

Are We Living in A Computer Simulation?

(what I have come up with that might blow your mind!)

Joshua Shapiro

(June, 2023 edition, originally written in March, 2019)

My objective in writing this report is not to convince anyone that this so-called theory about living in a Computer Simulation is true, at all. I just feel strongly inspired to share what has come up for me, what was placed directly in front of my face and that this information could be very important for understanding what will happen in our future. Now, if I trust my inner gut feeling and listening to what information has been presented by a few scientists who are considering this question, I think we all need to be open to this possibility or at the very least, see that it is a highly interesting alternative reality. So I will do my best in this e-book to offer how you can explore it for yourself.

Originally, when I composed this e-book back in 2019, I just shared the on-line links to four key videos that I had uncovered (or was most likely innerwardly guided to) and a page I found that listed 25 of the most popular “Mandela Effects” that have been reported into the early part of 2019. However, even though these videos have some excellent information for my readers, I still felt that I needed to share a few other thoughts and conclusions that I had come up with which could add some additional insights about this theory. So you will find this other material after the video section starting on page 13.

Now, I strongly recommend for this edition of this e-book, that before you read any of the additional materials attached to it, that you first watch the four videos I am recommending in the list coming up on page 11 (BTW – I verified here in 2023 these videos are still active). Otherwise some of my conclusions and thoughts I share later many not make sense.

Since the original report done in 2019 was quite short, I have decided to do a total re-write for this June 2023 edition. I am not only adding new information and comments but I have expanded upon the information I shared previously too.

It has been over four years that have passed since the original report was done and many changes have taken place in our world since. When I wrote this e-book in 2019, my main goal was to just help people learn more about the possibility that our world could be a computer simulation. I believed if the reader would watch the four great videos I discovered on the internet; they would have a better understanding of the possibility that we could be living in such a simulation and what evidence has come up to support this. I thought my readers would be interested to know what has led some scientists to believe this must be absolutely true. In addition, I saw this theory had a connection with the study of the “Mandela Effect”, which is where different people have had different memories of past events and activities happening on our Earth. This other phenomena might imply (as told within one video which I will explain to you shortly) that the people or beings who had created the simulation of our world, our reality, might have also been involved in programming changes to the timeline of our Earth. And thus, when they made these changes to our timeline, it affected the memory of people of what happened in our past. Some people were able to remember the original timeline and others who had their memories changed saw a different timeline, possible the one we are currently living in, if this makes any sense. It's just one possible explanation.

Anyway when we come to the section that includes the four videos, we will start looking more closely at the computer simulation theory, the possible link with the "Mandela Effect" and the circumstances which brought this Effect to the public's attention. But first, I want to share some important updates from 2023 that are linked to new projects and information collected initiated after 2019 which I will be sharing with you, listed within a new on-line resource section I am adding at the end of this report (free e-book). I will also be listing in the resource section how you can acquire the other 8 free e-books we are offering to others.

[Note – I apologize for taking the next five pages to share with you what I consider to be some other important updates personally happening in 2023. I feel it is necessary to introduce you to a new spiritual center we setup in 2022. However, if you prefer to proceed on to view the listing of the videos that I am recommending to watch, then just skip ahead to page 11.]

The news as of June 14th, 2023: Right now in our world, to those who have the eyes to see (especially since covid19 was released at the end of 2019 starting in China), we are going through what many are calling an "undeclared war on consciousness". There definitely are two sides fighting in the background of this war, the Light, who wishes to bring our world into a Golden Age of Peace and Harmony and the dark,

(the elite or cabal) who are working towards total world domination and to depopulate our world. Not everyone agrees with observation of course. But for those who are open to learn more, you will find in a few of the other free e-books I am offering, they provide a much better reporting and support for this conclusion. I am briefly discussing this situation here so you will see how this e-book fits in and with the other e-books we share.

It is quite possible that both sides in this undeclared war (Note: both are working with different groups ETs or Galactics -- oh yes, here in June 2023, UFO Disclosure is coming out big time and many believe it will no longer be considered a psyop or a conspiracy theory for very much longer) already know that our universe we find ourselves in could be a computer simulation. This probably means that they fully understand the rules of the simulation, but this is just a strong opinion I have.

However, since everyone has a cellular or mobile phone and is able to easily take videos of what is happening around them, I have seen such personal videos on Telegram where it's obvious there are glitches happening in our reality. For example, I have seen both a bird and helicopter just hovering in the air in suspended animation. Or I saw a plane streaking in the sky and the streaking part discontinued. Or, if we talk about Flat Earth (we have a free e-book on this subject BTW if you wish to know more), there is definitely an impenetrable dome 73 miles up in the sky – so who built this dome? And was it built to keep us within this world, like we do with insects when we create an ecosystem in glass jar to watch them? So you see, we have visible signs that we could be in a simulation.

Further, since covid19 came out, the interest in the idea of living in a computer simulation or what is happening around the Mandela Effect has been virtually non-existence. Yes on telegram (my main source of news and what happening in the world as it has been the least affected by the so-called cancel culture) I will see infrequently see a post or video on these subjects but its very rare. People are consumed now with their health, the war in the Ukraine and the corruption in their governments and how will they be able to live a comfortable life without too much suffering and struggling.

So before I continue into the main material of this e-book, I want to update our reader to a few new personal activities we are involved with so you will understand some of the on-line resources I have listed in the back of this e-book where we are sharing important information to understand the current conditions of our world and the future we are headed into.

Thus, in 2022, I was guided by "Spirit" (or what I call "The Voice" which is the voice I hear in my mind's or thinking voice – this is linked to a spiritual gift I have) to energetically create a new spiritual center which is known as "The Center for the Advancement of Humanity". That is I setup a Telegram Channel, a Rumble Video Channel, a one page website, an email and mailing list to initially support this Center. Of course, the study of being in a computer simulation and the Mandela Effect will be two areas we will continue to study and do more research upon. Further, I believe here in 2023 that we are getting ready for the release of a new financial system that will be returning the wealth of the world stolen by the elite back to "We The People". Thus, this is how our Center will become fully funded so we can setup physical locations all over the world. If you wish to learn more about our center see the information I included in the back of this e-book.

Lastly, it has become very apparent to many of us that during this year of 2023, the Truth about the nature of our world, the history of the Earth, the true inner spiritual nature of our being – all of these higher Truths are about to be revealed to everyone. This is generating a movement towards creating a positive future, a time of Paradise for our world. In January of this year, I received a direct message from "The Voice" that during this year, the revealing of these Full Truths will definitely begin to come out to all of humanity. This then inspired me to create a free e-book (which focuses upon that the history we were taught in school is a lie and also we do not live on a Globe) to support the message of "The Voice". This other e-book is based upon a series of posts I made on my personal Facebook Page from late January to early May which I then put them all together in one place. In late March, I was also inspired to create a video version to support "The Voice's" message which is entitled as, "2023: The Year the Full Truth begins to be Revealed". Once again, these videos are providing more clues and evidence of what I have uncovered on-line that shows us that Big Reveals (or "Truth Bombs") are definitely on their way to show up before the end of 2023. However, this video series is more centered upon public activities and events starting from 2016 to present and as of June 14th, is on-going.

To finish up this introduction (a bit of patience please), I just want to add a few other thoughts and words of wisdom. Since 2020, for those people who are what some call "awake" and can clearly see what's happening in our world (they are not listening to the main media or what their politicians are saying), there is no doubt in their minds that this undeclared war on consciousness is taking place. In the video series I have done about these Truths coming out in 2023, I do discuss this war a bit more as well as how, I know what the near Future will be like (this is via two key personal spiritual experiences I have had which I discuss in Segment 1). That being that the "Light" not only totally wins (or as they say on Telegram -- the best place to read about what is really happening in our world at this time) but "God Wins". Plus, I believe on this date of June 14th (when the writing of this e-book is being completed) the "Light" has already won this war even though outwardly we still have great chaos taking place in our world (or it's just a movie?). But one thing is for sure, the dark (the elite, the cabal) are totally and openly showing their hand (they are not hiding things or doing them subtly) like with covid, the vaccines, a strong focus on having the children change their sex (transgender), focusing upon the Pride of being Gay (which has nothing to do with who an individual chooses to love but the elite are using it for birth control, to decrease our population) or what they just doing in June with Pride Month (notice the word hidden there).

So all I can recommend, as a fellow human being, who has watched these crazy activities happening all around us, just like you, is to live one day at a time, not give your power away and learn how to say "NO" if something morally doesn't resonate for you (there is a secret law about this I discuss in the video series). Please don't give in to the false fear and panic the elite try to create. They feed off of these energies and they don't want you to fight against the actions they want you to take. There is one other suggestion that "The Voice" gave me a while back, which I will finish the introduction with which I hope you will read, it can be quite powerful!

From a spiritual perspective, at least for those of us on our own personal spiritual path and journey, we know our thoughts, our consciousness, what we believe creates the reality around us. Further, we are each a Divine Child of Creator who has a spark of Creator within us, therefore we are each quite powerful in our own way. So if you understand this highest of high Truths then, here is the suggestion of "The Voice", a simply exercise we can each do that can a big uplifting and loving difference in our world.

Earlier in this report I spoke about that we are definitely headed to a new Earth filled with total peace and harmony that is coming in the near future, right? Well what if you were to do a meditation, say for 5 or 10 minutes in the morning, before you go out and do your daily activities and then the same in the evening, before you go to sleep? And for this specific meditation, your goal is simply to visualize in your mind, as clearly as you can, what would our world look like, if we already were living in this time of peace which some have called a "Golden Age". In other words, everyone was happy and free to pursue their life how they wished. No wars, no conflicts, no hunger at all. We would all be living in Paradise. During your meditations just imagine how this would be like for you? And you make a promise to do this every day.

And then, and then, "The Voice" said, well one morning you will wake up in your bed, and you start looking around and you notice that YOU ARE NOW, IN THAT MOMENT, LIVING IN EXACTLY THE WORLD YOU HAD VISUALIZED – wouldn't this be amazing? OK then, this is Joshua signing off – hope you enjoy this e-book but more importantly if you found it had some important information, it was inspiring or valuable for you in some way, PLEASE FEEL FREE TO SHARE IT WITH OTHERS, OK?

God Bless, in Peace and Light always

The Four Key Youtube Videos with the Top 25 Mandela Effects (webpage)

Hello again. Of course, I am sharing these videos with you, as I found, for myself, that they contained some amazing information which demonstrated that the idea of living in a computer simulation is not that far fetched. We, of course, have had two amazing movies that depict living in a computer simulation, "The Matrix" (actually four movies now) and "The 13th Floor" (where in this story a simulated world creates it own computer simulation).

In addition, I would like to throw out another highly interesting idea that I saw on Telegram, since I said in the subtitle of this e-book, to be ready to have your mind blown. So get ready because this next insight is a doozy. It links to J F K Jr., who we have been told was killed in a plane crash in 1999. But according to the "Light" side of this undeclared war, his death was faked so he could work behind the scenes. That he is one of the main persons working hard to bring justice to our world and to arrest the people who killed his father. Do you believe this could be possible? Anyway, there is a channel on Telegram where the source who is making the posts claims to be him (no way to prove this statement though). In one of these posts, the source (he) says that the Matrix movie is really showing us the true reality of our world.

Ok then, moving on to the videos that I promised ... so three of these videos I list, I was able to watch them during the summer of 2017 on Youtube while my wife Katrina was visiting her family in Georgia. The fourth video came up for me in the summer of 2018 which is based upon a talk that was given at a conference by the well known journalist and researcher, Linda Moulton Howe. She was discussing then, about a very special huge stone door in Peru which is known to the world as Amaru Meru (actually discovered and shared publicly by one of my guides I had when I visited Peru). Now what is significant about this door is that the local people call it "The Gate of the Gods" and they have seen tall hooded beings walking through it at various times.

In the conference, Ms. Moulton Howe also showed a video where she was interviewing a good friend I know, Jerry Wills, a UFO

Teacher and Contactee plus he leads tours to Peru. Jerry told her that when he visited this very stone door, a local shaman had showed him how he could walk through this door (when I come to this video, in its description I will tell you a little bit more about what Jerry learned when he was on the other side). Anyway, my wife Katrina and I led our own spiritual tour to this door in 2009 which is very close to Lake Titicaca. Thus, I have had my own experience of the energy that is emitted in this area by the door. In the section later where I offer my "Other Thoughts", I will tell you what happened to me there.

Never-the-less, when I watched this video with Ms. Moulton Howe, I became visibly shaken by what Mr. Wills was saying (it woke up my sleeper inside of me so to speak). So, I just had to add this information to this e-book (and also I did for a new section in the appendix of another book that I rewrote in 2018 dealing with my search for a "Blue Crystal Skull" within Peru. A link for this other book is given at the end of the last section of this e-book if you may wish to read my full accounting of what took place to me at Amaru Meru).

Ok, we are almost ready for the list of videos, but before you go there, if you are not familiar with what the "Mandela Effect" is all about, let me give you a brief history here. The idea of the Mandela Effect was attributed to Fiona Broome, a paranormal researcher. She was attending a spiritual conference sometime in 2010 when a number of people who were present, all of a sudden started talking about what they remembered related to Nelson Mandela dying in prison in the 1980's. But if you go into our timeline, Nelson Mandela was eventually released from prison and became the first black President of South Africa in 1994 and didn't die until 2013. So how could so many people have a different memory of our history as it related to Mandela?

So Ms. Broome continued to research this phenomenon and is the one to give it its name. Quickly she discovered that there were many more similar occurrences of certain people having total different memories of our past. This is why I am sharing the webpage that discusses the top 25 or most well known Mandela Effects that have been recorded so have an idea how it works. Like in the Star Wars movie where Luke Skywalker first fights with Darth Vader and during this fight, Darth Vader reveals that he is Luke's father (Anakin Skywalker). In the movie does Darth say, "No, I am your father!" (this is the one you will find in the film) or did he say, "Luke, I am your father!" (which is the one I remember). Or in "Field of Dreams" did Kevin Costner hear in the field, "If you build it, he will come" (this is the one in the current film and which I remember) or did he hear, "If you build it, they will come" (which others remember). The study of the "Mandela Effect" is quite amazing and puzzling at the same time.

My recommendation here for this next section is to read the web page first and then watch the videos in the order shown below. Once you have grasped all of this information, then you will want to head over to page 13 for my further insights and observations plus some crazy conclusions (maybe).

Title: Proof – Mandela Effect is actually CERN Quantum Effect Part 2

(In this video we hear from the President of a company that is creating quantum computers. He discusses what they are, how they work and what they can do. Essentially though, a quantum computer is able to link to their counterpart in other parallel Earths and exchange very quickly information with each other. Related to the title of this video though, the Mandela Effect or CERN is not discussed but it is implying that maybe the experiments done by CERN and the dimensional doors they are opening could be causing the Mandela Effect.)

Title: Scientist says what caused the Mandela Effect people need to know this

(In this video it discusses an on-line technical form where a strange person shows up several years ago and starts making outrageous claims. First he claims he is a scientist who is working on the computer or computer server in another dimension which is responsible for running the computer simulation that our world is based upon. He explains what his group does and that he is using his own computer to communicate with the forum. However, he is not supposed to communicate with our world and so that he is not found out, he ends his presence. The key to this video is that based upon the information given by this scientist that his group keeps changing our timeline by re-writing the program of the computer simulation so our world is not destroyed by a nuclear holocaust in 2012.)

Title: Neil DeGrasse Tyson Freaks Out When Physicist James Gates Finds Intelligent Code in Fabric of Space

(Physicist James Gates explains to Neil DeGrasse Tyson, who is the MC of the conference they are participating in, a very unbelievable insight. First of all, the subject matter of this conference is deal with the origins of our universe. Mr. Gates claims that we are living in a Computer Simulation because he discovered within the fabric of our physical reality, at the atomic level, there exists a self-correcting binary error computer code which is exactly the same type of code that we using in our modern computers.)

[Update Note of Interest: I was so excited by what James Gates was talking about at this conference that I actually looked him up on the internet and found the phone number of his office at the university he works at. I spoke to his assistant who asked me many questions and basically blocked me from being able to speak to him directly. Further, she, this assistant told me that he wouldn't speak to anyone who comes from a spiritual perspective and I got the impression that because of what he shared this conference, his discovery, he received a lot of unwanted attention and had to protect himself. I am guessing he was being ridiculed by probably the elite as the elite didn't want people to know a physicist had proof we might be living in a computer simulation {implying they may have already known this}.)

Title: Linda Moulton Howe – Is Our Universe Someone Else’s Computer Simulation?

(This is the video I referenced before when Linda Moulton Howe talks at this conference about why she believes we could be living in a computer simulation. She also shares during her presentation a video of an interview she conducted with Jerry Wills where he discussed his personal experience while visiting the large stone door by Lake Titicaca known as Amaru Meru and he walks through this door. He claims on the otherside of the door that he met scientists who told him, they created our universe as a computer simulation to study theirs, but they didn’t plant any life into it. If you want to go to the place in this video where she shares Jerry Wills speaking about his story, this starts about 22-24 minutes into this video.)

Joshua’s Additional Observations and Concluding Remarks about the so-called Computer Simulation Theory (or Reality)!!

Ok then, how are you feeling after watching these videos? Has your reality been turned upside-down? Do you think we are living in a Computer Simulation? I wanted you to go over all the information shared on the previous page first so that my following comments will all make sense for you.

So if we accept what was presented in these videos could be the true interpretation of the reality of our world then here are some other ideas or thoughts we might want to consider:

1) If there truly is a binary error computer code that lies within the fabric of our reality then how could this be there if we weren’t living in some type of simulation? Also, many scientists are beginning to realize that within the universe we find ourselves living in that there are definitely “finite” physical and universal laws governing this reality. If this wasn’t a simulation then the essence of our universe should be “infinite” like our Creator!

2) How can all these strange “Mandela Effects” keep coming up where people’s memories of the past seems to be altered or isn’t matching the historical events of this Earth's timeline? Why are there different groups of people who have totally different memories of the past, some which matches what the internet says is now true and some which doesn't?

Does this imply that we are dealing with timelines of parallel Earths which are slipping in and out of each other? Could we be doing exchanges with a parallel aspect of ourselves and not be aware of it at all and this is happening quite frequently? Or, could it be, as this supposed strange scientist proposed who was speaking through an on-line technical forum (as discussed in one of the videos), that he was really working on a computer or server that exists in another dimension? That he is a clone and a person who is working with the other programmers over there, and part of their job is to make these subtle changes to the holographic matrix of our simulation which then is shifting our reality? Further, he said that they are doing this because at the end of 2012, in the original history or timeline, humanity destroyed our world through a nuclear holocaust? However, it seems that they are not having much success to re-program the memories of all the people to match these new timelines, perhaps this is just happening to various people who are very advanced in their spiritual evolution and this protects them from having their memories shifted?

3) Next, could it be as Jerry Wills shared about his experience at Amaru Meru, that when he walked through that huge store door - there is another dimension on the other-side? That the scientists working over there wanted to learn about their own reality and created our universe as a simulation that was similar to their universe to be able to study it and made it without any life? However, perhaps "Spirit" on some level, decided to add the spark of life (without asking them) and then, at some point during the simulation's evolution, our souls decided to jump into it for some new experiences and we forget about our true nature as Divine Children of Creator? That the local Peruvian people who live around the Amaru Meru door – are seeing these scientists walking through the stone door, calling them Gods as they come over to personally check their creation?

4) Obviously, to make such a sophisticated simulation would require a very advanced computer system (which seems to use the same binary system as we have in our computers) so that those living beings who are dwelling in this simulated universe can experience their life as being as real as possible. According to our physical senses, our world appears to be very solid so that the people living here will take their lives in a very seriously manner. Could it also be that the new type of advanced computers we are building now being called "Quantum Computers", which are able to operate much much faster than the traditional computers we have today, plus are able to intersect with the computers in parallel dimensions of the Earth, that a similar type of computer is what is running this simulation?

5) Then finally, I would like to add some of my own insights here which is based upon my personal experiences of 68 years and related to who I perceive Joshua Shapiro is. Why did I choose to study to be a computer programmer in college and when I graduated worked with computers as my initial full time job until I resigned in 1997? And why even now, to earn money to pay our bills, and to share the spiritual and paranormal knowledge we have been collecting along with communicating with people all over the world, that I continue to use and rely upon my personal computer notebook linked to the internet?

Going back to special events in my life: In 1990, while living in Las Vegas, around my birthday in April of that year (turning 35, an 8) as I was walking down a busy street to go to McDonalds for something to eat for lunch, I heard a long screech behind me. The next thing I knew was my physical vision went from white to black, and I lost consciousness (passed out). For you see, my body had been struck from behind by this van and I was in a coma for 3 days. That this so-called accident was something that I had agreed to experience before I was born. That this event was necessary so I could be out of my body (my waking, living consciousness or soul) for three days of Earth Time so I could attend some type of meeting in another dimension. At this meeting, which I can still see it in my mind's eye (every day now), there were many beings in attendance from many worlds within our universe.

My sensing was, we were all there to discuss the situation on planet Earth and how we could help humanity evolve into a higher level of consciousness (5th dimensional). Through this transformational process, the end-result would be that we would be able to co-create a harmonious and peaceful world but we still had to respect the free will of the inhabitants of the Earth which would limit to a degree how help could be given for the highest good. I know for a fact that there was some very special information given to me at this time, programmed into my sub-consciousness but I can't remember (or haven't been allowed to remember) most of it. However, I suspect that the reason I have created this report to talk about being in a "Computer Simulation" ... just maybe, just maybe, could this be part of the information that was given to me at this inner dimensional meeting? And then, over the past four or five years, I am being slowly re-activated to remember the wisdom and knowledge I learned there and can begin to share it more freely? I do know though, since I saw the Earth's future over there, that as new events happen in our present or "NOW", I seem to know which ones are true and important. Plus, plus, maybe at this meeting perhaps I had an opportunity to meet and speak to those scientists too who have purported created our universe as a simulation and ...

Then in 2009, I was inspired to take our Peruvian Spiritual Tour Group to not only visit Lake Titicaca but that we absolutely had to explore the large stone door south of the lake – called, as we shared before, "Amaru Meru". All the members of our group were allowed to approach the door and do their own private meditation at the door. For myself, I felt it was very important to do a meditation with my personal crystal skull, "Portal de Luz" and to sing a song I had written out loud called the "Crystal Skull Theme Song" with "him" and at the door. I did this by listening to the song on my mp3 player. I know for a fact it took me a while to come back from this meditation and that I went through some type of energetic shift. I think I made contact with the scientists on the other side of the door then but I didn't have a conscious memory of it. But then ...

I recall (in 2018) while I was watching the video with Linda Moulton Howe, interviewing Jerry Wills about his experience at Amaru Meru and that he had to do a special tone to go through it -- this triggered inside of me a new type of awareness. That was that perhaps during my visit at the door, I have somehow made a type of telepathic contact with those Scientists on the other side of the stone door – and now when I think about them in mind's voice, I can almost hear them speaking to me ... almost ... but I just can't make out what they are saying.

And then, another thought came to me just before I started to write this report (the first time in 2019) which has to do with sleeping. Why do we need sleep or have to go to bed and become unconscious? We are taught that we need to sleep as our body must rest from our activities during the day and that by going unconscious, our conscious mind won't interfere with a form of healing we receive while we sleep. However, a different thought has come to me that maybe, just maybe we all go to sleep (even the animals) so the programmers running our simulation can make updates to our body and memories during this time. I don't know, what do you think about this? However, as I said before, there are some very special spiritually advanced individuals who might have a kind of energetic protection around them, even while they sleep that this re-programming can not be done upon them at all???

And then finally, could it be that the reason this understanding is coming to me now, that I am starting to see how all these puzzle pieces fit together, is because I have a closer connection to these scientists than I have ever realized before? The best way I can explain what I want to share next is we have to look at those two popular movies I mentioned before, the "Matrix" quadrilogy and "The 13th Floor".

In both of these story/films the main character experiences what appears to be a solid physical existence within a computer simulation, although the circumstance that each story is based upon for these films is much different. But if we look at "The 13th Floor", where the main characters at the highest level are creating many different simulations, they have the ability to jump into their avatar bodies and live in each of their own simulations. I am beginning to believe that I might actually be either a projection of one of these programmers or an aspect of what of these programmers – could this be true?? What do you think??

Perhaps though, I just have wanted to have a direct experience for myself of this simulation or emulation upon Earth and have chosen to have a number of lifetimes here as well and took a memory veil, so as not to remember who I am. That now that we are here in 2023, as we get closer to “UFO Disclosure” finally happening (the acknowledgement by so-called official government agents and representatives of the existence of so-called “Alien or Extraterrestrial Life” – its getting very close these days BTW), that we are meant to finally learn the complete truth about our reality as well as other dimensions levels that co-exist with our own? That this was the timeframe planned for this so-called secret to be revealed. I could be crazy here but even if it is true that I am linked to the scientists, I still have all the challenges we all have of living on planet Earth too. There hasn't been any Angels (that I know of, showing up in their true form and physically) who have magically appeared and provided for all of us these physical resources we require yet to work on our spiritually-based projects and manifest them to help bring our world into a Golden Age. But again, based on information being shared on various channels on Telegram, we seem to be getting closer to such a time!

And what about my interest in the crystal skulls, and the strong connection I have with them, could there be some connection with the computer simulation? Well, could it be true then that the very old crystal skulls (also called ancient skulls) are some form of advance computers that were created and used by various very old and ancient civilizations? The crystal skulls' link to being themselves a network of energetic and spiritually based computers could be very similar to how we have all these different devices that connect to each other via our internet? I know the crystal skulls have the ability to observe activities and events happening in our world around them as well as record all of this within their lattice structure. At the same time, they can be sending these recordings back to some type of master computer or server which maybe is the one that is running our world's simulation, to give data to those scientists over there what is happening within our world or how their experiment is going.

To give a possible example of this, let me discuss an experience I had once, when I was working with a mold of the famous "Mitchell-Hedges Crystal Skull" in Brazil, at a UFO Gathering that was held at a National Park outside. When I meditated upon this skull facsimile, I saw in my mind's eye what I thought were beings (or ETs) working on a spacecraft with their own crystal skulls sitting in front of them. Then these skulls were at the same time, speaking to the crystal skulls upon the Earth. However, now that I am thinking about this experience again, maybe this was happening on board a spacecraft but were the scientists who were working with the computer simulation existing in another dimension? and using their own crystal skulls as an interface device like we would use a computer monitor or terminal. Crazier things have happened yes?

Well dear reader, it is up to you to make your own decisions if the information I have presented for you within this report makes any sense at all or if it could be true. I hope I have pieced together to your satisfaction enough clues through the webpage and various videos I have shared in this report which perhaps have provided some evidence that our reality could be a computer simulation. And maybe my extra thoughts and idea were helpful too. I think we are only able to begin to see this possibility because of the recent advancement within our sciences and the very advance technology we now have (probably due to contact with ETs). And finally, I will have to continue to personally explore if I might have some (soul or energetic) connection with these scientists/programmers of this so-called computer simulation. As other than what I have presented within this report, so far I have not had a direct conscious contact with them but I still hear their voices in my mind's voice even though I can't tell what they are saying. I just know that if these programmers on the other-side of the door – wanted to speak to me, they could very easily do so mostly likely via my personal computer (like what happened to "Neo" in the "Matrix" film). The only strange experience I can recall working with a computer is there have been a few times when I seem to be typing words that I wasn't intending to write but mysteriously it appeared as if some force outside of myself makes me type what looks like a mistake but it happens very quickly.

Finally I want to offer to our readers how to get a copy of our 2018 edition of our book entitled, "Search for the Blue Skull in Peru", Travel Log #2 – so you can read more about the experiences that happened to Katrina and I at the stone door at Amaru Meru. BTW, the local people call this door in their ancient language "Willka Uta", which is where the name the Gate of the Gods comes from. Here is our webpage which shares more about this book:

Well – we would appreciate any feedback you might have on this report and also if you wish to share this report with others you can either give them our e-mail which is again, (crystalskullexplorers@gmail.com) and tell them to write to us direct and ask us for it with a subject of "2023 Computer Simulation Report" or in the on-line resources pages coming up next, there is a direct link to download this report to your device of choice.

The Center for the Advancement of Humanity
(A Brief Description and our On-line Resources)
June 2023

Welcome to our Center

Who Are We?

What is this New Center About?

The Center for the Advancement of Humanity is a spiritually inspired and based Center which is being created right now by an extended family of people all over the world. As its name implies, we will be involved in all type of projects linked to Advancing the state of Humanity and working towards creating a totally peaceful and harmonious world.

The vision for our center was given to our founder, Joshua Shapiro in the summer of 2018. Joshua is known throughout the world as a crystal skull and paranormal explorer, author and public speaker. At that time, the resources necessary to build a physical Center were not yet available as this will be a very large project. However, since March of 2022, Joshua has been inspired by guiding "Spirits" and felt a call to begin working on setting up the energetic version of the foundation in preparation of birthing forth the first Main Center (now in 2023 within the Central Part of Florida) along with other Sister Centers in other parts of the U.S. and all over the world. Already, as of June of 2023, there are now teams of people to support the center in: U.S. / CANADA / VIRGIN ISLANDS / FRANCE / ENGLAND / HOLLAND / ITALY SCOTLAND / AUSTRALIA / NEW ZEALAND.

Here are some of the early projects we will be working on

These are just of some of the projects that our Center will be involved with - Does it sound Exciting to You?
We are definitely open to be involved in other areas of study and we will be a part of the process to create a world for Humanity of Total Peace and Light.

2023 Truth Video Series

(This special series of Videos is called, "2023: The Year the Full Truth begins to be Revealed". Its premise is based upon an inner message that Joshua received at the end of January (2023) that the Full Truth on Everything that is happening in our world will begin to be revealed to all of Humanity in 2023. To support this inner message he has been doing various videos to discuss the undeclared war that has been going on behind the scenes for over 60 years and what our future will look like, a time of total peace. This video is linked to our free e-book, listed in the next section by the same title. Below are the direct links to the videos already done as of June 18th on our rumble channel.)

Segment 1: Introduction

(Explains what this series is about, Joshua's background, how he knows these key Truths will be revealed during 2023, a discussion of two of his post profound spiritual experiences which shows him our future)

<https://rumble.com/v2duhoe-2023-time-of-full-truths-revealed-series-segment-1-an-introduction.html>

Segment 2, Part 1: Time is Everything

(We exam in more detail the undeclared war on consciousness - who is fighting it and why; how the U.S. 2016 & 2020 election along with covid are effecting us now; the war in the Ukraine, a video of the Moon in perigee at the Artic Circle, key telegram channels which we recommend that share the true sides to the real news.)

<https://rumble.com/v2m86x2-title-2023-time-of-full-truths-revealed-series-seg.-2-part-1-key-events.html>

Segment 2, Part 2: Time is Everything

(In this part we look at key events that took place in 2022 and how it impacted the undeclared war, we look at what celebrities publicly announced they had covid in 2022 and look at two videos linked to George H.W. Bush the 41st President, also a discussion about the Brunson case.)

<https://rumble.com/v2ojjg8-time-of-full-truths-revealed-series-seg.-2-part-2-key-events-2022.html>

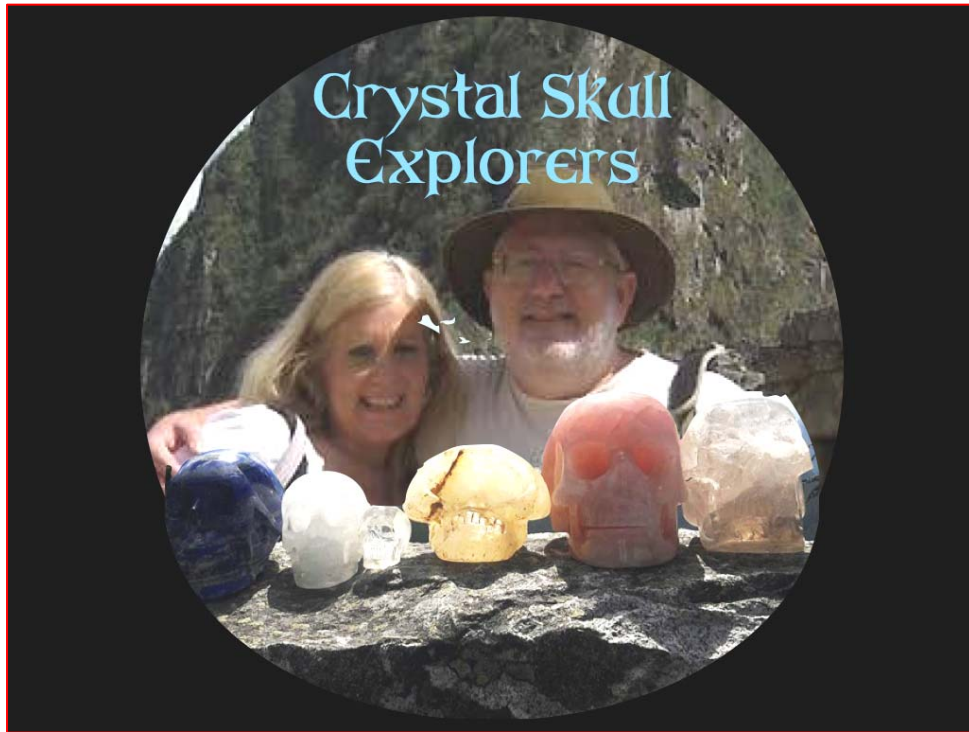

Segment 2, Part 3: Time is Everything (Section 1 for 2023 Events ...)

(In this part we look at key events that took place in the beginning part of 2023 through April 13th {couldn't go to the date of the recording as there are just too many activities exploding out in 2023}. We share a quote from Robert Dean, a ufologist and former U.S. Army Command Sergeant Major {while serving in Europe where he saw a report about UFO Activity there called "The Assessment"} about UFOs; and then we begin to look and define aspects of the new Financial System including the new computer banking system and economic system. We finish up discussing briefly an interview with a former U.N. official about what is really going on in the United Nations.)

(Note: If you are enjoying this series of videos about the possible Truth to be revealed in 2023, here are various ways to stay informed when we add new videos to this series. If you become a member of the Center's Rumble Video channel then, you will eventually receive an email from Rumble when a new video is added. Or, you can periodically check on the Rumble Video Channel link shown under the Center's contact information before. We plan at least (as of June 18th, 2023) for Segment 2 to have a Part 4 and possibly Part 5 plus Segment 3 (which will connect to our free e-book that is based on the Facebook posts linked to this series discussed in the next section) will be comprised of at least five Parts looking at a variety of other subjects that I think will greatly benefit our viewers to see the amazing future that is coming - Joshua)
