-Alaska-Russia border.

This phenomenon can only be observed once a year, for 36 seconds. The moon appears and disappears.

Immediately afterward, there is a 5-second total solar eclipse.

This phenomenon only occurs at perigee - the point where the moon is closest to the earth.

VIDEO #2: Psychic Conf. - Are We in a Computer Simulation?

Youtube Video Link:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6NkFemtrRZs>

(Description: At a Science/Physics conference led by Neil deGrasse Tyson, he is speaking to a physicist named Dr. James Gates Jr. who speaks about how he has found an Intelligent Code imbedded in the Fabric of Space. You have to watch this video, as Dr. Gates claims he has found evidence that we live in a computer simulation. He further stated that he is working in a branch of physics called supersymmetry. Dr. Gates Jr. states that he has discovered what he describes as the presence of what appear to resemble a form of computer code, called error correcting codes (Intelligent Code) embedded within matter, or which results from the equation of supersymmetry that describe fundamental particles {or matter}. This video goes is about 6 minutes)

VIDEO #3: Project Looking Glass. Kerry Cassidy and Bill Wood

Short Version of this Interview (Mr. Wood's profound messages, this version is only 11 minutes):

Full Version of this Interview:

<https://www.ourgreatawakening.org/project-camelot-bill-wood-above-beyond-project-looking-glass/>

(Description: Interview of Bill Wood by Kerry Cassidy for Project Camelot discussing Project Looking Glass (purportedly an advance device or high level technology portal, received from ETs which can show potential futures). This interview was conducted in January of 2012. On Telegram I found a shorter version of the interview on one of the channels. In this version, he shares some amazing and profound messages of our future. As one views through the Looking Glass device they are able to view potential futures based upon the conditions and terms you set (in your mind). However, Mr. Wood stated that at the end of 2012, this device would only show one future, and one future alone for our world (and no matter what activities you tried to engage in to change this future, it had no effect upon it) which he called an "Awakening Process" or others have called a "Great Awakening" for all of humanity.)

I believe that Mr. Wood describes exactly what is happening in our world right now and that the side of the "Light" (or God's Light) has already won this undeclared war we are living through right now. I discovered that everything Mr. Wood was saying was in complete alignment, word for word which what my future rJis (from this lifetime in 2037-2040) has inwardly shown me.

To see the many other incredible interviews that Kerry Cassidy has done under the Project Camelot umbrella or special interviews by others done with Kerry herself, go to her website at:

<https://projectcamelotportal.com>

To read about my two special inner experiences for more details, this free e-book is called, "Messages from rJis", feel free to email me at crystalSkullexplorers@gmail.com with a subject of: The rJis Free E-book [Here you can read the exact description of the future rJis told me.]

-- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and the Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something that we just imagine in our minds :-)

In Peace, Light and Love always - Stay tuned as it seems every day now something interesting is happening or occurring to reveal the tremendous transformation into 5D that is coming. In the next message I will return to Part 2E of the series where I will be focusing upon our Moon -is it far away or close by (well if you watched the first video here you may now know that answer) ...

Joshua & Katrina

the Crystal Skull Explorers and co-founders for The Center for the Advancement of Humanity

(Note: I have includes a few images that reflect the content of these videos on the following pages ...)

Of course, to your left is a normal view of our Moon as it appears to be a solid spherical ball - or they call it the "Moon Rock" with the shaded areas being supposedly craters. But as Flat Earth investigators state, such a solid object can not reflect the light of the Sun as we observe it, so we see the Moon being an illuminated light.

The moon is a focused electromagnetic phenomenon, called plasma. Cosmic electromagnetic energy comes below from the flat and stationary plane, going above. The inner reflection of this electromagnetic energy on this field's ceiling, turns it back down, creating a focus spot point in a semi aetherial environment. At this spot, there is fluorescence of the aether because of the focused cosmic electromagnetic energy. The spot that is created is the moon.

(4th state of matter as specified publicly by the American astrophysical professor Among R Foster in 1965)
In this way, the Moon reveals to us the large part of the terrestrial and oceanic surface and with these natural characteristics serves as a natural map of Earth..

VIBES OF COSMOS

Here we see the three speakers at the Science Conference where they were discussing the reality of our Universe. Second from your left is Neil deGrasse Tyson, who is acting as the moderator (standing with the microphone) and seated to your far left is Dr. James Gates Jr. who discusses discovering binary code in the fabric of Matter

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2E

(All About the Moon - Is it Revolving around the Earth or Under the Dome?)

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hey extended spiritual family (both from our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family) - Joshua here again, are you ready for the next part of our new "2023 Message Series"? We will be looking at the Moon and how the two models we are studying perceive it. Does our Moon float or is it moving through Outer Space and is 238+ thousand miles from our Earth or, is our Moon revolving over the surface of the Earth under an impenetrable dome? Ok then, time to look at this next aspect of our investigation ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - So now it is the "Banks" that are falling apart - could this be a sign that the old financial system is dying and the new enhanced safe and empowered financial system is coming? Also, it is being stated that the QFS (Quantum Financial System, the new banking system), when it comes on-line that it has already recorded all the money you currently have in your bank(s) account(s), so you won't lose any. But, it might be good idea though, until we cut over, to have some cash on hand for any emergencies. The QFS (along with what are the rainbow currencies) will be discussed in more in-depth in a future Part of this message series (Part 3 which has become our video series being shown on our Rumble Channel).

So within this edition of our newsletter, I will be looking at how the two models that explain our reality, how they describe the Moon - if it's in outer space orbiting the Earth or if its under the Dome flying over the Earth's surface. Did you all see the video of the Moon at the Arctic that I shared in the last newsletter? That was sure quite amazing, but is it true? Anyway, I believe it is and maybe Part 2E will explain to you how this is possible.

So once again, my only goal here is to just share with all of you the most interesting information I have uncovered that discusses Flat Earth as I am just comparing it to the reality we were taught in school about our world. Then, you can decide for yourself, if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes any sense for you. And if it does, is this yet another sign that there have been great Truths about this reality (living on our physical earth) which have been hidden from us for a very long time?

Now, here is my next post I placed upon Facebook ... enjoy :-)

From Facebook March 14th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2E - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- Is the Moon floating in a near vacuum-less Space, rotating on its axis and in orbit around our Earth, 238000 miles away -or- is the Moon under an impenetrable Dome, quite small and flying over the Earth's Surface?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page which I am doing my best to offer key information that

I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views about what is the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2E - I am going to continue discussing what these two models have to say about the Moon, whether it is floating in Outer Space, in rotation and orbiting the Earth verses the possibility, as depicted in drawings that have been done by many ancient cultures throughout our world that the Moon is underneath an impenetrable dome flying over the Earth's flat surface. Whereas, the HelioCentric model is what we learned in School vs. the GeoCentric model that is being shared throughout the internet.

As before, we will first check out the HelioCentric Model, that our so-called experts are sure total explains the behavior of the Moon. Then we will jump into what the GeoCentric Model has to say. Again, it is not my objective to convince anyone of anything but to offer various perspectives and let you, my reader, make your own decision. I do believe very strongly however, that the HelioCentric Model is part of the Truth that is getting ready to come out this year so we shall see if I am correct :-) == Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The HelioCentric Model: Many people believe the Moon is the feminine body of light we see in the night's sky as compared to the Sun which is the Masculine. These two lights are interconnected with the Sun being a hot body and the Moon being a cool body and the Moon seems to exemplify a more mystical type of energy.

From what I found on Google, the dimensions of the Moon as described by this model are the following: the Moon has a diameter of 2,159 miles (3,475 kilometers), and it is just 1/4 the size of the Earth. The Moon's average distance from Earth is 238,000 miles (383,500 km). It takes the Moon 27.3 Earth days to make one revolution around our planet. The Moon spins on its axis once every 27.3 Earth days so this means the same side of the Moon always faces the Earth. Thus, the other side, which does not is, called the dark side (is this just a coincidence or?) And of course, the Moon is floating in outer space.

Now, the Moon's surface is covered with all types of craters, mountain ranges, rilles (long narrow channels), and lava plains. The vast, dark regions we see on the Moon's surface are called maria, or seas. They are actually very large, smooth lava beds. The bright, light areas on the Moon's surface are called highlands. The Moon is covered with a solid, rocky crust that is about 500 miles (800 km) thick. Craters on the Moon come in a wide variety of sizes. The largest crater measures 1,600 miles (2,575 km) across, while the smallest is the size of a pinprick. The Moon has no long-lasting, significant atmosphere, so the footprints left by Apollo astronauts will last a long time. The mean daytime temperature is 225°F (107°C), while the mean nighttime temperature is -243° (-153 °C)

Now, the Moon's illumination or the light it shines over one full cycle is what we call the "Phases of the Moon" as it goes from the New Moon (totally dark) to the Full Moon (totally light). They say these phases are caused by the position of the Moon relative to the Earth and Sun and then how much light we see from the Moon is a reflection from the light of the Sun that reaches it and is reflected back out. Also they say the tides of water upon the Earth are caused by the gravity of the Moon pulling on the Earth.

For a Lunar Eclipse, this happens during the full moon phase and when the Earth is positioned precisely between the Moon and Sun, the Earth's shadow falls upon the surface of the Moon, dimming it and sometimes turning the lunar surface a striking red over the course of a few hours. Each lunar eclipse is visible from half of the Earth. A Solar Eclipse is when the Sun, Moon and Earth are in straight alignment where the Moon obscures or totally blocks out the light of the Sun for a period of time.

Finally, the Moon is not round (or spherical). Instead, it's shaped like an egg. If you go outside and look up, one of the small ends is pointing right at you. And the Moon's center of mass is not at the geometric center of the satellite; it's about 1.2 miles (2 kilometers) off-center.

Now let's see what the GeoCentric Model has to say.

The GeoCentric Model: When we look at this model, the Moon is described in a totally totally different way. First of all the Moon, like the Sun, is underneath the Dome of the Earth floating in our atmosphere. It's size is purportedly the same as the Sun, about 32 miles across, so the Moon is therefore, quite small. It is also called a self illuminating light but the effect of this light upon the Earth's surface is experienced to be cool or cold. Further, it is stated the Moon flies or revolves over the Flat Surface of the Earth at about 40-50 miles in the sky but has a different level of rotation then the sun (so they will never collide).

Thus, when the Moon is in front of the Sun, above the Earth's surface, being they are the same size, a total solar eclipse or blackout occurs. For the phases of the Moon, I found on telegram a group called Vibes of Cosmos who have done some very extensive studies about the Moon. They say the phases of the moon are caused by the position of the Sun 'and Moon relative to each other along with the reflection of the Sun's, Moon's and Black Sun's (remember when we spoke about this sun from Part 2D?) light emissions off the Dome.

In my investigation of the Moon as seen from the GeoCentric Model I found the following interesting points to support this behavior of the Moon:

A) In 1965, during an interview with a Professor R. Foster on national TV in Australia, he told the reporter, "11 years ago, I stated to various scientists that the moon is not a piece of rock but it is plasma, a plasma phenomena." Thus Professor Foster claimed that no man could ever walk on the Moon. Could this be why there are many rumors that the Moon Landing in 1969 was a fake? (There is a video with Stanley Kubrick, the director for the movie "2001 - A Space Odyssey", where he claims he was hired to create and direct the filming of this so-called "Moon Landing").

B) Here is a brief summary of comments made by Eric Dubay, a leading Flat Earth Researcher from his essay, "200 Proofs for Flat Earth"

i) Based upon the Theory (notice it is called a theory) of Gravity, (which we will talk more about in Part 2F) there is no way the gravity from the Moon can effect the Earth and cause tides because it is always the larger body (the Earth) that should have a gravity effect upon a smaller body (the Moon) ... and ...

ii) There is no way the Moon, if it was a solid rock substance, can reflect back the light of the Sun (it would require it to be a totally smooth surface which is not the case with the Moon), this physically just can not happen. Thus, the Moon has to be a self illuminated light ... and ...

iii) There are times in the sky when you can view the Moon and it appears to be semi-transparent where you can see the blue sky through the Moon ... and ...

iv) Did you know if you are able to measure the temperature outside when the Moon is in the night's sky, the temperature is colder from the light of the moon then it is if measured within a shadow ... and ...

v) Eric Dubay claims the shape of the Moon is a flat luminous disc and not a ball. That since we can only see one face of the Moon, this is because it must have this shape. That it is not because, as NASA scientists claim, that the Moon just so happens to spin in the opposite direction of the Earth in a perfectly synchronized way ... and ...

c) Once again, as a reminder from Part 2D, the drawing I shared from the individual claiming to be a Mason? He showed in this drawing that the light of the Moon comes from the reflection of the light of the Black Sun which comes out of the opening at the North Pole and is then reflected off the Dome ... and ...

D) The group Vibes of Cosmos, which I mentioned before; A key part of their research into the Moon has to do with images they have seen upon the surface of the Moon by changing the contrast of the light within a photograph. What they claim to clearly observe is they see a mirrored image of the land masses (continents) upon the Earth. But not only are all the continents shown (the seven we know of), but the Moon shows other land masses which could mean ?? ... (well, you will have to wait for Part 2I for this interpretation). This group also describes the Moon as: A focused electro-magnetic phenomena called plasma (or a plasma aetherial phenomena). [Note: My friend and spiritual brother, who we affectionately call Dr. Phil, (he is also an officer for our new Center) he just happens to be a spiritual medium. He channels a Pleiadian by the name of "Heltor", whom I have spoken to so far twice (see the Center's Rumble video channel). Heltor also confirmed to me the Moon was made of Plasma!]

E) In 2012, a person going by the name of Crrowe777 shared on his Youtube Channel some amazing videos he took of the Moon through a special telescope. What he noticed was a wave (he called it a holographic wave) or a ripple that moved over the Moon - it is like a rolling distortion that he watched happen over the Moon periodically. To view this video, there is a link for it in our free Flat Earth e-book.

Conclusion: Well, maybe the reason we haven't seen any manned lunar landings for quite awhile (this was Apollo 17, back in December of 1972) is because as Professor Foster said, with the Moon being composed of plasma (which is a form of energy without form), it's not possible to walk on such a Moon. Thus, no doubt, all the moon landings were theatrical filmings. The excuse given by NASA why they haven't returned to the Moon has been it costs too much and they don't have the funding to do so. Also we discussed before, that some astronauts on one of the shuttles were filmed saying that we can't travel into outer space due to the Van Allen Belt's radiation but the Moon should be beyond this belt, right?? So there are some big inconsistencies being told by NASA about the Moon that might make anyone suspicious if they are telling the truth and if they ever tell us the truth on anything.

Further, remember the video I shared a short while ago, in my break message for this series, where it showed how the Moon appears for 36 seconds, once a year at the Arctic Circle? If that video is real, it could only happen if the Moon is really really close to the Earth. I think if you consider the points shared within this section from the GeoCentric Model about the Moon, and thinking about the other insights we have given in other sections of Part 2; like we live on a flat non-rotating Earth, then it could very well be that the Moon is really is a tiny self-illuminated and semi-transparent light in our sky and not the solid ball of rock that we were all taught in school.

There is even another video we link to in our free Flat Earth e-book, where they are filming the astronauts stepping down from the lem (the 1969 moon landing) to walk upon the Moon when a tray of lights hits the astronaut on the ladder going down. If we are being lied to about Covid and the vaccine and most likely the conflict in Ukraine too, it wouldn't be such a big stretch that were are not being told the truth about the Sun and the Moon as well, aye?

Anyway, next up to be included within Part 2F, we will take a good look at what gravity is all about. As you are going to hear again that what we have been taught in school about this topic has some big wholes in it which doesn't logically make any sense. Whereas, within the GeoCentric Model, gravity or the force that keeps us anchored to the Earth's surface, this seems to be working from a completely different perspective. So that should be another special discussion we will have.

See you next time for Part 2F - hope you are enjoying this series,
Joshua 😊 ... [JS CSE 417+1]

PS - I have created a new video which is actually a portion of Part 3 for this Message Series. I have entitled the video as the same name as the title of this e-book: I gave it a subtitle, "Segment 1: An Introduction". I posted this video on to the Center for the Advancement of Humanity's Rumble video channel. Thus, this video goes into a slightly different direction than the materials I am sharing in this e-book but eventually they will meet and finish sharing the same type of information. If you wish to watch this first segment go to: rumble.com/v2duhoe-2023-time-of-full-truths-revealed-series-segment-1-an-introduction.html

[Feel free to share with others this post or this e-book itself, if they might receive some value from it. Also, please email me if you have any questions on this subject that I am covering here or if you wish to take a peak at our free Flat Earth e-book or view our dedicated rumble video channel about Flat Earth. 😊]

-- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and the Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something that we just imagine in our minds :-)

In Peace, Light and Love always - Stay tuned and aware for a lot more strange activities and phenomena are continuing to happen almost daily now. In Part 2G, I will be discussing what exactly is the force that we know as gravity, or what keeps us glued to the Earth's surface? We are definitely live in exciting times now, aye??

(Note: I hope you enjoy the images I have included starting below as these are some of the images I used for our free "Flat Earth" e-book. Feel free to email us if you want to take a look at this very comprehensive book} or there is direct link to it in our resource section.)

You might not be able to tell from this image of the Moon what is the that black object which is appearing in front of the Moon - it is some type of helium balloon carrying something underneath it. What is amazing first, that this shows since our Earth has a Dome over it, we have no satellites flying in low Earth orbit and secondly for such an object to appear as such, the Moon would have to be relatively close to the Earth!

In order for us to see a total eclipse of the Sun by the Moon in our sky, these two light bodies must be of the same size as shown above.

In Point D) of the supporting evidence for the GeoCentric Model which describes the Moon flying over the Earth's surface under the Dome, I introduced you to the group called Vibes of Cosmos. They are known for their research into the Moon and that it is a focused electro-magnetic phenomenon called "Plasma" (or what we have labeled it as a self-illuminating light). --- Here in this image above, they apply special lighting upon a photo of the moon and in the result (shown above), Vibes of Cosmos believes this shows a reflection upon the moon of the surface of the Earth. On the lower right side of this image, you can see what appears to be the land masses we are all familiar with from any map of our Earth. On the left side of this image, there appears to be other land masses that we are not familiar with. This group gives to these other continents various names but unfortunately I can't read them on this image. Of course, they are all outside of the world we know. If you go to the next page, I show you this same image again but in that image, the continents that we know are highlighted - can you see our Earth there?

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2F

(Gravity - Does it Work the Way we Believe it Does?)

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hello - Hey extended spiritual family both for our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family - Joshua here again, are you ready for the next part of our new "2023 Message Series". We will continue looking at the two model's perspectives with this time taking a peek about that force we know as "Gravity" and see if our understanding of how it functions is correct. Ok then, its time to look at the next aspect of our investigation ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - We hope this next edition of our newsletter finds all of you doing well and happy and that the month of March has been good to ya all! For us, we are getting ready to say goodbye to Georgia (our home for almost five years) and to move on to Florida and see what new adventures await us there.

I hope dear ones, you know that all of these recent messages we are sharing with you in this series, is because we know and truly feel deep down that major changes are coming this year. We hope the information being shared in these past posted editions of our newsletter has been a way to prepare you (and others you wish to share these insights with) for what's coming up. So, this is my whole reason for doing this series of posts, to offer the best information being shared publicly as I sense big changes are coming to our world quite soon.

Anyway, our world have been getting more and more intense, as we come to the close of March - the French People are protesting all over the country now due to changes their President Marcon wants to make in their pensions (which he used his executive power to institute BTW); the Dutch Farmers are doing their thing with public protests as their Government is trying to shutdown their farms (as farming is so important to the Dutch); and the Quantum Financial System, the new banking system, we are told on various Telegram channels is already fully in place (working in pace with the current banking system called Swift). What this means is that money that has been stolen over the years from WE THE PEOPLE is going to start coming back to us. There may come a time when we will need to stay in our homes for a short period while this new system is fully activated (so please have extra food, other necessary personal supplies and cash on hand to prepare).

Also, starting on April 1st for 17 days (till my birthday #68) I am going to celebrate it by sharing the most profound sayings or special short messages that have changed my life forever and given amazing insights about life - so stay tuned for this (which will be intermixed with periodic postings of the 2023 series) ... [Note: At some point, I plan to make a new e-book which will include these profound sayings that I will be sharing for my 68th birthday here in 2023 or you can also visit my personal FB page to read them ...]

So in this edition of our newsletter, I will be looking at how our two models describe Gravity - if this is the force that keeps us anchored to the Earth as well as explains the so-called gravitational interactions which keeps the planets and moons in their orbits in outer space or, if there are other forces (3 to be exact) that explain what we call the gravitational effect in a totally different way as discussed within the GeoCentric Model.

As I have shared before, my only goal in the organizing of the information within this e-book is to just share with all of you, the most interesting information I have uncovered that discusses Flat Earth. As then, I will just be comparing its perspectives to the reality we were taught in school about our world. Then, you can decide for yourself if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes any sense at all. And if it does, is this yet another sign that there have been great Truths about our world, here on our physical earth which have been hidden from us for a very long time?

Now, here is my next post I placed upon Facebook ... enjoy :-)

From Facebook March 29th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2F - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- Gravity -- is it a Force that keeps us grounded to our Earth and the Planets (and Moons) locked in their Orbits or does it have to do with "Other Physical Effects or Forces" (such as density, buoyancy and the world's electromagnetic field)?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page in which I am doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain insights and information which are looking at the two prevalent models or views of what is the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2F - I am going to continue discussing what these two models have to say about the idea of Gravity which is the name of the force that holds us to the Earth's surface. I will be sharing how the HelioCentric model (what we learned in School) vs. the GeoCentric model that is being shared throughout the internet, what explanations each of this models give to us about our physical attraction to walk on the surface of the Earth. I think you will be amazed at what the GeoCentric model tells us though - so please get ready!

Again, it is not my objective to convince anyone of anything but to offer various perspectives and let you, the extended family member reader, make your own decision. I do believe very strongly however that the GeoCentric Model is part of the Truth getting ready to come out this year so we shall see if I am correct :-) == Joshua
(JS CSE 417+1)]

The HelioCentric Model: We all remember from school that the idea of gravity, defined as a definitive force that holds us to the Earth purportedly came from Sir Isaac Newton (an English physicist and mathematician, who was the culminating figure of the Scientific Revolution of the 17th century) when purportedly an apple from a tree fall on his head. It is said, in this moment is when he came up with the idea of a force called Gravity, which had pulled the apple of the tree down and came striking him on the head. Let me go to Google to give you a more official definition of this force first.

Gravity is: an invisible force that pulls objects toward each other. Earth's gravity is what keeps you on the ground and what makes things fall. Albert Einstein described gravity as a curve in space that wraps around an object—such as a star or a planet.

So essentially, because the Earth is much larger body than any object which resides on its surface (or it has a greater mass), this is why gravity exists and keeps us held to the surface of our world. It is also said that because the Sun is so much larger than any planet in our solar system, its greater mass hold all the planets in their continuous orbits around the Sun. Or the same would be true of the Moon which circles our Earth. And finally due to the mass of the moon and its pull upon the Earth, this is what causes tides in the waters of our world.

So far so good right? We all know these points because we were taught about them being absolutely scientific based principles which our major scientists all agree upon, that this is how these forces on the Earth function. However, before we go into the GeoCentric Model, logically, I see some very huge problems here with these perspectives as realistically and scientifically it just doesn't make sense and actually in some cases, these ideas are contradictory. What am I speaking about you say?

Ok then, so if a larger mass like the Earth is going to pull on any object of a lesser mass, therefore this is why we can walk on the Earth's surface yes? . . . But then, how can our Earth be orbiting around our Sun or the Moon revolving around the Earth also? Would this orbiting force not be a different type of so-called gravity? By the definition of Gravity (now really think about this idea please) the Earth should either be headed into the Sun or thrown out of its orbit! Or the same for the Moon, it should be headed into a collision course with our Earth, yes? Or conversely, if we accept the force of orbiting for this definition of Gravity, then all objects held to the ground of the Earth, should they not be flying over the Earth and orbiting it as well? Clearly, this is definitely not the case. What is up with these definitions of Gravity then - did someone just make it up to find a simple explanation why we can walk on the surface of our world?

Ok then, its time to see what the GeoCentric Model has to say about Gravity, make sure you are sitting down . . .

The GeoCentric Model: No sir or madam (whichever is the case) this force we call Gravity has nothing to do with the attraction of a larger mass to a smaller mass, it has to do with Density, Buoyancy and the Electro-magnetic Field of the Earth - huh? What does this mean, so I better define what these 3 terms or forces represent so this Model's explanation of why we can walk on the surface of the Earth is perfectly logical to all my readers.

Density: (From Google for 6th graders, to make it simple): The density (D) of a substance is the relationship between the mass (m) of the substance and how much space it takes up (volume) divided by its volume (v); $D = m/v$. Objects with the same volume but different mass have different densities.

OK, so now you know what is meant if I say what is the density of the air or of our water or even the density of our own physical body. But why is this relevant to the GeoCentric Model? Because an object which is denser than another will sink to the bottom. If we took a glass and filled it with different liquids, the most dense liquid would sink to the bottom of the glass and the least dense liquid would float on top. Do you understand this concept?

So here is the key -- we are able to walk on the Earth because our physical body is denser than the air that is around us? That's it. Wow - it can't be this simple or can it? Let's take the case of a helium balloon. If you fill a balloon with helium, what does it do - it will rise very quickly high up in the air, why is this? Because the density of Helium is much less than the density of the air we breathe. Helium is listed as second on the periodic chart of elements which means it has two electrons, two protons and two neutrons. That implies at this atomic level, Helium has a lot of open space thus it's less dense.

So if a bird is flying in the sky, it is doing so by the force exerted by its wings so it can climb upwards and it is not being held back or has to fight this force of gravity (but it's still more dense than the air). Again, Flat Earth researcher, Eric Dubay in his video sharing 200 Proofs about why we don't live on a Globe; he filled a balloon with half normal air and half helium and the balloon by itself, floated in a stationary position (like it was levitating). Ok, enough said about Density, now let's look at buoyancy

Buoyancy: Buoyancy (or an upward thrust), is an upward force exerted by a fluid that opposes the weight of a partially or fully immersed object. The only way to understand this principle or force is to give some examples. The best one I can give is a boat floating on the water. Why did the older cultures make their boats out of wood? This is the question I want to ask. Because, they knew or learned by observation that wood floats on water but why is this? Because obviously, the density of wood is less than the density of the water.

So in a way a helium balloon which is floating way up in the sky would be a form of buoyancy. Or what about a submarine, how does it rise and sink in water, as it's made of metal. Well again if we have ships floating on the water made from metal (or steel), then the density of steel must be less than water too. But for a submarine to submerge under the water, what condition creates this? When it releases the air held in its ballast tanks and replaces it with a lot of water, this causes the submarine to sink. Does this make sense now?

So buoyancy is a result of a less dense object floating and sitting on top of a more dense object ... this enhances the density definition but now how does an electromagnetic field exert a force like gravity?

Electromagnetic Field or Force: (From Google): Radiation that has both electric and magnetic fields and travels in waves. It comes from natural and man-made sources. Electromagnetic radiation can vary in strength from low energy to high energy. It includes radio waves, microwaves, infrared light, visible light, ultraviolet light, x-rays, and gamma rays. - Additionally, let me explain to you how electricity and magnetism is intricately linked (Electromagnetic is abbreviated EM):

So let's say we have an electric cable with electricity flowing through it, it's normal for us to use our cords to plug them into the wall to power them up to use with our appliances, right? But did you know that there is also a magnetic field which totally surrounds this cable or cord? Then, if you have a magnetic and if you connect wires to this magnetic in a proper way and attach an electric light bulb to the wires, amazing it will light up. So these two forces always work together.

Further, are there so-called Electromagnetic (EM) fields linked to our Earth? Again, here is what I found on Google: Electromagnetic fields have always been present on the earth. Natural electromagnetic fields occur mainly as thermal radiation (infrared), visible light or ultraviolet radiation from the sun. Fire and lightning are also sources of electromagnetic fields. - so again, this energy field is a key for our Earth to function. As a matter of fact, I heard once that if these EM fields didn't exist, then human life couldn't live upon the Earth either, as these energy fields nourish us in some way!

But how is an EM Field connected to gravity? Well, I saw a video on-line where they had this metallic plate charged or emanating outwardly an EM Field. Then they threw a small piece of paper at the plate and it was pulled onto it by the EM field (it was attracted) and fell onto the top of the plate. Similarly when the plate was reversed, so this field was pointing down, the paper was still drawn to it, it still was drawn to the plate, but upside down and held there. So for me, the effect of what we call gravity is linked to these natural EM fields of the Earth.

But wait till you hear this . . . I read in a very advance scientific paper that was discussing how UFOs (spaceships) are able to fly in our sky and do so, using some type of anti-gravity device, that utilizes the Earth's EM field as well. So for all of these reasons I have sighted here, the EM field(s) also assist in keeping us anchored to the Earth.

Ok then, let's turn this discussion onto these three forces (density differences, buoyancy and the EM field{s}) and apply it to the GeoCentric Model. Well first of all, the very idea of the Earth orbiting the Sun or the Moon orbiting the Earth would be thrown out as they are self illuminating lights underneath the Dome and the Earth itself is stationary. The Sun and Moon are only 32 miles across so they are not exerting any type of gravitation force upon us but most likely, it is the Earth's natural EM fields which are keeping these "self-illuminating lights" circling over the surface of our world. That makes sense, yes?

Next up, if we examine how differences in density function then it is totally understandable what is keeping all people, living things and objects anchored to the surface of the Earth (and the same forces would work for the underneath surface which the Mason showed us in his drawing of Summerland). The idea of a Helium balloon very quickly rising high up into the sky, seems to me to be a very visible example of this natural phenomenon. If Gravity was such a strong force, then probably no birds would be able to fly into the sky or that propeller type of planes would be able to lift into the sky either. Anyway, as you can see from the GeoCentric perception, it views this so-called force of Gravity in a completely different way.

Conclusion: Well here we are at the end of this Part, I apologize for writing so much but the concept of Gravity or the Force(s) which hold us to our Earth, it takes a bit of explaining to do. If we truly live on an Earth that is based upon the GeoCentric Model then what science tells us about how Gravity works is a total contradiction. I think the idea of density and the Earth's natural Electromagnetic Fields seems much more logical and simple to digest. However, when we come to the time (I believe before the end of this year, 2023) when the Full Truths of Everything are publicly revealed we will all know how our beloved home, the Earth functions on all levels. So, when all of humanity has this understanding, then, and only then can we bring back the Great and Advanced technologies that the Tartarians had only 200 some years ago which allowed them to live in a "Paradise" on our Earth with free energy and total peace. 😊

Anyway, next up to be included in Part 2G, we are going to discuss the North and South Poles or also called the Arctic and Antarctica from the perspective of the two models of the Earth. Again, you are going to discover (as has happened in previous Parts, we have already given some clues about this) that the way the GeoCentric Model explains these two land masses is nothing like the Helio-Centric. But a question I want you to ask yourself, before I get to the sharing of this next part is this: "Why is it absolutely illegal and forbidden for anyone (accept so-called authorized individuals that is) to ever travel to these areas? If you go there you will either be warned off (by sea or by air) or arrested." So as you can tell, this next Part is gonna be another douse!

See you next time for Part 2G - hope you are enjoying this series,
Joshua JS (CSE 417+1) 😊

(Note: I hope you enjoy the images I am sharing over the next few pages as these are some of the images I used for our free "Flat Earth" e-book {feel free to email us if you want to take a look at this very comprehensive book} or there is a direct link for it in the Resource Guide.)

What we see above is called a Faraday Ring, it is a copper ring wrapped with wires. When a magnet is moved into this copper coil, which changes a magnetic field and magnetic flux through the coil, a voltage will be generated in the coil according to Faraday's Law. What is Faraday's law simple? Faraday's first law of electromagnetic induction states the following: Whenever a conductor is placed in a varying magnetic field, an electro-motive force is induced. This is an example of how an electric field and a magnetic field are always interconnected and explains why an EM field acts like the force of Gravity.

Here we see Tesla sitting and reading his notes (assume late 1800's or early 1900's) as he is in front of a Faraday Cage which is generating a huge amount of static electricity, no doubt linked to an EM Field of the Earth like the Tartarians did!

In this image, it's a bit hard to see what is going on so I will try to describe it to you. The large metal ring on top of the table is generating an Electro-Magnetic Field. Towards your left and on top, just by the force of this field is a circular gaseous type of disc which is moving in a circular pattern anti-clockwise over the metal plate by itself but is emitting a kind of steam as it moves. This is trying to demonstrate based upon the GeoCentric Model what force would keep our Sun (and Moon) up in the sky rotating over the Flat Earth.

This special graphically done image is trying to offer the idea that the sun is quite small and that there are clouds in front of the Sun and also in back of the Sun. There is no way this is possible if our Sun is 93 million miles away as NASA tells us. NASA has to say this to us to convince everyone that our Earth is a globe which orbits our Sun along with the other planets but what we see here just doesn't match up with their story??

Another example of working with a circular metal disc that is charged by an EM Field which when a piece of metal is placed over the field, it appears to levitate. This is obviously a key to understand how UFOs (or NASA calls them UAP - Unknown Aerial Phenomena) are able to fly in space, in our atmosphere and into other dimensions - for you see, if you understand the physics of it, levitation is very very real.

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2G

(The Arctic and Antarctica -

What's Going on in this Areas?)

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hello - Hey extended spiritual family both for our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family - Joshua here again, are you ready for the next part of our new "2023 Message Series"? We will continue looking at the two Earth model's perspectives and how they describe the conditions of the Earth located at these mysterious areas known as the Arctic (the North Pole) and the Antarctica (the South Pole). So are you ready to be blown away some more? ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - We hope this next posting of our newsletter for today finds you well. Now, a bit of caution before you read this edition of our newsletter. The GeoCentric Model's discussion about what might be the true nature of the North and South Pole can literally shake the very foundation of anyone's reality. So if you are not up for this challenge you may wish to pass.

In addition, finally for the first time since I started the posting this Message Series on Facebook, one of the photos I am going to be sharing with you got fact checked and they blanked it out on Facebook - so when I reveal this, you may decide this photo must be so true that they were deafly afraid for people to know about what it contains.

Finally I hope you have been enjoying or found some value with my Pre-Birthday Sayings as I call them. So without further adze, let us move on to Part 2G on the Poles ...

So in this edition of our newsletter, I will be looking at how our two models describe the Arctic and Antarctica. If they really exist at the most northern and southern areas of Planet Earth and that both have totally frigid conditions as they have been advertised or, if Antarctica has this ice wall (this was the photo Facebook didn't like BTW) that lies at the edge of the Flat Circular Disc of our Earth and the Arctic (which makes no sense in the HelioCentric Model) or the North Pole is at the exact center of the Earth's surface?

As I always say within each part of this series of FB posts -- my only goal here is to just share with all of you the most interesting information I have uncovered that discusses Flat Earth. As then, I will just be comparing this model to the reality we were taught in school about our world. Then, you can decide for yourself if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes any sense. And if it does, is this yet another sign that there have been great Truths about our world (related to our physical earth) which have been hidden from us for a very long time? Now, here is my next post I placed upon Facebook ... enjoy :-)

From Facebook April 11th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2G - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- The Arctic (North Pole) and Antarctica (South Pole) -- Do they reside on the Top and Bottom of the Earth or is there something else going on?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page where I am doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolutely total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views that discuss what is the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2G - I will offer to you the reader what these two models have to say about the Arctic and Antarctica. Where exactly do these land masses or areas (can't call them a continent as the Arctic is not considered one) exist? Is it as the Heliocentric model says, that these lands are located upon the top and bottom of the Earth's Globe - or - is it as the Geocentric model says (which is being shared throughout the internet) and that the Arctic exists in a far different form (thus, its better in this case to call it the North Pole BTW) at the center of our world with Antarctica being an ice wall that totally encircles our world at the edge of the flat circular disc? Then, we will also speak about why it is forbidden for any of us to visit these two locations (you will literally be arrested) except only for those so-called officially sanctioned individuals (how did they get to be this?) are allowed to.

[Sorry for this section being a bit long but there much to discuss from both Models how the North & South Pole are perceived ...]

Again, it is not my objective to convince anyone of anything but to offer various perspectives and let you, the extended family member, the reader to make your own decision. I do believe very strongly however that the GeoCentric Model is going to be a part of the Truth getting ready to come out this year so we shall see if I am correct 😊
== Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The HelioCentric Model: We have been told in school that both the Arctic and Antarctica represent lands or areas that are frozen which are filled with mostly (or only) ice and snow. This is due to the fact that they exist at the extreme north and south of the Earth's globe and even with the Earth's axis tilting up and down, neither face the Sun directly enough to show any degree of true heat.

Here are some facts I found on Google about each of these territories, so first let's discuss the Arctic or the North Pole: The Arctic is an ocean, covered by a thin layer of perennial sea ice and surrounded by land. ("Perennial" refers to the oldest and thickest sea ice.) So this is why it is not considered a continent (as Antarctica is). Two men claimed they discovered the North Pole, each leading their own expedition. Frederick Cook in April of 1908 and Robert Peary (he is the person I remember hearing about) in April of 1909. Another explorer we have heard about that flew his plane over the North Pole was Admiral Byrd said to have done this in 1926.

Once again, the description of this area of our Earth was an area covered by ice and perhaps some snow (I have placed into the photos at the end of this post, one taken by Peary where it appears we see snow around his team) but the ice is supposedly floating on top of the water with extremely cold weather year long. For half the year, the sun never sets in the sky and the other half of the year it remains in total darkness.

From the North Pole, all directions away from it are southerly. Its latitude is at 90 degrees north or at the top of the world and all lines of longitude meet there (as well as at the South Pole, on the opposite end of Earth). Polaris, the current North Star, sits almost motionless in the sky above the pole, making it an excellent fixed point to use in celestial navigation in the Northern Hemisphere.

(More about the Ice sitting on the water): The North Pole sits in the middle of the Arctic Ocean, on water that is almost always covered with ice. The ice is about two to three meters (six to 10 feet) thick. The depth of the ocean at the North Pole is more than 4,000 meters (13,123 feet). I tried to see if I could find the size of the so-called ice representing the North Pole through Google but I couldn't find any definitive answer.

There are eight (mostly) northern countries which have made claims (or have jurisdiction) over part of the North Pole such as Russia, Canada, Denmark (via Greenland), Finland, Iceland, Norway, Sweden and the U.S., but no one country owns the whole region.

Now I found this next point quite interesting: The North Pole is much warmer than the South Pole. This is because it sits at a lower elevation (sea level) and is located in the middle of an ocean, which is warmer than the ice-covered continent of Antarctica. But it's not exactly beach weather. In the summer, the warmest time of year, the temperature is right at the freezing point: 0 degrees Celsius (32 degrees Fahrenheit.)

One final note (and you will want to see the image I captured from Google Earth of the North Pole at the end of this post), on the Google Earth image, it only shows the North Pole as a deep blue region - all other areas of the Earth in the far north or south have a white color linked to their land mass. So I am thinking to myself out loud then, "Could this blue coloring be hiding something else which exists at the North Pole? We will see how the GeoCentric Model speaks about the North Pole. Anyway ... moving on to Antarctica, this seems to be a subject that is a bit easier to talk about as it purportedly has a definitive land mass and is considered a continent of the Earth.

First though, let me summarize some key information that is being shared about Antarctica or the South Pole which I found on Google: Antarctica is the fifth-largest continent, being about 40% larger than Europe, and has an area of 14,200,000 km² (5,500,000 sq mi). Most of Antarctica is covered by the Antarctic ice sheet with an average thickness of 1.9 km (1.2 mi). Antarctica is surrounded by the Southern Ocean. Coming up next are a few other bullet point details:

Antarctica contains more than 90% of the world's ice and more than 90% of our planet's fresh water.

British explorer James Cook was the first to cross the Antarctic Circle and to circumnavigate the Antarctic continent as early as 1773

(see my note at the end of this section about James Cook's expedition as discussed by Eric Dubay).

There are approximately 40 bird species that breed on or close to Antarctica, including species of petrels, penguins, cormorants, and gulls.

Antarctica Climate - Coldest Place: Antarctica is the coldest continent of our planet. The coldest air temperature ever measured in Antarctica was -89.2°C / -128.6°F at Vostok Station in 1983. Along the Antarctic coast, the average temperature is -10°C / 14°F . The coastline has the warmest climate of the continent.

Antarctica is governed by about 30 countries, all of which are parties of the 1959 Antarctic Treaty System. According to the terms of the treaty, military activity, mining, nuclear explosions, and nuclear waste disposal are all prohibited in Antarctica. Tourism, fishing and research are the main human activities in and around Antarctica. During the summer months, about 5,000 people reside at research stations, a figure that drops to around 1,000 in the winter.

Then, this Antarctic Treaty came into force in 1961 is at present is signed by 53 countries. The treaty regulates the international relations between all countries to support scientific operations on the ice. Article 1 of the Antarctic Treaty states that 'The area is to be used for peaceful purposes only'. According to the Antarctic Treaty, Antarctica refers to the land and ice shelves from 60 degrees south of the equator.

What lies beneath the ice in Antarctica?: -- A never-before-seen ecosystem lurks in an underground river deep below the icy surface in Antarctica. Researchers recently brought this "hidden world" into the light, revealing a dark and jagged cavern filled with swarms of tiny, shrimp like creatures.

[Special Note from Flat Earth researcher and author, Eric

Dubay: during his discussion contained within his "200 Proofs for why the Earth can not be a Globe", let's look at the one he wrote which dealt with Captain James Cook expeditions to the South Pole. Here are some segments:

"Captain Cook intended to sail completely around Antarctica looking for inlets through the ice wall. If the Earth was indeed a globe 25,000 miles in equatorial circumference as the heliocentrists claim, then a complete circumnavigation of Antarctica would be approximately 12,000 miles, but if the Earth was flat with Antarctica surrounding the entire circumference, a complete circumnavigation of Antarctica would have to take over 50,000 miles. During three voyages lasting three years and eight days, Captain Cook and crew sailed a total of 60,000 miles along the Antarctic coastline, never once finding an inlet or path through or beyond the massive glacial wall! Captain Cook wrote: "The ice extended east and west far beyond the reach of our sight, while the southern half of the horizon was illuminated by rays of light which were reflected from the ice to a considerable height."]

OK then, now its time to check out the GeoCentric Model

The GeoCentric Model: As we have briefly touched upon before in this series of posts, from this model's perspective, at the outer edge of the circular flat disc of the Earth, there is an ice wall [Note: The image with four views of the ice wall following this written section is the very image Facebook blocked out by using their AI fact checker].

This wall has been described to be quite tall and behind it is just total solid ice and snow which is where these countries that signed the Antarctica agreement are doing all of their exploring and experiments on this (so-called) continent. Thus, this is where the scientists have setup their stations or camps. So Antarctica then, is as Eric Dubay said based on the size of the flat Earth disc, a 50,000 mile ice wall. So I guess we will be focusing on Antarctica first then.

Of course, at some distance beyond this ice wall is going to be the Dome. This is probably the major reason why people are totally forbidden to visit this area, as you can see in the sky this Dome. Actually, there is evidence I found in a video on-line for this statement as in the 1920's, a British photographer named George Raynor, who was onboard a ship called the "William Scoresby" (named after a famous British explorer) took such photos (an example of two of his photos are shown at the end of this post - do you see the blue sky by the ship?) when this ship visited the ice wall. Also speaking of the Dome, the scientists discovered in Antarctica what they called "Sky Ice" under the ground which is not at all like regular ice. Its color is blue and when it melts, it doesn't turn into water but totally evaporates (so to study this ice they have to keep it in the cold climate of Antarctica). It is very light weight, it bends and it will re-grow itself. It has been postulated that the "Sky Ice" might be the material of which the Dome is comprised from, as well.

While we are here, there are also rumors or reports that are coming out of Antarctica that there are pyramidal structures covered over by snow and ice as well as there has been uncovered underground alien bases or cities with bodies of these aliens. Further, Admiral Byrd led a navy task force to Antarctica at the end of 1946 called "Operation Highjump" which its purpose was supposedly to conduct further research into this mysterious continent for the U.S. However, conspiracy theorists (which now, people are starting to really pay attention to and listen to what these folks are saying) claim this operation had another goal which was to take out a base that the Nazis had setup in Antarctica (which they started to establish even before World War 2 began). Byrd's forces absolutely failed as apparently the Nazis had developed a type of anti-gravity flying craft (like the UFOs we see in the sky) and Byrd's Naval Forces had no way to defend themselves against their advanced weapons (there are many people who believe the Nazis did not lose World War 2).

So I think you all can see from all of my notes that I have just shared that not only what is happening at the Antarctica is very mysterious but it is also important that its true nature be totally hidden and kept secret from the general world's population according to the Elite.

Moving on to the North Pole, as we have to call it this since really this area of our world doesn't exist in an arctic climate like the totally frigid conditions are in Antarctica. The key to understanding what the North Pole represents can easily be seen from the view of this Model which is that it is located at the very center of the Earth's surface. Plus, if we look at any old maps (like from the 1400-1600's), they all show that the North Pole definitely consists of several land masses (or islands) that surround a central island. This is probably why on Google Earth they only show it to you as a blue area covered up (as the people who think they are in charge of our world definitely don't want you to see what's really there!).

Now, every ancient culture we know of, has their own legend about the North Pole that either at this location is a huge sacred tree or mountain. There is a very old map (this is the one I resonate with and thus, I included an image of this map at the end of this post) that was done by Gerardus Mercator in 1593 in which: "The polar rock with its four surrounding islands {separated from each other by rivers} by swirling torrents were universally accepted as real (at that time)". Remember we discussed that the light of the Black Sun comes out of an opening at the North Pole so it could be coming out of this sacred mountain or rock (?). Some of the very old legends speaking about this region of our Earth even discuss that there was (or possibly still is) a race of people who live on these islands and that they are very advance.

Thus, I have to ask this question out loud, "why would the early map makers (not only Mercator illustrated this) depict the North Pole as having these four islands around a central area if it was not true?"

It has also been speculated that the North Pole was the location of the so-called "Garden of Eden" as mentioned in the Bible. That possibly the beginning of humanity may have originated here. Again, due to the way the Elite talk about and teach us about the North Pole, that it has such severe weather, coving it up on Google Earth and threatening you with imprisonment if you travel near there (no doubt these are the key reasons why no commercial flights are allowed to go near the North Pole), there has to be some very important activities happening there that they just don't want us to know about. Plus, if anyone would travel there and sees these beautiful lands and islands which are not in an arctic freeze, then we will know without a shadow of a doubt that the idea of the Earth being a globe is an out and out lie!

Conclusion: Ok then, as we can see from the two models of our Earth, they discuss the North and South Pole in very different ways. Obviously from the GeoCentric Model's view, the Arctic and Antarctica can not possibly exist in the form we are taught in school, being located within areas of our world that are frigid and at the very top and bottom of our world. There are videos and photos (examples at the end of this section) that have been taken of the ice wall in Antarctica. In addition, do you remember the post I did which I called "a break to this series", I pointed everyone toward three special videos? Do you recall the video I showed you how the Moon appeared from the perspective of the Arctic Circle and for 36 seconds how huge it was!?? Hopefully, from this sighting of the Moon you now can understand how the GeoCentric view of the North Pole and that we live on a Flat Earth has to be true and is the only possible explanation for these collective phenomena. It would also explain why the so-called authorities don't want you to go to the Poles in person because this would add further proof that our world can't be a globe!

What do you think and believe about all of this? Are you open to do your own exploration and see if what I am sharing from the GeoCentric perspective could be true then about the North and South Poles? Anyway, next up to be discussed within Part 2H, we are going to look at the Stars that we see in the sky. Are these stars actually other suns which exists in outer space (which is a near vacuum) shining out from other possible solar systems or, is it possible some of stars (and the so-called planets in our solar system) are actually lights under the Dome? This should be another very interesting discussion. After this Part, there will only be one more key aspect to discuss that only can be described within the GeoCentric Model to conclude Part 2.

[Feel free to share with others this post or this e-book itself, if you feel your friends or family might receive some value from it. Also, please email me if you have any questions on this subject that I am covering here. -- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and the Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something that we just imagine in our minds :-)

In Peace, Light and Love always - Stay tuned and be aware as more and more strange activities and phenomena are continuing to happen almost daily now. We are living in the most interesting of times. Here in April there is more news coming up about the new financial system (rumor: are some banks handing out the new U.S. treasury notes?) that is getting ready to be released along with the downfall of the U.S. dollar to continue as the reserve currency. Will China take back Taiwan as of this time they are doing numerous naval maneuvers around the island?

(Note: I hope you enjoy the images starting here, these are some of the images I have collected over the internet which are linked to the North and the South Pole as it relates to "Flat Earth".)

This is a part of the world map done by Gerardus Mercator in 1593 that shows the North Pole where you see the four islands at the top, separated by rivers with what appears to be a Mountain at the center of the islands. I have also heard it is suggested that at this time (the late 1500's & early 1600's), this part of our world was commonly known to all the people ... we will show you a map made by another person next.

This is another map I found, made during the same period of time I referenced with the Mercator Map. You can see at the top of this map that the area it refers to as being the Arctic has the same structure of land with the four islands in the very middle

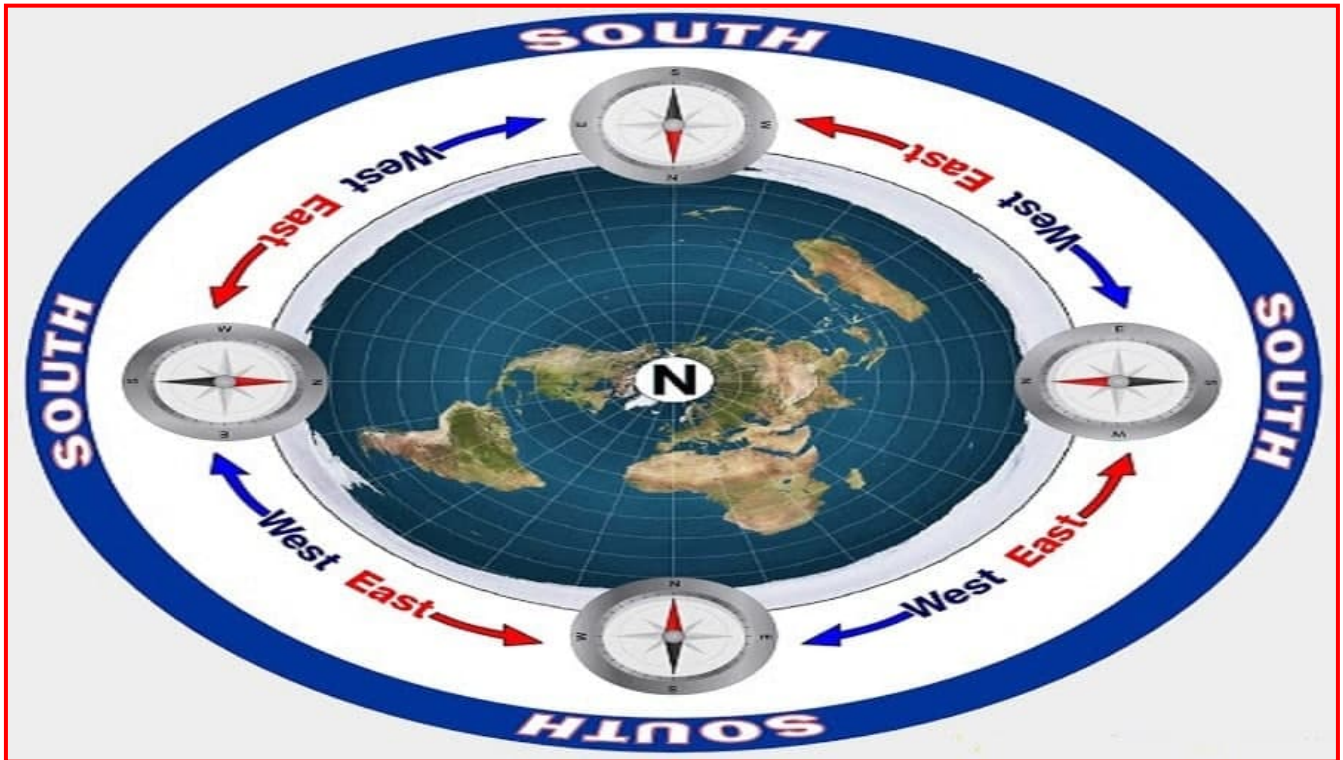

This is one of the photos taken by George Raynor, who I mentioned before that went onboard a ship which traveled to Antarctica in the 1920's. What we see in this photo are two weird things. First where the Sun is showing up in the sky and secondly, is the blue color that appears in the sky, what the Dome looks like in this part of the world?

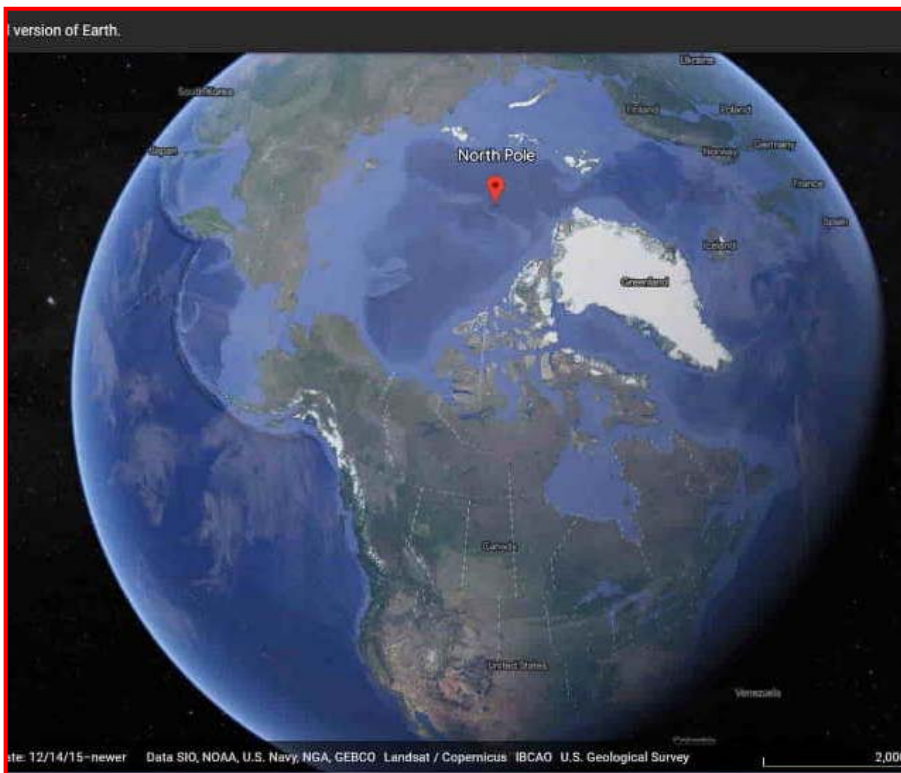

This is another photo by George Raynor, where we see again this strange blue background in the sky behind the mountain here, is this how the Dome appears there?

This photos shows, American explorer Robert Peary and his team purportedly reaching the North Pole on April 6, 1909 – they say at the North Pole it is mainly ice because it is so cold here but in this photo we are seeing a lot of snow too (was this photo staged then?).

This image shows how directions work on our Earth if we live on a Flat Earth. So heading North is toward the Center of our world towards the North Pole and also our compasses will all point to this location. To go South, then you are literally heading in all directions from the North Pole and going to Antarctica. For East and West then would be heading out to our left is West and heading out to our right would then be East - makes sense?

Here is the image I received from Google Earth. I went to look at what does Google show us that exists at the North Pole which has the red flag. And what you see obviously is just a blue colored covering of it as if there is nothing there of interest. What do you think all about this?

Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2H

(The Stars in the Sky and the Next Video in the 2023 Series)

The True Nature of our World - 2 Strong Models

Hello - Hey extended spiritual family both for our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family - Joshua back with you with the next message linked to the "2023 Message Series", as we continue on with Part 2. We will continue to look at the two Earth model's perspectives then to discuss the Stars or Lights we see in the sky. I am going to warn you gently though, how the GeoCentric Model talks about the Stars could blow some of you away (but I have seen the video that private individuals have taken of the Stars). In addition, I was able to create the next video, Segment 2, Part 1 for the: "2023: The Year the Full Truth will start to be Revealed", series, so I give you the direct rumble video link ... enjoy ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - We hope that for today this next posting of our newsletter finds you all and your family well and that you had a relaxing and enjoyable weekend. Seems that as we move further into 2023, things are getting much more intense - there was a 3rd major bank in the U.S. that died here recently; we see more and more countries are moving away from using the U.S. dollar and asking to join the BRICS countries (which are backing their currencies with precious metals); the Chinese keep sending ships and planes around Taiwan; will the Ukraine War ever end(?); a drone attack by (whom) on Putin's home(??) - you know activities like this.

The best way to see what I will be describing about the Stars (purportedly other Suns, constellations and planets) that we see in the sky from the GeoCentric perspective is to check out the images I have ended at the end of this post. Then, I recommend a video that you can watch where people with high magnified digital cameras have taken videos of these stars, as you will experience them in a totally different way.

So, I hope you enjoyed the Birthday Sayings from last month that I shared from FB. I am happy to be able to present here, Part 2H to discuss the Stars so here is what I posted on FB ...

(Note: As always, each new section that I present of my 2023 Messages Report -- my only goal within this series is to just discuss with all of you the most interesting information I have uncovered that discusses Flat Earth and to compare it to the reality we were taught in school about our world. Then, you can decide for yourself if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes any sense. If it does, is this yet another sign that there have been great Truths about our world (related to our physical earth) which have been hidden from us for a very long time?)

From Facebook May 6th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2H - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- The Stars (Suns, Constellations and Planets lying within Outer Space) or are these Lights under the Dome?

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page which I am doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views about what is the true nature of the world that we live upon.

In Part 2H - I am going to continue my sharing about these two models and what they have to say about the Stars (or the twinkling lights) we see in the night's sky. Are these other Suns in other solar systems and galaxies that can be seen by our naked eye or through telescopes including the planets revolving around our Sun in our solar system (HelioCentric)? Or, are these similar to the Sun and Moon and consist of some type of self illuminated lights of which some of them lie directly underneath the Dome that covers our Earth (GeoCentric)?

As I always say, it is not my objective to convince anyone of anything but to offer various perspectives and let you, the extended family member and dear reader, make your own decision. I do believe very strongly however, that the GeoCentric Model is part of the Truth getting ready to come out this year. So we shall see if I am correct? 😊 == Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The HelioCentric Model: Well, we all know about the Lights we can see in the night's sky, when we have total darkness and the Sun's brightness has left. I did my normal search on Google to see what were the various definitions given about these lights or stars. But first, let's pause a moment. Note - related to these lights, I am not speaking about any Satellites that an Earth Government has sent up or what we call UFOs (Galactic or Earth based). Here is what I found:

What are the night stars called?: Constellations -- There are a few different definitions of constellations, but many people think of constellations as a group of stars. The constellations you can see at night depend upon your location on the Earth and the time of year. Constellations were named after objects such as animals, and people long ago (which is also used in astrology).

All the stars we see in the night sky are in our own Milky Way Galaxy. Our galaxy is called the Milky Way because it appears as a milky band of light in the sky when you see it in a really dark area.

Of course, some of the lights we see are a reflection of our Sun off the other planets in our solar system which come more into focus with a telescope or a good digital camera with a high magnification.

There are billions of Suns in our galaxy alone and as mentioned, many of the stars we see are also Suns. But many celestial objects you see when looking up are not stars. A star is called a Sun only if it is positioned at the center of a planetary system.

And of course finally, in the Heliocentric Model, we believe all these celestial lights and bodies that we call such lights are at some distance from our Earth in Outer Space. Also, due to the great distances these other solar systems and constellations are from us, it is believed that these Lights we see represent the condition of those other star systems from the past as it takes quite a bit of time for the brilliance of these lights to travel from there to the Earth.

Finally, there is one more aspect of the HelioCentric Model, which is quite relative to our understanding our solar system, and which affects how we perceive celestial objects. And this is, according to scientists and astrophysicists that our solar system is moving through space (I saw different measurements of the possible speed and its moving pretty fast). All such pronouncements agreed it would take 230 million years for our solar system to travel all the way around the Milky Way. When we go into the GeoCentric Model however, you will see there is a direct observation of the sky that we all experience, which will definitely challenge this so-stated fact of our solar system moving.

OK then, now its time to check out the GeoCentric Model

The GeoCentric Model: The first question we have to ask within this model is related to the Dome and that would be, "is the Dome's appearance similar to how clear ice appears by being totally transparent?" Because, if this is true, then it is possible, that outside the Dome, that we could be seeing lights from other part of our universe shining through it. However, when I have directly spoken to serious Flat Earth Researchers, none of them have been able to say what exactly is outside the Dome. They say we have enough challenges dealing with a flat non-rotating Earth under a dome, with a small Sun and Moon in the sky. In addition, as you will soon see, they have another explanation for the Lights we see up in the sky, which they can back up with some proof. So on this point, we can only leave it as a possibility that some of the lights in the night's sky are outside the Dome and shinning through. But, we can't say for certain that these so-called outer lights are Suns or something else!

So what does this model have to say about explaining the nature of these lights /stars plus, in particular the consistent passage of the same constellations in the sky we every year. I am referring to the constellations which make up the 12 signs of the zodiac. We observe them in the same pattern of appearance, precisely year upon year (and if this didn't happen then there would be no science of astrology)?

First of all, the Flat Earth Researchers speak about Fixed Stars and Wandering Stars? What is this all about? Well, a Fixed Star would be considered a light from one of the 12 constellations we see in the sky because although these constellations are rotating over the Earth (under the Dome), their lights maintain the same position from year to year. The Wandering Stars are different, but first we need to look at an old definition of the word "planet" to better understand it.

Planet goes back to the ancient Greek word planēt -- (literally means "wanderer"), which is derived from planasthai, a Greek verb which means "to wander." The word was originally applied to any of seven visible celestial bodies which appeared to move independently of the fixed stars—the sun, the moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn (the ancient Greeks didn't know about Uranus, Neptune or Pluto, as they didn't have the technology to see them). So a wandering star is a star or light in the sky which doesn't stay in one place but has its own unique orbit or path it flies over the Earth or in other words the lights we see as the so-called Planets.

So how can this be true(?) that all of these lights (or stars) are way up in the sky and probably fairly close to the Dome, how would this work? Do we have any way to prove this condition could be true? You see I had trouble with this aspect of the GeoCentric Model too when I first heard about it. So what proof do we have? Yes we do - come see →

I believe, several Flat Earth researchers have used the Nikon P1000 digital camera which has a 125 times zoom to view the stars. They would put it upon a tripod and then take digital video of the night's sky. They clearly witnessed upon zooming in very close to a specific star which they knew by it's position in the sky that it wasn't behaving as they expected. Of course they knew by astro charts created by various astrophysicists, which planet or a Sun in another star system that they were looking at (such as Alpha Centauri, Sirius A & B, Vega, Arcturus, Procyon, Rigel, Canopus, etc ...). Amazingly though, as I said what they observed is almost unbelievable and I have to tell you right now, probably for most of you, this will definitely challenge your perception of the cosmos. Thus, I am giving you a fair warning if you decide to continue reading!! (Joshua)

To support what I am going to describe here, I am including some of these images these researchers took with their digital cameras at the end of this post. I will try to describe as best I can what they consistently observed. It made no difference if they were looking at one of the planets (a wandering star) or a purported sun (a fixed star); in every case they saw the following: That each light was shifting from place to place like it was fluid object. These lights could be changing their colors, shape and the internal geometric pattern they were projecting. From what I saw in the videos of these stars, it seemed as if they were behind some type of fluid (could it be the waters above?) which affected how we could view these lights. And many of lights were displaying internal patterns very similar to what we see when you put a bowl of water over a vibrating device which can emanate a specific vibrational frequency in hertz. This study is called Cymatics which links sounds with specific geometric forms. So could it be that the Stars were emanate sounds that caused amazing geometric patterns inside of them too? (Please go see the photos I am sharing at the end of this post, as it is heard to describe this phenomena in words.)

Anyway, any person who has such a good digital camera like the Nikon P1000 can see exactly what I am talking about, this is really what they observe. So does this mean then when NASA shows us all these beautiful photos of the planets in our solar system or what the stars (suns) look like in other parts of the Milky Way, they are all graphically created or photoshopped as some people call them?

Unfortunately, in our free e-book on Flat Earth, the Stars are not discussed to the next Part, which has yet to be written. However, there is a video I can recommend, which is where I first saw the stars behaving in the pattern I described. You have to go towards the middle of this video (as it is 5 hours) to view the recording of the stars. Search for a link to a video called "The Lost History of Flat Earth" by Ewaranon, you can probably find it on Youtube or Rumble.

I forgot to speak about the North Star also known as Polaris. This Star seems to always stay in the same location in the Night's Sky and purportedly is directly over the North Pole. This is why early navigators of boats used Polaris to know in which direction they were traveling. But all the other stars and lights revolve around Polaris.

Ok, one last note I wish to share, which for me offers absolute proof that we are living on a Flat non-rotating world, with a Dome over us.

Here it is, but no one ever questions this. If our Solar System is moving through the cosmos at hundreds of thousands of miles per second, that means the stars we see in the sky should be in constant change, but they never are, especially the 12 constellations we see in the zodiac. These 12 constellations can not be moving at the same speed (all of them) as our solar system, can they? The only logical explanation is they are all under the Dome and take a year to revolve in one revolution over the Earth and around Polaris. Right?

Conclusion: Yes, I know, the idea that the lights and stars we see in the sky are not that high up and that they are moving under the Dome is hard to accept. Does this also mean they must be very small like the Sun and Moon? Did the images taken by these high level zoom digital cameras make you stop and pause? Is it possible the so-called real images supplied by NASA of the planets (in our solar system and others discovered purportedly from satellites and unmanned spacecraft they sent out) and the stars are not real but all are digitally created? Will we ever see proof that there is this Dome above us and these lights/stars are under it? Are the stars we observe from the zodiac proof they have to be revolving over the Earth while the Earth remains stationary? Could (this will lead us into the final section of Part 2, Part 2I) it be possible that through the transparent dome, some of these lights could be coming from another Sun or other Planets that are shining through (get ready for this) which are part of our world or realm that is outside our dome?? And finally, I think I saw in Google, from the Hebrew Religious Traditions, they believed the Stars in the Sky were Lights from the Angels.

OK then, what's up next? For our last section of Part 2 ... there are drawings and maps I will share with you which show us that there are other continents linked to our world or realm that exists outside our Dome. We will discuss a book written in the early 1900's where a ship actually discovered an opening in the Dome and visited another continent outside of which we had no clue about it. But, the people who lived there certainly knew about us and our so-called "known world". Thus, these other continents outside our world probably have their own Sun and Moon and a dome as well. But could there be several other domes that extend our realm then? Come and check out Part 2I. See you next time - enjoy this series, yes? Joshua (JS CSE 417+1) 😊

2023: The Year the Full Truth Begins to be Revealed hosted by Joshua Shapiro
(this video series becomes Part 3 of the 2023 Message Series)

Segment 1: Introduction

(This initial video explains what this series is all about. I discuss my background and how I know that various key Truths will be revealed this year (in 2023). There is a discussion of two of my most profound spiritual experiences I have ever had which shows me our future.)

<https://rumble.com/v2duhoe-2023-time-of-full-truths-revealed-series-segment-1-an-introduction.html>

Segment 2, Part 1: Time is Everything

(We exam in more detail the undeclared war on consciousness - who is fighting it and why; how the U.S. 2016 & 2020 elections along with covid are effecting us now; the war in the Ukraine; a video of the Moon at perigee in the Arctic Circle; and key telegram channels that I recommend which is sharing the true news as I believe.)

Segment 2, Part 2: Time is Everything

(In this part we look at key events that took place in 2022 and how it is impacting the undeclared war; we look at what celebrities publicly announced they had covid in 2022 and take a peek at two videos linked to George H.W. Bush the 41st President; and discuss the Brunson case.)

Segment 2, Part 3: Time is Everything

(Section 1 for 2023 Events ...)

(In this part we continuing exploring key events that took place in the beginning part of 2023 through April 13th {could only cover part of the year as there were just too many activities exploding out in 2023}. We share a quote from Robert Dean, a ufologist and former U.S. Army Command Sergeant Major {while serving in Europe, who saw a report about UFO Activity there called "The Assessment"} about UFOs; and then we begin to look at and define aspects of the new Financial System that's coming including the new computer banking system and economic system. We finish up by discussing briefly an interview with a former U.N. official about what is really going on behind the scenes within the United Nations and how the Elite has control of it.)

(Note: If you are enjoying this series of videos about the possible Truth to be revealed in 2023, please go to our on-line resource section at the end of this e-book for the Center's Rumble Video channel to discover any additional videos that have been released for this series. We plan at least (as of June 12th, 2023) for there to be a Part 4 and Part 5 for Segment plus Segment 3 will be comprised of at least five separate subjects that I think will greatly benefit our viewers to see the amazing future that is coming - Joshua)

[Feel free to share with others this post or this e-book itself, if you feel your friends or family might receive some value from it. Also, please email me if you have any questions on this subject I am covering here or if you wish to take a peak at our free Flat Earth e-book or view our dedicated rumble video channel about Flat Earth, see our resource section in the back of this e-book. 😊]

-- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and the Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something that we just imagine in our minds 😊

In Peace, Light and Love always - Stay tuned and be aware as more and more strange activities and phenomena are continuing to happen almost daily now. We are living in the most interesting of times

This image shows you what fixed stars look like, what the wandering stars (the so-called planets in our solar system) look like as well. When you see the video that captures these heavenly lights and their motion in the sky, they are floating, rotating, changing colors and it also shows cynamatic geometric patterns, we then understand it all.

So this image is trying to show us that the how the Bible describes the stars as a wheel within a wheel is what we actually see within the zoomed focus of these new digital cameras.

Could this be what the Planets Look Like (from their Light in the Sky)?

This image to your left is trying to help us see that when NASA shows us stars in the sky they are CGI (Computer Generated Images) so it fits their view of our Global Earth and the Cosmos If you can view the video that has been recorded of the actual stars you would really understand this all!!

The Newsletter Edition, May 10th, 2023
Title: 2023 Message Series - Part 2I {final}
(Can There Be More Lands in Our World than They Told Us?)
The True Nature of our World - GeoCentric

Hello - Hey extended spiritual family both for our new Center along with our extended crystal skull spiritual family - Hello Again, Joshua back with you to share the final segment of the "2023 Message Series", for Part 2. This time, we will only be able to look at the GeoCentric Model as what I am about to discuss would be impossible if our Earth is a globe. This is gonna be another aspect of this model that may take you into the realm of the unbelievable. Do you dare to take a peek? ... Enjoy ... Joshua and Katrina, CS explorers and co-founders for the Center :-)

Joshua: Dear Extended Spiritual Family - We hope life is peaceful and joyful for you in your part of the world. Are you beginning to see outer signs locally that a special and peaceful future is in the process of happening in our near future? Every week now, it seems, new revelations are being shared on-line if you know where to look. Well, I was able to finish Part 2I for the 2023 Message Series, which is the last segment of Part2, so please find the post that I placed upon Facebook below ... this is it, have you stayed with me all the way?

This segment, Part 2I discusses, as unbelievable as it sounds that there are other land masses or continents with water bodies that exist in our world and that the Elite, of course, don't want you to know about it in any way. Can I prove this is true though? No I can't, but if you believe in some way that the various aspects of the GeoCentric Model we have been discussing could be true (a flat non-rotating Earth, a dome overhead with the sun, moon and stars underneath) then the following information I have uncovered in my personal investigation about the true nature of our world could very well make total sense. It would be another nail in the coffin that NASA is lying to us and that our Earth is not a globe.

Note: at the end of this segment, I have placed two special on-line links you may wish to check out that pertain to the information given in this segment. One is a specific e-book I will be discussing (a facsimile or digital image of the printed book) and a highly interesting video.

(Note: And as usual, my only goal within this series of posts is to discuss with all of you the most interesting information I have uncovered that discusses Flat Earth as compared to the reality we were taught in school about our world. Then, you can decide for yourself if any of these new (or very old) insights and observations makes any sense for you. And if it does, is this yet another sign that there have been great Truths about our world (related to our physical earth) which have been hidden from us for a very long time?)

From Facebook May 9th:

2023 Discussion Series (continued) - Part 2-I - Do You Believe We Live on a Spherical Globe? (The HelioCentric Model vs. The GeoCentric Model) -- In this last section of Part 2, there will be no version for this topic linked to the HelioCentric Model so the question then becomes, "Does our World (or realm) have other land masses (or continents) that exist outside the Earth's Dome?"

[This is a continuation of a series of messages that I am sharing here on my FB page which I am doing my best to offer key information that I have uncovered during my world travels and investigations that in my humble opinion shows us that 2023 is the year when absolute total truths (or some folks call them "truth bombs") are about to be revealed!! This particular section, Part 2 of this message series will contain posts to look at the two prevalent models or views that discuss the true nature of the world that we live upon. (Note: For this post, only the GeoCentric will be featured ...)

In Part 2I -- I am going to look at a very amazing aspect of our world that has been discussed within the Flat Earth community but for some of you, you may consider it a wee bit weird. So, are you ready for this? Could there be more areas or space to our world, to our Earth than the seven continents we see on our maps? That in fact, if you are able to go beyond the ice wall of Antarctic, which is at the farthest edge of our flat round disc of our Earth, if you could find some type of opening in the Dome, then you would encounter another whole other aspect of our world? In this so-called outside world would be more continents and water bodies as well as the people living there would have their own Sun, Moon and Stars and their own Dome.

Of course, if this scenario is really True, then we definitely can not be living on a Globe! I will be presenting what information I have uncovered that completely supports this idea (mostly using images I have collected). And finally within this segment, I will give my final conclusions to discuss everything we have talked about in Part 2. If you have had trouble buying some of the aspects of the GeoCentric model (Flat Earth) so far, this last perspective could put you over the edge! :-)

As always, it is not my objective to convince anyone of anything but to offer various ideas and possibly theories and then, let you, my extended family member and dear reader, make your own decision. I do believe very strongly however that the GeoCentric Model is key part of the Truth getting ready to come out this year. So we shall see if I am correct and if any of the GeoCentric based perceptions I have been sharing thus far, could definitely be real :-) .. Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)]

The GeoCentric Model: As we discussed in Part 2H, when speaking about the Stars, most Flat Earth researchers are unsure what could exist outside of our Dome. However, I have found when speaking to the few I had a chance to interview, most of them believe that the way Outer Space has been presented to us is totally incorrect. That the stars and constellations we see in the sky do not exist in such a space but other than this, we are waiting to gain a better understand of the true structure of our universe. However, it makes perfect sense that there could be another portion of our Earth, that is outside the Dome, which is very similar to our world and includes land masses (with mountains) and bodies of waters under its own dome with their own Sun, Moon and Stars. There is a spiritual saying which claims that anything we can imagine, we can only imagine it because it exists somewhere else in Creator's infinite universe.

And so continuing, I have two ways to offer a presentation to you of this possibility of an extension to our world or realm that exists outside our Dome. Mostly, I will have to use various images I have uncovered on the internet that others have supplied to give you a visual image of what this can be like. Normally, I share these images at the bottom of this post, but since I am able to more easily position these graphic images precisely within this document, I will place them in front or near a brief description of each to help explain why I am including them within this segment. This should help you better understand what these unknown landmasses or continents could be like that are outside our known world, outside the dome. Ok, let's begin this new journey as we start below - this is gonna be more mind-blowing stuff ... oh boy!! 😊

#1 - What might an expanded Earth look like and could there be more than just one other dome linked to our World or realm?

Over the Ice-Wall lies other Continents, that's the secret behind the Ant-Artica treaty
This Map hangs inside of the UN

[A.] In the image to your left, we see what looks like a mosaic or painting that is seen on wall within the United Nations Building (NYC). Believe it or not, as this is what has been reported. Not only do we see a Flat Earth Map but the land masses that are outside the thick yellow circle (the Ice Wall) which are circled in red: There also seems to be an opening in the so-called Ice Wall which will allow us to visit these other continents!

Was This World Map Made Ten Centuries Ago?

Stranger almost than the "Manuscript found in a Copper Cylinder" is the copy of a map which came across seas to Honolulu from a Buddhist Temple in the mountains of central Japan. It is a map of the world made 1000 years ago. Dr. Kobayashi, the well-known Japanese physician and surgeon of Honolulu, has received a copy of the map, which he believes to have been made by Chinese priests ten centuries ago.

The map is drawn on the principle of the Mercator Projection showing the North Pole as the center of a circle in which are the continents of North and South America, Europe, Africa, Asia and Australia.

"The map was found by my brother in a Japanese temple in the mountains of Japan," said Dr. Kobayashi. "It has been hidden from the Japanese government in modern times just as it was in ancient times, for in olden days such a map would have been destroyed by the authorities. According to a letter the original map was brought from China by a Buddhist priest and concealed in this temple.

"Ten years ago my brother was a consumptive. Although I was a physician he did not wish to be treated with medicines. He decided to go into the mountains and attempt a cure by himself. For ten years he has remained there and used his will power to effect a cure. Today he is a well man. During his stay there he found this map. He evolved from it a theory of the flatness of the earth, despite all modern facts showing it to be a sphere. This theory has been his one aim in life. He is an artist and in order to demonstrate his theory he made beautiful drawings, picturesque and attractive to the eye, in which mechanical, astronomical and engineering meth-

"My brother goes back to the days of Columbus and Amerigo Vespucci who, he says, sailed for a new country believing that by sailing directly in one general direction they would ultimately come to the place.

"We moderns know that a vessel sailing from a port and going continually in a general easterly manner will arrive at the same place. The vessel, of course, goes around the globe. My brother's theory is that one sails about a vast plane as one would sail around the edges of a bowl."

The illustrations accompanying the map are beautiful examples of Japanese art. No more attractive book of geography has ever been compiled. It is a mass of cherry blossoms, Fujiyamas, beautiful blue seas dotted with the sails of junks and sampans. There are landscapes and seascapes and bizarre pictures of Japanese women, designed along old-time styles. But in every sheet of such pictures the engineering lines are brought out in a way that does not mar the picture. With the text matter explaining each page, the geography should be easily understood.

Dr. Kobayashi now has all the original sheets, scores of them, and these he will return to Japan to his brother, who intends to have them put in the hands of publishers. It will be one of the most novel publications of the period.

The original map of which a copy drawn by Dr. Kobayashi's brother, and of which the accompanying cut is a tracing, is worm-eaten and barely holds together. The above map with all the continents and even the Hawaiian Islands shown, was evidently not made by the priests who traced the original lines.

[B.] The image I have included on the previous page shows a different type of map. This comes from a photocopy of the article that was printed in 1907 in an issue of the "Hawaiian Gazette" with the Title of: "Was this World Map made 10 Centuries Ago?" I have included the full article with the map so that you might be able to read it. The map itself is again showing our world (what is being called the "known world") at the center surrounded by various circles and outside of these circles are over 25 other unknown land masses. Could this be true??

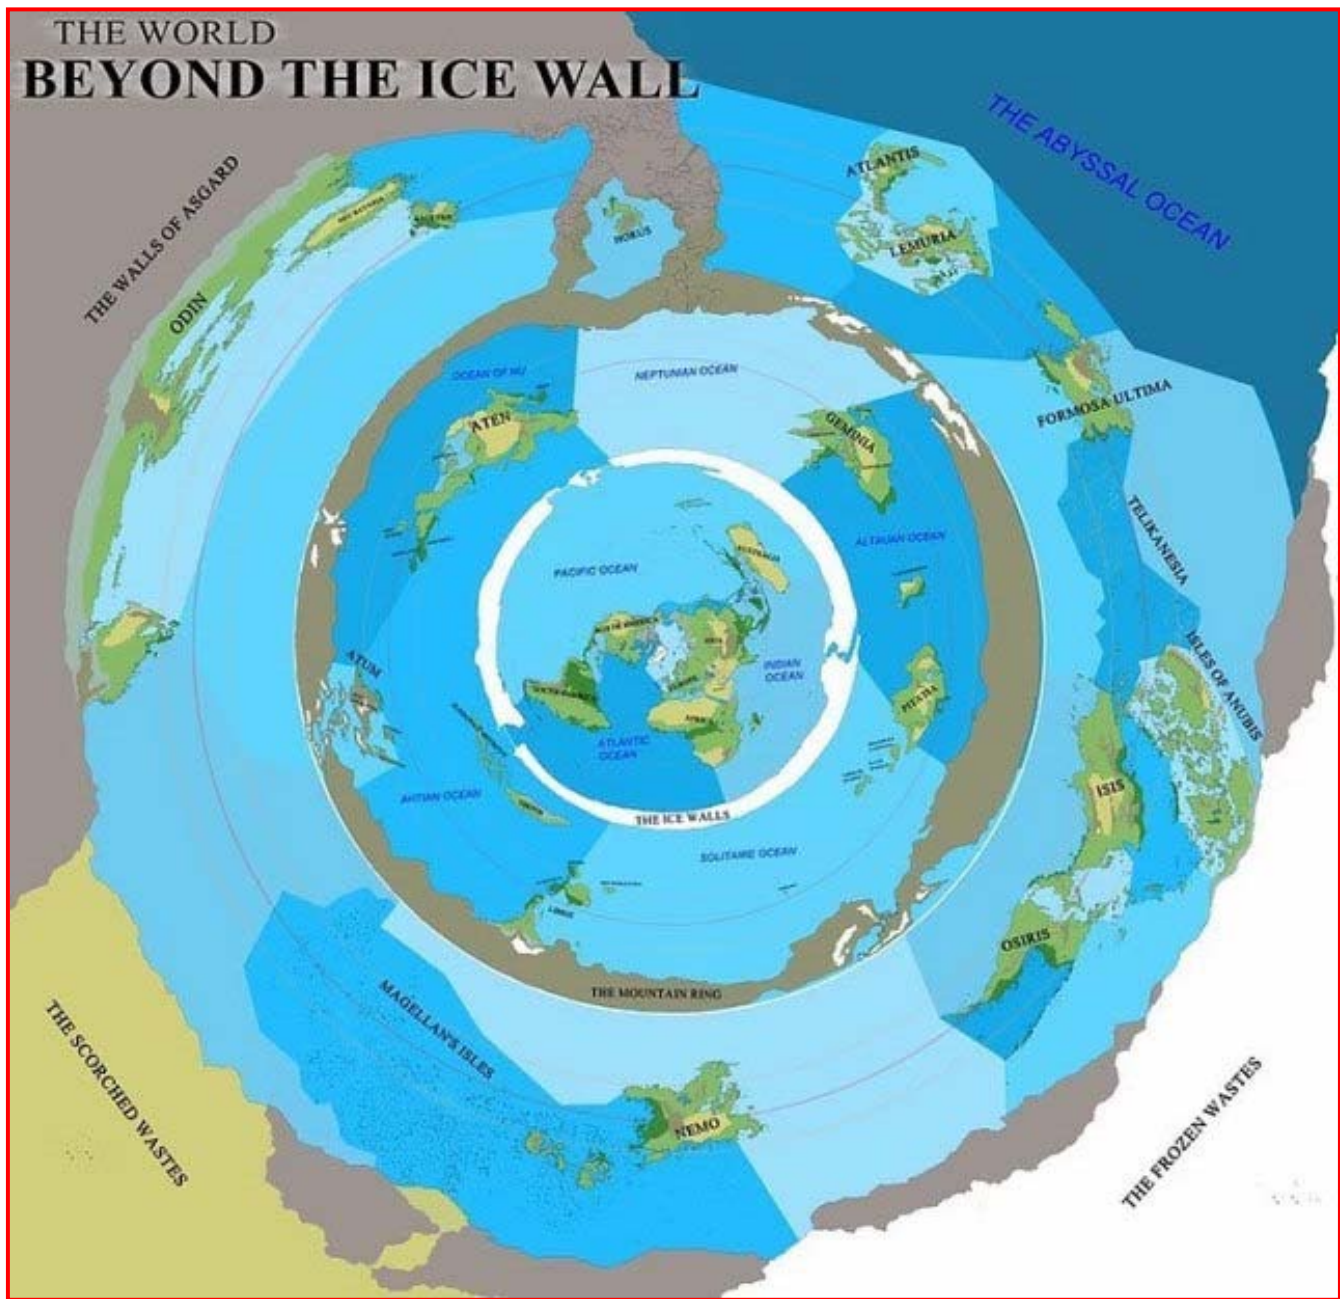

[C.] Next up, I have two additional images that were created by the group I have mentioned before called "Vibes of Cosmos". They have published various images of the Moon (using a high contrast filter to bring out hidden aspects of the Moon) that they believe shows that the Moon is a reflection of a mirrored image of the all the land masses that exists upon the Earth' surface. So, let's take a close look at the following images then ... to gain a more full appreciation of what these images might be able to show us of other unknown aspects of our Earth. So go ahead and take a look at the next page

To get this image, besides using a high contrast light (the green color), they had to rotate the normal view of the moon 180 degrees so that the view of our "known world" is bottom right and the "unknown world" is to your left ...

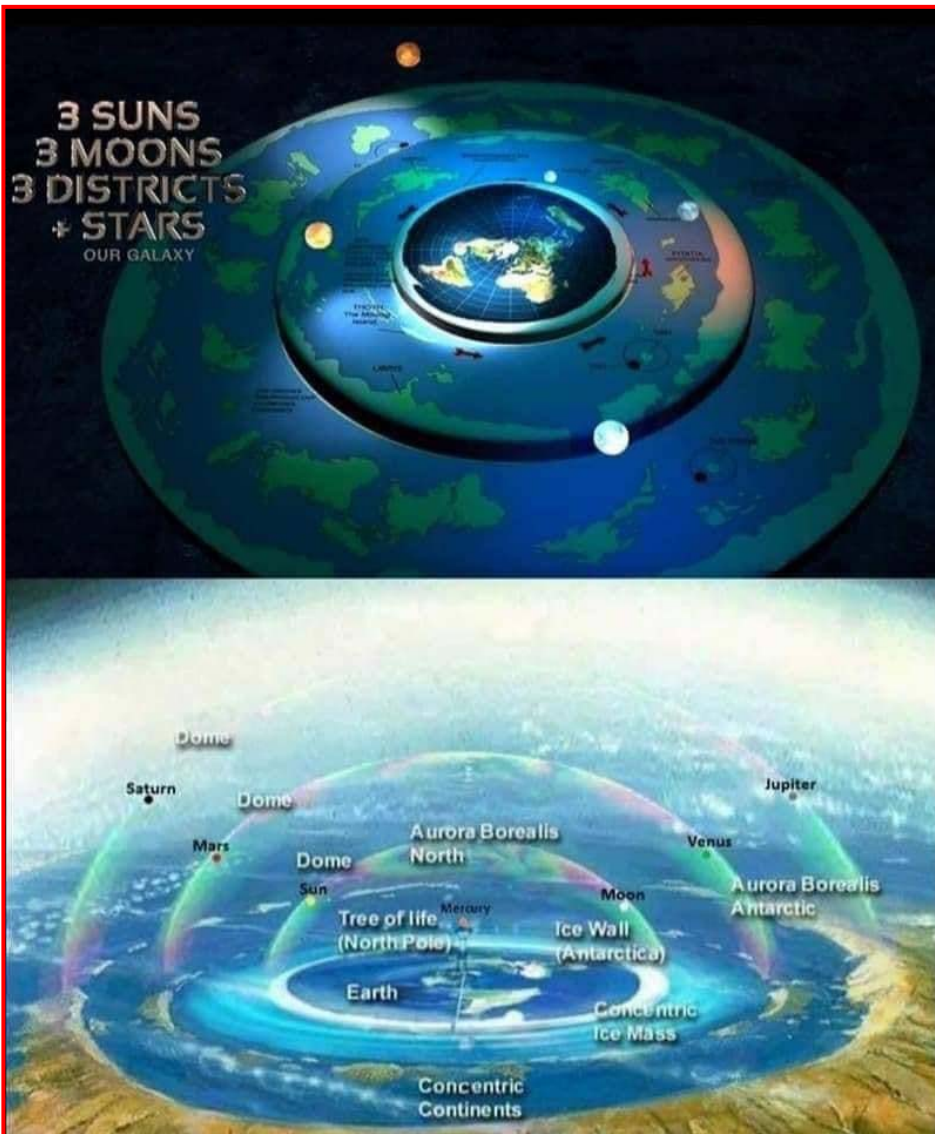

The arrows shown to your left are a better illustration of what is being talked about as being the "unknown world" or what could be the continents that are outside the Ice Wall of Antarctica.

[D.] The graphic image above labeled as "Beyond the Ice Wall" is actually taken from a short video (which at the end of this post, I have shown to you an online link where you can watch it). Here we see three (3) separate or distinct regions of our world or realm, each with its own landmasses (continents). Our region or world is within the white circle or Ice Wall but we do see here possible breaks in the wall which might allow one to go into the outer regions. However, the video even shows other worlds that are beyond the Earth (some you will recognize by name) but essentially all which are based upon the idea or principle that we live on a Flat non-rotating realm which encompasses all of these other worlds that are portrayed within the image. So I highly, highly recommend that you watch the video associated with the image shown before, it's another mind blower to be sure!

[E.] This final image to your left is again suggesting that linked to our world or realm there exists three separate Domes. And contained within each one is its own Sun and Moon. Plus, this image is also proposing that some of the other lights we see in our skies from these other regions (let's call them) could be what we would consider some of the planets that are considered members of what we are told are part of our solar system but they reside under one of these two other domes and are seen via our transparent Dome.

Thus, I hope that through these various images I was able to provide for to you a good sensing or feeling of what these possible other maps or views of our full world might look like. I found it quite remarkable when I viewed the videos done by Ewaranon, that he referred to the citizens from these so-called "unknown world(s)" as Extra-Territorial and that possibly some of the purportedly ETs (or Galactic Races) who are visiting us do come from these other lands and are not really extraterrestrial.

#2: Is there any Physical Proof that these other Lands exist and do They Actually have People Living There? ... Why yes, there is as a matter of fact! There was a report that came out in a Florida magazine in 1902 that is now in a book format!! - It was in the "Florida Magazine", January 1902 issue; this is when there appeared a story which has now become known by the title of the book version: "The Iron Republic". This is a recounting of a specific passenger who traveled on the ship called "The Wanderer" that leaves Tampa, FL (around 1898 or 1899) and then somehow finds this opening in Antarctica (through the Dome - as some of these maps showed possible openings) so that they were able to continue sailing on the other side of the Dome. Of which, there existed different waters (like a large ocean) and eventually they came upon a land that held people who looked human like us and called their country (as it were) "The Iron Republic".

J. Edward Barrington, an Attorney and Counselor at Law, was the passenger I spoke of and the author of this story. He would write journal notes each day of his travels. They arrived here at "The Iron Republic", I believe in the late 1800's and spent a significant amount of time with the people of this unknown country. These people lived in a totally different way (as compared to us) with different customs and laws, and in a much more peaceful way than we do. They also had some advanced technologies, which at that time were totally unknown to our world. Various individuals from "our world" had somehow found this land and were living there. Thus, the people of the Iron Republic were quite familiar with our part of the Earth and how we were living.

I was able to acquire a free copy of the digital version of this book, which you will find (in my last comments of this segment) a link to where you can obtain your own copy and download it.

So this is the information I have uncovered so far about the idea that our World, that our Earth is much larger than we think it is. When the Truth does come out then we will begin to meet all these other citizens of Earth. Ok then, time for my final conclusions about Part 2.

FINAL FINAL CONCLUSION TO PART 2

First, I would like to address our readers who believe that the idea of a Flat non-rotating Earth is just pure fantasy or another conspiracy theory. I completely understand why you would think or feel this way as I realize Flat Earth is a highly controversial subject here in June of 2023. However, I believe that I have given to such individuals (within this Part of the e-book) enough information and insights about this alternative model of our Earth, that if one is open enough and will to do their own personal research they will see that this model is not just a made up story or flight of fancy or comes from one's imagination. That there really are observable phenomena that anyone (any person living on our Earth) can see and experience which definitely fit what the GeoCentric model tells about our Earth!

I also believe I was able to offer various arguments which demonstrate that there are a number of inconsistencies within the HelioCentric Model (the model we were all taught in school) that can be substantiated by a mathematical and scientific study as well. It just requires for a person to take time to do their own in-depth investigation into the two models we presented within this e-book.

(Note: There was a very interesting video interview done with a woman who is over 100 years old by a well known Flat Earth Researcher speaking to her about what she was taught in school as a child. And believe it or not she said they taught her that the Earth was flat. This means from the mid 1930's and earlier, it was considered almost sacrilege to discuss the Earth being a spherical globe. Thus, I speculate probably during the late 1940's or early 1950's was when things changed, that in our schools they began to teach to the children that the Planet Earth is a globe. NASA has been the primary source to support this model and NASA was not established until towards the end of 1958. It has become obvious today that it has been NASA's goal to fully support the HelioCentric Model of a spherical Earth by any means necessary.)

So now, let me summary what I consider a few of the key points of contention between these two models which I believe puts the HelioCentric version to shame, and then, this is why I have to call myself a Flat Earther these days ...

[A.] Rowbotham's simple test at a small canal in England in the 1830's, that by using a mathematical formulae to determine the amount of curvature of a spherical Earth, and how far in the distance he should be able to view his friend in a boat, he was able to verify that our world can not be a globe. That if we follow this formula, which the scientists use themselves to describe the curvature of the Earth (based upon the circumference of the Earth at the equator being about 25,000 miles), it will fail this type of test he did every time, as he could clearly see his friend in a telescope only six miles away. Further, that you can perform the same type of test yourself with say a boat that is 10 miles off shore upon a lake or the ocean just by using the zoom on your digital camera and get the same results.

[B.] The Earth can not be rotating but has to be stationary. How do we know this is true? Well, if the Earth was rotating then a plane going West would have to remain stationary in the sky and wait for the Earth to rotate to the plane's final destination to come underneath because the Earth purportedly rotates at a 1000/mph which is faster than the plane can travel or; when shooting a cannon ball up into the sky, why does it fall back down to the Earth at almost the exact same spot that you shot it from? If these statements are true, and we our Earth is not rotating, then the Sun and Moon have to be the light bodies in the sky which are flying and rotating over us on the surface.

[C.] The existence of a Dome has been shown by an amateur rocket group in 2014 when they fired their small rocket (that had a camera onboard) up into the sky and at 73 miles up, it just stopped or was suspended (this was clearly shown by the video camera). Further, if we could really watch the true and full path taken by any other rocket fired into the sky, when they get close to the dome, we would see two events. First as the move across the sky, streaking behind them would be some type of mist as if the rocket was moving through a liquid (like how a motor boat does in water). And then secondly, we would eventually see the rocket arch back down to the Earth (possibly in pieces as it could have broken up when it hit the dome). Or, when a plane goes high enough into the sky and is able to do a video recording of the Orange Electrical Lights that appear briefly, up that high, which are called "Elves" or "Sprites", - it appears as if their lights are briefly reflected off some type of surface near them, so what can this surface be (is it the Dome)? Could Rainbows that we see in the sky be due to some type of light reflection off the Dome as well? And finally, if there is a Dome, then there can not be a vacuum less outer space for spacecraft to orbit the Earth (its called low Earth orbit) nor can there have been a moon landing (since the Moon is a self-illuminated light of plasma). Thus, everything told to us by NASA about space and their space programs has to be a lie.

[D.] Gravity can not be the same force which holds us to the surface of the Earth while at the same time is keeping all the planets (in our so-called solar system) revolving around their Sun and keeping these planets away from each other. These are two different forces. It makes more sense that density is what holds us to our world and bounciness determines at what height we remain level, possibly with some added support from the electro-magnetic field constantly be broadcasted everywhere by the Earth itself.

[E.] If the Earth along with the Sun and the other planets in our solar system are constantly traveling through Outer Space, then the constellations in the Zodiac can't be seen in the same order in our sky from year to year as these constellations would be doing their own unique traveling in space. Thus, it makes far more sense that the Earth must be stationary and these lights from the constellations are revolving over the Earth and underneath the Dome.

These are just a few of the issues I brought up in Part 2, but as you can imagine I could keep going with such points for a very long time. The GeoCentric Model is not some system that a simpleton came up with; it is very precise and elaborate. This model has its own level of science connected to it, if one is really open to study it with a sharp focus. The explanations it provides about the physical reality of our Earth and what we see in our sky (in the daytime and at night), it just all makes perfect sense. Plus, why would so many more ancient cultures have drawings of our world showing a type of dome overhead? What did they know that seems to have been taken from us by the Elite?

Now, as I have shared throughout this series, each of you must make up your own mind what information and insights resonate. If we are being told lies by the major media, if we can't trust our politicians, if the medical industry won't tell us the truth about covid, vaccines and their medicines - therefore, is it possible then, for reasons we can't and might never understand, what type of insane plan the Elite are facilitating to keep control of our world and humanity. Thus, as a part of their plan, they could also have some strong reason to create and perpetuate a huge deception about what is the true nature of our world? Other possibilities that some people believe includes that this physical reality could literally just be a computer simulation (we have a free e-book which discusses this subject as well) - or maybe, there are other dimensions to our Earth which are more spiritual in nature (that we can not perceive with our physical senses) which greatly impact our physical world and prevents us from seeing other aspects of our Earth?

In coming back full circle to what I was discussing in the Introduction of this e-book, I want to return to the video series I began in March of this year, entitled as, "2023: The Year the Full Truth begins to be Revealed". Remember, I began sharing on Facebook the posts reproduced in this e-book to support the idea that the Truth about our history, our world and who we even truly are, those in charge have intentionally done all they can to hide this from us. Well this video series now becomes the Part 3 of these posts I was planning to do but it made more sense to create them as videos to share via the Center's Rumble video channel (see page 169 for the direct on-line links to the 4 videos produced so far up to the time of the release of this e-book). I highly recommend you take a look at this video series and follow them in the order they were released (Segment 1, Segment 2 and so). Basically within the video series I am focusing on recent events taking place in our world and how these events are visible signs of an undeclared war going on (between the forces of Light and dark). However, as I explained in Segment 1, based on two special spiritually based experiences I have had, how I know ultimately in the near future we will see a Peaceful and Harmonious World.

Thus, I absolutely believe we are currently living in a time when many of these Truths are about to become fully "Revealed" to all of humanity (including absolute proofs with definitive evidence). So, we will know if Tartaria was a real civilization that ended relatively recently. And we will finally know everything about the natural laws of this beautiful world we live in along with its true shape and form. Those answers are coming soon I do believe (!), are you ready? 😊

For you see, it appears to me to be a Universal Law that if one is living in a reality that is based upon an illusion following only lies and false truths, eventually it will all have to break down as the "Light of Creator" can not be blocked and must always shine through it. And this is exactly what has been happening to our world for some time (getting more intense each day now), I would say this process true started since the 1940's when the UFO sightings started to happen all over the world and has been escalating every since. Additionally, I intuitively felt that during December of 2012 (this feeling was on a deep inner level) that another tremendous shift happened to our entire world but it was on an energetic soul level but a great door was opening to help bring Creator's Light more forward and to enter into our reality so these energies became more visible. And if you are a sensitive person or on your own spiritual path; you mostly are feeling this higher more divine energies are getting stronger and stronger each day. The Truth is always revealed in the end.

So I hope you enjoyed these written posts for the first two Parts of this series so far along with all the great images that I was able to share. Perhaps then, this series has filled in some holes or gaps for you about what is really happening in our world at the present time. Perhaps it has inspired you in some way to begin (or continue) your own investigations. Maybe, just maybe, in the near future you will come across some other amazing information and insights not yet known by most and you will become the source to share it with others and bring it to Light?? ☺ From a certain perspective, we really do live in an amazing time and there is a "Big Reveal" coming up soon. Let's all be there to help our friends and family when this happens so they don't go so crazy. OK?

Now, for Part 3 of this series of messages or posts, as I have mentioned briefly before, it has been coming out through that video series that I am doing on our Rumble channel for our Center starting at the end of March (2023). In summary here (again see page 169 for the direct link to the four videos in the series completed as of June 12th with several more coming of course) let just say what each video covers:

Segment 1 -- Is an Introduction and Explanation of the Whole Series with a focus upon two key personal spiritual experiences I have had that have shown me the peaceful future we will see by 2037-2040;

Segment 2: Time is Everything, Parts 1, 2 & 3 - Basically these three parts are focusing on key events starting in 2016 through the current year of 2023 and how they events are influencing the undeclared war on consciousness taking place in our world. In Part 3, I also began to discuss the new financial system, key components and what it will look like. (Since I started to share the video series, I have received some very positive comments in Rumble.)

If you subscribe to the Center's Rumble Channel, you always get an email when new videos for this video series are uploaded or if we do any other special videos or interviews with amazing individuals who have great insights and information. Anyway, until we connect again in whatever way (see you next time), in peace and light always ... Joshua (JS CSE 417+1)

[Please feel free to share with others this post, or this e-book itself, if you feel your friends or family might receive some value from it. Also, please email me if you have any questions on this subject I am covering here or if you wish to take a peak at our free Flat Earth e-book or view our dedicated rumble video channel about Flat Earth these are listed in our on-line resource section at the end of this e-book. 😊]

-- May 2023 be the time for the Great Awakening and the Golden Age to begin in our physical reality - no longer just a dream or something that we just imagine in our minds 😊

In Peace, Light and Love always - Stay tuned and be aware as more and more strange activities and phenomena are continuing to happen almost daily now. We are living in the most interesting of times

The Center for the Advancement of Humanity
(A Brief Description and our On-line Resources)
June 2023

Welcome to our Center

Who Are We?

What is this New Center About?

The Center for the Advancement of Humanity is a spiritually inspired and based Center which is being created right now by an extended family of people all over the world. As its name implies, we will be involved in all type of projects linked to Advancing the state of Humanity and working towards creating a totally peaceful and harmonious world.

The vision for our center was given to our founder, Joshua Shapiro in the summer of 2018. Joshua is known throughout the world as a crystal skull and paranormal explorer, author and public speaker. At that time, the resources necessary to build a physical Center were not yet available as this will be a very large project. However, since March of 2022, Joshua has been inspired by guiding "Spirits" and felt a call to begin working on setting up the energetic version of the foundation in preparation of birthing forth the first Main Center (now in 2023 within the Central Part of Florida) along with other Sister Centers in other parts of the U.S. and all over the world. Already, as of June of 2023, there are now teams of people to support the center in: U.S. / CANADA / VIRGIN ISLANDS / FRANCE / ENGLAND / HOLLAND / ITALY SCOTLAND / AUSTRALIA / NEW ZEALAND.

Here are some of the early projects we will be working on

Crystal Skulls

Their Importance to Humanity in the Future

UFOs - ET/Galactic Contact

Are we Alone? UFO Disclosure ...

Talking with the Galactics Directly

Spiritual Dimensions of Existence and the Paranormal

Wholistic Health & Healing

MedBeds, Organic Remedies, Spiritual Healing

Our Publishing and Distribution Dept.

We will help people who have key books to share, musical creations, documentaries, and more

*These are just of some of the projects that our Center will be involved with - Does it sound Exciting to You?
We are definitely open to be involved in other areas of study and we will be a part of the process to create a world for Humanity of Total Peace and Light.*
