* INTRODUCTION ****

At the time of the writing of this introduction, our world is going through a mad and crazy time. While it is not my main goal to offer here what my intuition (the still small voice within) is telling me or what I am discerning as the truth about the pandemic that we are currently experiencing worldwide, I think we all know deep within ourselves that this time had to come in some form. It is quite obvious to most of us now that our major systems (financial, political, and social) which have been governing our lives over the years has been falling apart around us for some time as cracks are appearing and now very obvious. We are slowly learning that these systems were not based upon the true foundations that we have been educated about in our schools. As we sit here in July of 2020, and hear from the media of the many new reports of more people succumbing to the virus, we are told that the best way to combat the virus is stay home and to do social distancing. However, from a higher level perspective, as we watch what is happening, it appears that one of the purposes for the so-called lockdowns being requested is to slowly take away our cherished freedoms. It is stated this is a temporarily measure needed to combat the covid19 until it has passed but no one seems to have an idea for how long this condition will last, unfortunately?. Is everything that is being reported publicly linked to the covid19 really what is going on, many are asking themselves?

Therefore, I was greatly inspired due to these circumstances to put this document together, especially since the radio show which I will be appearing on late Friday night (or Saturday morning, my time, July 10th or 11th), is one of the most popular and listened-to shows in the world. Thus, this offers a special opportunity to reach many people with some of the special information I have received over the years including a message which came to me from my future self in this current lifetime, during the end of 1996 and into the early part of 1997. It was during that time, while visiting the very powerful and high energies throughout Brazil that I spiritually channeled this message. This introduction is to explain what you will be reading about within this document and how I received it.

First, I think it would be appropriate to offer some brief background about myself. This should be helpful for those of you who are not familiar with my spiritual and paranormal based work that I have been engaged in since the early 1980's as an author, public presenter and an investigator into various world mysteries. I hope this will give you a better feel for who I am and why I am being inspired to create this particular document. And I always know when it is time for me to write something new, as when I sit in front of my laptop computer, the words to write are flowing out of me easily and very quickly --so freely that I don't even have to think about what to write, I just hear the words in my mind's thinking voice and type them. And so, here is my story that leads up to some of the key information that I am about to share with you ...

After I graduated from college (the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, IL) in 1977, I started to work professionally as a computer programmer at first and then shortly thereafter became a computer on-site consultant in the Chicago area for a large computer manufacturer. It was during these early days in the late 1970's that I started to experience a mad compulsion that I had to learn more about the spiritual aspect of our existence, or what we called then: metaphysical or new age studies. So I began to attend some local meetings of various spiritually orientated groups and eventually joined one. As I started to learn about these so-called New Age subjects, it awakened that inner part inside me, that is inside of all of us -- our spiritual essence if you will, so by 1980 I just had to quit my 9-5 job and then totally dedicated myself to exploring these paranormal subjects which are linked to the so-called greatest world mysteries of our time.

As I began to understand the true nature of these extraordinary subjects with many "aha" moments, and even had my own personal paranormal-based experiences, I felt that I must share back with others the very best information, insights and knowledge I was learning and collecting. Thus, I felt called to give public talks on a number of subjects as well as a good way to share what I was collecting when then went into writing several books sharing this profound information I had been uncovering. I should note here, that so far all of my books written in English have been self-published except one book I wrote on the crystal skulls during my time living in Europe (2001-2008) and another crystal skull book was translated into Portuguese (1994) by a Brazilian publisher.

Anyway, the first book I published (now out of print) was released in 1982, while I was living in the San Jose, California area, and it was called, "Journeys of an Aquarian Age Networker". I called myself a networker at that time because I was doing a lot of traveling (mostly on faith as I didn't have a solid job) and I was connecting with so many people, recording their activities and information. So this book was my so-called exploits dealing with my travels in the U.S. from 1980-1982 and what amazing information I had come across to describe what we called the birth of the Aquarian Age.

Then, In April of 1983, while continuing my travels on faith, I met my first ancient crystal skull in San Jose, CA; the amethyst crystal skull currently known to crystal skull enthusiasts as "Ami" (which means 'Friend'). Little did I know nor understand at that time that this was to become "Day 1" of what I call becoming a "Crystal Skull Explorer" (I say explorer as I explored these artifacts and again was sharing back the best information I was gathering). Magically, on a bright sunny spring afternoon, while visiting my friend at her metaphysical bookstore in that city; through a picture she had of "Ami" I received a telepathic communication from this skull, which contained a very important inner message for me that forever changed my life. In any case, I became very interested in the crystal skulls after this experience and a few weeks later I met "Ami" (where it was being housed by its owners at an art gallery in San Jose) in person and got to touch this skull with my right hand on the top of its head. I received other messages and visions this day which I reported in two crystal skull books I have helped to write. Moving on then, to the next encounter with these crystalline objects, we go to ...

In the fall of 1985, I met two special individuals living near San Francisco, who were extremely involved with the crystal skulls and through my relationship with both of them had a chance to meet quite a few other crystal skulls. Then in 1989, we combined our resources and energies and self-published a book together entitled "Mysteries of the Crystal Skulls Revealed" (by Bowen, Nocerino and Shapiro) and from then on, I became permanently connected with the crystal skulls. I found myself giving a great deal of my time and energy as I have continued to share over the years (now 37 years to be precise since meeting "Ami") new and key information about these mysteries skulls made from quartz and various gemstones with the general public.

As I turned into a crystal skull author, investigator and speaker, this opened up many doors for me to travel all over the world to offer public events as well as continue to seek out and meet more crystal skulls. You see, I must mention here my involvement with the crystal skulls within this introduction as they play a major role in bringing me into 1996 and 1997 when I received the very important information I will be sharing with you shortly in the main part of this special document.

Next, in 1990, I had an opportunity to move to Las Vegas. During my sister's wedding there in 1989, I met some special people and we decided to create together a non-profit spiritual foundation that would share key information about the New Age and Spirituality as well as continue to do research upon the crystal skulls. Coincidentally, I also met a Hispanic gentleman at the same time who possessed a very old but small crystal skull who was living in Las Vegas. He discovered this skull when he was a teenager living in Mexico. While his teacher and classmates were visiting an ancient Mayan site near where he lived, he was inspired to pick up a stone and underneath were two crystal skulls. The clear one he kept and the other (not sure what type of quartz it was) he gave to a close friend. This so-called Mayan crystal skull had special Mayan symbols carved into the stone for which he understood their meaning.

Further, one of the supervising members of our foundation had contacts with a Hollywood Production company, and it just so happened at this time (1990) I had just created an idea for a new action-adventure movie that would feature a crystal skull within it. Plus, the Hispanic crystal skull owner was open and willing to work with us so it appeared a new movie might be happening in 1991 or 1992. We even had a script written by a member of the Production Company. You could call this a "crystal skull explorer's dream", but unfortunately everything fell apart as we couldn't raise any money for the movie and then we lost track with the Hispanic crystal skull guardian.

Now as I head further into 1991, before I left Las Vegas to move back to Chicago (in time to support my father during his first heart surgery to improve his circulation), two key events took place which are directly linked to where I want to take you for this document. First, while walking down a main street in Las Vegas, where drivers could go 55 mph, a van jumped the curb and struck me from behind. I was in a coma for 3 days in the hospital before I was released. I will explain in my conclusion of this document, why I believe this incident happened to me, as over the years I gained more inner memories of what truly happened to me (or where I was, that is where my soul or living consciousness was) during the period I was unconscious. Then a month later, fortunately I had recovered my health enough (without any major injuries from this accident) as my full physical energy was almost back, so that I was able to fly to Sao Paulo, Brazil to attend a spiritual conference that I was invited to speak at. I did a talk on the Crystal Skulls and another taught on UFOs in front of about 5-10,000 people, with my English being translated into Portuguese. I discovered during this visit that I had a great affinity for Brazil and its people. I became very close to one of the conference helpers as she invited me to stay in her home. We continued to correspond by mail and eventually, Vera was her name, we married by the end of 1991 and she came to live with me in the U.S.

Thus, periodically, I was able to go back with her to visit Brazil and see her family and our spiritual friends (our extended family). I think it was again, in 1994, that we had a Brazilian publisher print a version of my existing crystal book in Portuguese which was well received by the spiritual people living in Brazil.

Now, sometime in the early part of the 1990's, I became aware of one of my spiritual guides. He would talk with me telepathically, and I would feel his (definitely had a masculine energy around him) presence around me all the time. What I had discovered when I had my spiritual awakening in the 1980's in Chicago is that my first spiritual gift is I can feel inside of me, the energy or essence of people I meet, the energies held within a quartz crystal, and if the presence of a so-called "spirit" (an intelligent being existing in another vibrational dimension) is near me. When I sense (or feel) the presence of a "spirit", then I can either interpret by the feelings being projected unto me what is wished to be communicated as I translate the feelings into words or; I can hear them via the voice I hear inside of me when I think or what some call your "thinking voice". Like for example when I am writing this introduction, I am hearing the words to type. Or if I am reading a book, I always hear the words in my mind that I see as I read. If I try to understand the words just by looking at them to get their meaning, it hurts me and gives me a slight headache. Anyway I didn't know who this "spirit" was or why "he" was visiting me, but I could feel him next to me on my right side whenever "he" came.

Then one day, I sensed this spirit and we had the following conversation in my mind (paraphrased):

"Joshua, hello – you are wondering who I am, I am you, yourself speaking to you from your future in this lifetime! I am who you will become one day!"

I said to this spirit, "How is this possible? How can I have a conversation with my future self when our future has not happened yet?"

This spirit said, "Well in truth, as you have heard before, time and space does not truly exist. Everything really happens in the simultaneous NOW – all time periods are happening at the very same time and all in the same place, but from your physical perspective, you could not deal with this, it might drive you crazy. As you know, in your reality, you move through time and see the past as being gone, that you are living in your present which is creating your future. But when you return "home" which is your spiritual home with God or Creator, time and space do not exist there."

Well, as of today here in July of 2020, I now fully realize and have experienced within myself at various moments what this idea of "No Time and No Space" is like (I can only experience such within myself of course), so it makes perfect sense to me. Also it is consistent with the idea of "The Oneness of All Things" which refers to the concept that every particle of every reality and plane of existence within the infinite universe is a piece of Creator – that what gives all life, LIFE – its aliveness and motion – is the "Love of Creator". And finally that through the Infinite and Powerful Mind of our Creator, these thoughts is how all realities, universes and plane of existence manifest forth. But these are subjects to discuss at a later time as I try to move us forward in my story here.

Now, one day I was thinking to myself, what do I call my future self? Is he Joshua, the future me? Then it occurred to me as I was looking at various names or titles I had chosen to call myself over the years, the future name came to me. I would be called "rJis". Here is how this name was derived: I was born Richard Shapiro but when I started opening up to "spirit" in the early 1980's, I kept spontaneously having the name of Joshua come up. For example, I would just spontaneously open up the bible to the Book of Joshua (the Biblical Joshua). So the voice inside of me said to me one day while I was traveling on faith near San Francisco, this is my spiritual name and I should start to call myself Joshua Shapiro. So most of my close friends and extended family today only know me as Joshua. Also an absolute confirmation came to me that this is the right name to use when my father found a book in the library called "Joshua Shapiro". This fictional story was about a Jewish author that eventually was made into a movie called "Joshua Then and Now" (that came out in 1985) where James Woods plays Joshua Shapiro. In the movie when I saw his books proudly displayed in a window of a bookstore I knew this was a sign it would happened to me as well (a future prophecy?) and in a few New Age Books in California they did proudly portray our crystal skull book which came out in 1989.

So the "r" in rJis is for Richard and the "J" (has to be capitalized) is for Joshua, the "s" of course is for Shapiro but where does the "i" come from then?

Well this may sound a little bit egoistic but I came up with this as a sort of fun way to describe my world adventures with the crystal skulls by calling myself at times, "Illinois Shapiro". Sort of like a cousin of Indy (Indiana Jones), since I was born in Chicago, Illinois. I started to use this self-created nickname before there was any announcement at the end of 2007, that in 2008, the fourth installment of the next Indiana Jones' film would be surrounding the discovery of a crystal skull. So when I received this name and my future self confirmed I had it, then I started to call this spirit, my future me, rJis. And in case you want to know how to pronounce it, it is "R-jis" or "ar-jis".

Ok, so at this point in my story I have now shared all the major pieces and the experiences that I had living my life as a crystal skull explorer from the 1980's and 1990's. So now we need to go back to Brazil, when I traveled with Vera to experience their holidays at the end of 1996, to visit our friends and family (even do a few crystal skull talks too). We stayed for about a month as I recall. This was my first time to not see a White snowy cold Christmas by the way (being in the other hemisphere). It was during this time that I am inspired to continue to work on a new and expanded version of the story I was writing that I hoped would eventually become a movie, which was connected to that script I told you about before written in 1991. Although I don't remember what the title was given to the 1991 script, I changed the title in 1996 to the "Crystal Skull Chronicles". Then, in this version, the story begins in 2037 with an individual, as you might guess it, who is called rJis, who is a teacher and story teller for the children of this future time. And he is about to discuss with the children the history and the past events of the human race created the time of peace they are experiencing in 2037, which they call "The New Dawn".

Now I can't remember if during this visit to Brazil or an earlier one, perhaps a year or so before, I sat down with my notebook computer and wrote about this vision of our future in 2037. All I know when I reread it, it doesn't sound like the Joshua now so it had to be rJis writing through me. He was discussing what our world WILL be like at the time as he was speaking to me telepathically. Anyway, I felt inspired for this new version of this story (movie) that I wanted to build on top of the original story from 1991, and that I had to bring rJis into the story. Therefore, it was very important for the readers of "Crystal Skull Chronicles" that they understood what life was like in this future time too. Also, if you ever get a chance to read the current state of this story, which we have a full script and the novelization of, you would learn the process of events which happened in our story linked to a special set of 13 crystal skulls that become a key catalyst for a true Golden Age to take place in our world.

Anyway, there have been a few times when I am in a location where there is a very high spiritual energy there that I will go unconscious and then some intelligence will come through me, to speak or to write. So that such a thing would happen in Brazil makes sense as in this country they have these spiritual healers who don't use any medical instruments to cure people of all kinds of diseases or physical ailments. On another occasion I recall while I was offering my intuitive consultations at a spiritual center in England (maybe it close to the areas where the crop circles show up or one of the stone circles) I felt myself fall asleep or lose consciousness yet my client said I talked with her. I am only share these ideas here, so you see it is possible rJis exist and did write what you will be reading within this document then.

For those of my readers who are spiritual seekers or you have had your own special awakening experiences, you understand there is a higher aspect or consciousness to our being. This is our birthright which some call it our higher-self, or the oversoul, or even the Christ Consciousness. However, it is commonly believed within spiritual circles that definitely, we each have this piece of Creator inside of us even if we are not fully conscious of such.

So, since I couldn't find anywhere the original text of what I wrote from rJis on any of my computers or storage devices, I will have to share a portion of the story I was inspired to start to write in 1996 called "Crystal Skull Chronicles" where the fictional rJis talks about what his world is like in 2037. Then if you want to read the rest of this story (it was not completed fully) that is available on-line on my very first personal website, called V J Enterprises (established in 1991 when the internet was beginning to go everywhere), I will include that link at the end of the next section for you.

In addition, if any of you may want to read more about rJis or what other insights he has shared with me I have some other materials you can read. One thing I need to mention though is that rJis, after all, he can't tell me how we go from here in 2020 during this time of this so-called massive pandemic (with our world on the verge of going totally crazy and going into some new form of living on Earth), until we arrive in 2037. He has clearly stated to me by this time we will have experienced a complete and full planetary transformation into a Golden Age of Peace and Light that then is fully finished by 2040. Therefore, he can't tell me how this all will happen or what happens to me in particular during the years in-between where I am and he is otherwise I could not become him. You could call this a kind of time paradox if you will.

Anyway, since the late 1990's, he has appeared in two other written works I would like to mention. First in 2004, I met another scriptwriter from Australia and a retired movie director and we created six versions of a new movie script over a seven year period which is now called "Crystal Skull Chronicles: Time of Unity, Movie 1 of 3 – a trilogy". Then in 2014 I began to work with a good friend, who also is interested in Crystal Skulls and UFOs, and was a novelist so that by 2016 we had created together a new expanded version, a full novelization of the movie. This novel has yet to be published but in the conclusion I will discuss how you can get a copy of this new book, if you are curious as I feel it is time to release the e-book version. Rjis once again shows up in the novel as the future self and spirit guide for one of our main characters.

Lastly, I wish to say that my true goal in sharing the words of rJis, of this possible positive and peaceful future is to be an inspiration for the readers that all is not hopeless in the world of 2020 and that all of these crazy changes we are currently going through will ultimately serve as a powerful catalyst that is going to bring us into a true Golden Age, which our world has seen in times past according to various ancient legends.

So you will each have to decide for yourself, if you think I have totally lost it or this idea that it is possible to have a communication from one's future self is not pure fantasy, that it can and is happening to many people, all the time. What I can tell you is that if rJis is real, he would be a true reflection of who I am. As once again, just as I have done for many years now where I have used all known methods, means and advanced systems and devices to constantly share the very best information I uncover with others, I would once again be trying to find a way from our future to send back the good news. This is my whole motivation for why I write all of my books and do my public talks live or on-line. So it wouldn't surprise me at all, if I was watching such a wonderful, joyful and harmonious future happening around me, that I, being the true Aries I am, would come up with some way to communicate all of this back to my past self. I have had some memories of other past lifetimes I have lived on the Earth and with each one I do recall, it seems to give me insights and knowledge to support the spiritual works and projects that I am involved in, in this lifetime. So why couldn't it work the other way around as well. I once heard my inner voice say, "Anything you can imagine in your mind, you can only image it if it is happening already somewhere in Creator's Infinite Universe."

So without further adieu, I give you the beginning of the first official version of my story (or maybe this is a memory of a scenario which will or has happened on a parallel Earth) which was entitled "Crystal Skull Chronicles" as I shared it on the V J Enterprises website in 1997 ... enjoy ... and see if this sounds like what our future could be like for you?

Update 2023 – Almost three years have passed since I originally created this e-book which essentially you will find within a sharing of two key inner, spiritually based experiences which have shown me humanity's future and how I know absolutely we will see a positive future that will complete itself somewhere between 2037-2040 (note: earlier in this introduction I spoke about my coma experience and the other information which is linked to rJis is following). However, there are some new personal activities and events which took place between 2020 and 2023 that I feel inspired to discuss and add to this e-book.

In 2018, during a meeting with two special friends in the Atlanta area, the idea for creating a new spiritual center came up, which we called it, "The Center for the Advancement of Humanity". Not until 2022 however, was any actions taken to begin to create this Center, but in the spring of that year, "Spirit" or what I know refer to as "The Voice" (the voice I hear in my mind's voice which is usually speaking to me most of the time), asked me to energetically setup this Center and create a presence for it on the internet, which did take place. Thus, I am updating the Contact and Resource section at the end of this e-book. Thus, this becomes the 2023 edition of "Messages from rJis". So if you want to know more about our Center you will find the information at the back of this e-book.

Besides that we moved in 2023 from Georgia to Florida, the other key activities I have been doing over this 3 year period is writing more free e-books (listed in the back); setting up three Rumble Video Channels which contain a ton of information (see the new on-line resource section) and for the Center, I have started a new video series called "2023: The Year the Full Truth begins to be Revealed" which provides the clues and evidence I have uncovered on-line that shows us that Big Reveals (or "Truth Bombs") are definitely going to come out before the end of 2023. This series was initiated by an inner message I received from "The Voice" in late January of this year which then I felt called to make this video series.

But actually first, I started sharing this information on Facebook in late January (2023) via a series of post on my personal page which comprised of two sections or Parts. Part 1 discussed that the so-called official sources (controlled by the elite or cabal) have basically hidden from us our true history. Then in Part 2, I did a comparison of the HeliCenter Model of our Earth (the Earth is a globe and revolves around the Sun) vs. the GeoCentric Model (that the Earth is a flat non-rotating circular disc with a Dome over us). Just recently, which is relative to my updating this e-book BTW, I took all these posts and made them into a free e-book, which again you will find a link for it in the back. Actually the video series I spoke of before is Part 3 of the Facebook posts but this information within the current e-book won't show up in the video series until Segment 3.

To finish here, I just want to add a some thoughts and words of wisdom on June 13th, 2023, as I am typing this addendum to the Introduction as we are all waiting to hear what happens to President Trump (in a few hours) who has been indicted and is going to a court in Miami. Since 2020, for those people who are awake and have the eyes to see what's going on in our world, there is no doubt that there is an undeclared war on consciousness taking place. In the video series I have done about the Truths coming out in 2023, I discuss this war a bit and how I know from what I have seen of our Future, the "Light" not only totally wins (or as they say on Telegram -- the best place to read about what is really happening in our world at this time) but "God Wins". Plus, I believe on this date of June 13th the "Light" has already won this war even though outwardly we still have great chaos still taking place (or it's just a movie). But one thing is for sure, the dark (the elite, the cabal) are totally and openly showing their hand with covid, the vaccines, a strong focus for children to change their sex (transgender), focusing on the Pride of being Gay (which has nothing to do with who an individual chooses to love but the elite are using it for birth control, to decrease our population) or what they just had, Pride Month (notice the word hidden there).

So all I can recommend, as a fellow human being, who has watched these crazy activities happening all around us, is to live one day at a time, not give your power away and learn how to say "NO" if something morally doesn't resonate for you (there is a secret law about this I discuss in the video series) and don't give in to fear and panic. The elite feed off of these energies and they don't want you to fight against the actions they want you to take. There is one other suggestion that "The Voice" gave me a while back, which I will finish this 2023 update with so you can go on to read the rest of this e-book, which I think you will find quite fascinating.

From a spiritual perspective, at least for those of us on our own personal spiritual path and journey, we know our thoughts, our consciousness, what we believe creates the reality around us. That as each us as we are a Divine Child of Creator; we are each quite powerful in our own way. So if you understand this highest of high Truths then, here is the suggestion of "The Voice", a simply exercise we can each do.

So earlier in this document, I spoke about that we are definitely headed to a future Earth of total peace and harmony in the near future, right? Well what if you were to do a meditation, say for 5 or 10 minutes in the morning, before you go out and do your daily activities and then the same in the evening before you go to sleep. And for this specific meditation, your goal is to visualize in your mind, as clearly as you can, what would our world look like, if we already were living in this time of peace which some have called a "Golden Age". In other words, everyone was happy and free to pursue their life how they wished. No wars, no conflicts, no hunger at all. We would all be living in Paradise. During your meditations just imagine how this would be like for you?

And then, and then, "The Voice" said, well one morning you will wake up in your bed, and you start looking around and you notice that YOU ARE NOW, IN THAT MOMENT, LIVING IN EXACTLY THE WORLD YOU HAD VISUALIZED – wouldn't this be amazing? OK then, this is Joshua signing off – hope you enjoy this e-book but more importantly if you found it had some information, was inspiring or valuable for you, PLEASE FEEL FREE TO SHARE IT WITH OTHERS, OK?

God Bless, in Peace and Light always

(Notes from Joshua 2020 – before I share the materials from this story, I wish to explain a few things related to it so you, my reader, won't be confused. I am only sharing two parts from this story within this document. In Part I, this is where rJis is introduced and explains what life is like in 2037. In his version of the future they call it "The New Dawn" and the assumption is made that on December 21st, 2012 our world shifted vibrationally and we went into a state of total peace and harmony as we came into full alignment of our spiritual inner essence. When a people living in any world have fully embraced their spiritual being, this leads to a more complete understanding of the true nature of the universe and what the God Spark is all about that resides inside of everything and everyone. Therefore, a very peaceful world will always result.

Next, I have also included Part III so you get to meet the main characters in this story. The story itself mainly focuses upon the year 2012 (since I wrote this in 1997, I had assumed in 15 years our world would see many positive transformations. Plus, we had the Mayan Prophecy being talked about so much back then, where their calendar ended on this date and then the next Age would start) when a crystal skull is discovered in Guatemala as the world is going crazy with all kind of strange weather patterns with some very intense human interactions resulting in a great deal of violence. Then, eventually, this crystal skull is reunited with twelve others so that their collective energies then transform the vibrational frequency of our planet which acts as a catalyst to take us into what some call the 5D (dimensional) energies or vibrational state and this brings us into a time of total peace.

Now, this version of “Crystal Skull Chronicles” was my first attempt at writing this story by myself. As the introduction states, a new version was started in 2004 as a movie script and then by 2016 we finished the novelization of the movie script. In the conclusion of this document is more details how you can get a copy of these various versions if you are so inspired ... So thank you for your interest to read this material and feel free to contact me (contact information is also shown after the conclusion if you have any feedback or questions – Joshua Shapiro)

PS – I have decided not to edit the material written in 1997 so you can read the original version that was written at that time ...

PART I – THE NEW DAWN

(The following information was transcribed from a data crystal recorded on April 17th, 2037 -- The 25th year of the New Dawn)

Greetings to the viewer of these chronicles, as I am calling them. My name is rJis and I am your guide and host ... I am 82 years old and live in the part of the New Earth that was once called Brazil (in the city of Alto Paraiso {which means High Paradise in the old tongue of Portuguese}). As in many places today, the old names of the cities are maintained but without a country designation. Today is my birthday and of course I expect the traditional celebration later this evening with family and friends. I am a citizen of the United Earth, a time of absolute peace and harmony on our planet. I am here to share with you, my brothers and sisters, the incredible story of the transformational shift of our world moved into during an era of where finally, the people and all living beings on the New Earth are living in joy and absolute contentment.

I am recording this data crystal using a simple technology we possess which automatically records my thoughts directly into the crystal. We obtained this technology from our friends from other worlds, but I will discuss all of this later. I can not explain exactly why I am doing this recording. Perhaps it is just for posterity or to ensure that the remarkable events that occurred at the end of what used to be called the 20th century and then moving into the early 21st century are not forgotten. Excuse me for using these terms from our former time ... but you see I was a witness to such matters, which is why I can clearly record these details now.

Truthfully however, this recording is a compilation of various talks I have given to the young children of this Era ... as this is one of my favorite things to do. I sense that even though our world does not share the conflicts and challenges of the 20th century, it is vital that our children understand the story of how our world came to be as it is. And of course, by not forgetting our history, it is my hope and desire that humanity should never repeat some of the mistakes of our past. As a result of the powerful events of the Time of Transformation, we live in a world of total cooperation and harmony which includes at the cornerstone the philosophy of life that our true essence is "spirit". We do know from our special sensitives who can read the akashic records (the dimensional records of the New Earth's history) as easily as a person can read a computerized book, that the Earth has gone through past Golden Ages of Peace only to fall into a time of sleeping and ignorance.

But first, let me begin by describing how the world of 2037 is. We no longer have any countries, hunger, greed and none of our citizens are in need or lack any of the basic needs to live comfortably. To our children these aspects of the Pre-Dawn times are completely foreign. Since we do not use any form of money or currency --- all products and services are offered freely. The famous 20th century musician composer, John Lennon, was truly having a vision of this time (his future) as is described in his song "Imagine", which is still sung even today. I use the year 2037 in the beginning of this narrative so that for those who view this account*, they can better understand how past events relate to today which we refer to as the 25th year of the New Dawn.

(* -- Editors Note: A data crystal recording is a visual and audio presentation and also can include 3 dimensional aspects similar to the VRML that is being implemented on the Web on the Internet.)

What else can I share with you? Well, today people just use one name. This name is in alignment with the essence of their soul and the sound and pronunciation of the name is a way to express this essence in physical earthly terms. All the people of our world live together as if we are one family with all the adults acting as parents to all the children. There is no longer a struggle for survival, which is one of the reasons why the concept of the immediate family was developed in Earth's past. If we could define how the family of 2037 exists, it would be based more on people living in the same city or community, and of course each person has a choice to decide which community is right for them. Our communities or cities are normally based upon a theme such as communities for artists, technicians or spiritual philosophers. I recall in the Pre-Dawn days each city was filled with a random grouping of people with no discernible common theme to connect them. The people in our communities live and work together and usually host at least once or twice a week what we call "Celebrations of Life", that gives the citizens of the community a chance to commune and joyously share with their other people there.

Thus, such concepts of jealousy and ownership are unheard of. As all of our children are our love and joy, we all feel a responsibility to help and support each one as no child is more special than another. If a child comes through a natural mother or father, the actual parents initially help this child come into the world but these small dear ones receive total support from their community for their spiritual growth and education. Thus no child ever feels alone or abandoned. The world of 2037 is filled with a joy that just can not be described in words ... a feeling of tremendous belonging and oneness. A person can only know such a feeling by living this experience.

We have contact with the people who live in the Inner Earth (Editors Note: Please see our pages about the hollow earth at: <http://www.vjenterprises.com/holearth.html>) as well as Galactic Beings from other worlds. The New Earth is now a member of a Federation of many planets, we were accepted into this Federation in 2017 a few years after our world completely shifted its frequency to more of what we call a 5th dimensional consciousness. After the Time of Transformation was completed, the off-world visitors were welcomed as friends and were invited to walk amongst us without any fear what-so-ever by all people on the New Earth. After this contact, we discovered that many of our new brothers from the Stars had been watching us silently for many years, constantly sending us positive energies during our challenge times as we moved into the 21st century. We are very grateful for this non-interfering assistance. Now, many people work with our Space Friends who have also become our teachers. (Although they tell us that our world is unique in many ways and that they are learning things from us!!!).

Each citizen of the New Earth offers to our world and their local communities exactly what they love to do. Thus our citizens happily offer these services which are not thought of as work but as a sacred trust. On most days, it is not uncommon to see people singing or dancing in our streets with almost daily celebrations (or parties) with friends and family in the evenings ... People generally do not go to bed till late hours in the evening or in the early morning as they stay outside talking and sharing with each other. Time has no meaning to us .. there are no schedules to be met yet each person intuitively knows when their tasks must be completed. Our small communities all over the world are interconnected to each other via our various forms of communications devices. We are able to travel quickly throughout the world using extremely fast transport aerial ships and we are told within the next two years, we will have teleportation machines for almost instantly traveling to anywhere on the New Earth. We still have various communities who have chosen to honor and live the way of their ancestors in the 20th century, keeping the traditions of the old cultures (Editors Note: Such as a Japanese or French orientated city, one city even has an old Western Cowboy look ... sounds interesting ...?). We also have special centers where our citizens can learn about the member worlds of the Federation of planets that the New Earth belongs to.

Thus, through the combination of our wonderful technologies and the loving vibration surrounding our world, all physical needs of each citizen of the United Earth is taken care of A great deal of what we are living is very much in alignment with dramatizations that were given in the 20th century via the numerous number of science fiction (no longer) media productions and books (Editor's Note: Like Star Trek). By using our technology in harmony with the natural forces of Mother Earth, we are able to live a comfortable and peaceful life. Although it seems there are no challenges (as compared to the Pre-Dawn days) in our lives, this is not entirely true as we have more time to take inner explorations of the universe to become more consciously aware of the Creator and the consciousness of all living beings. Many people use their free time to learn more about the many wonders of the cosmos especially from insights given by our cosmic friends from the Stars. People can desire if they wish to live their lives on the New Earth or to travel to the Stars and learn about the incredible diversity between alien world and cultures.

Our homes are very simply constructed using some of the new light materials given to us by our Space Friends taking on a domed shape or beautifully carved from pure absolute clear quartz crystal. The inside of our homes are designed to not only be simple in form and attractive but the geometry's of the home provide a healing and uplifting energy. We use specific combinations of colors in our rooms in combination with music. For over 20 years now, in coordination with this home design, we have been using color and sound therapies to help heal people of any type of illness or pain (which is not too frequently now). We even have flying crystal cities (which has just been incorporated recently and is pretty fascinating for us) which use a form of anti-gravity beams to hold the city in the sky. Temperature is moderated all over the planet to always be pleasant (never too cold or too warm) again using a simple form of weather control technology. Yes indeed, the people of the planet Earth have finally been able to create a Paradise which is absolutely amazing. When I think back to the events of the past several hundred some years, it is truly a remarkable story of how quickly our world changed from one of great challenges and conflict to one of total peace and calm. I can scarcely believe it myself.

What is a typical day like for us? For example, upon waking up this morning in my home, when I look outside my bedroom window, I am greeted by a beautiful scenic view of a green field and trees. No matter where one goes on the New Earth, you can feel a powerful invigorating energy of joy around you as well as always being surrounded by the beauty of nature. We have also developed our inner sensitivities so we can sense the feelings of others as well as some people have the ability to telepathically communicate with others. We have finally adopted a common language which all people on the New Earth speak (although some of us are nostalgic and will speak the old language of the Pre-Dawn days). When the Mother Earth shifted its vibration into this higher octave, many of the so-called psychic or spiritual gifts that only a few people demonstrated in the prior century, are now common place for us. We do not always need to speak words to communicate with each other. We also do not eat any type of meat (red meat, fowl or fish) ... but are complete vegetarians. Some of our citizens who are able to enter deep levels of meditation require no food at all, as they have trained themselves to absorb the life force that is always around us.

Even though our life is wonderful and peaceful, we still continue to share the many lessons we learned from the Pre-Dawn years with our children. Since we have access to the akashic records, we are able to use special devices which permits us to experiences the lives of people who have lived before which provides incredible insights into the history of humanity. I recall very clearly the lessons learned in these Pre-Dawn time. We had many prophecies and different viewpoints of what was ahead of us. But we quickly learned not to allow our fear of change to control us but rather to trust in ourselves by working with our own inner gifts and intuitions in addition to helping each other. We understood completely that all people (or souls) who had incarnated onto the earth at that time, choose to do so for the incredible period of spiritual growth.

I would like to use this introduction to not only share a bit about myself and the world of 2037 but also to discuss some of the key participants in helping to moving planet Earth into the New Dawn. The saga I am about to tell has it's focus through a specific period of time that includes the years 1996-2013 (of the old time calendar) which we call the Time of Transformation. However we will have to move a bit in time to get many aspects of this time-period in proper perspective. In addition, the main people who were involved with our story were mysterious and magically brought together surrounding an interesting chain of events connected with the sacred artifacts known as the crystal skulls. If you are unfamiliar with a crystal skull what I am referring to is a human type skull that is made from various type of quartz crystals. These so-called ancient Crystal Skulls began to be uncovered in various ancient ruins in the areas known as the Americas in the late 19th century and parts of the 20th century. These objects were one of the key activators for helping to raising individuals' consciousness and prepare for the New Dawn. There was a great struggle over control of these ancient power tools but fortunately in the end were used to help humanity.

So I welcome you the viewer to this tale ... Thank you for your kind attention. And now if I may, it is my honor and pleasure to briefly introduce some of the main historic people who played a significant role in the bursting forth of the New Dawn ...

PART III – And the Stars Are ...

(April 17th, 2037 – Continuation of the Data Crystal The Key Players of the CS Chronicles -- Book 1 only)

(Note from rJis: In order to understand our story, let me first give to you some background about the key individuals who helped to shape the New Dawn. This description will include key aspects of each person up to the beginning of our story on December 17th, 1996)

(Professor) Harry Nielson: A famous and well recognized professor in the 20th century specializing in the area of Ancient History and Civilizations with more of an emphasis upon the Mayan Culture. The professor taught in Yale University on the East Coast of what was once called the United States of America. The Professor wrote several successful books about the Maya based on his intensive research and excavations he participated with at various key Maya ruins and digs in the areas known as Mexico and parts of Central America. During his almost twenty five years of travels throughout the Mayan regions, the local natives would speak about a mysterious object, a human shaped skull made of quartz crystal or as we know of it today, a crystal skull. The first time he encountered the legend of the crystal skull was in 1955. For some unknown reason, Professor Nielson became totally fascinated with this subject, and began to spend many days during his expeditions to these regions, speaking to the natives to try to determine the history of this artifact, whether it really existed and where it might be hidden.

In 1994, as he was starting to get quite old (72 years of age) and having numerous ailments and physical problems people of this age experienced in the Pre-Dawn times, he decided that he would make one last trip in the mysterious land of the Maya to look for the crystal skull before he could not go back again. Based on all the clues and information he had collected about the crystal skull over the years and from studying many Mayan glyphs, he determined that in Guatemala (part of the Central America region, where some of the most magnificent Mayan structures remain) would be the best place to find this sacred artifact. He was determined, if there was nothing else he would accomplish in his life, it would be to find this legendary object. He knew from various Mayan documents he had translated that were in his possession, that there existed a new codex (name of a set of Mayan documents that give the history of these people as well as discuss rules and spiritual and religious practices) in this region that if he could find it, it could lead him to this ancient treasure.

Shortly after Professor Nielson arrived in Guatemala, neither his daughter Jamie, nor his wife, ever heard from him again. It appeared as if he had just disappeared from the face of the Earth. All Jamie and her mother had received from the Professor was a postcard saying he had arrived safely. After a few weeks had passed, Jamie contacted the local authorities in Guatemala who made an attempt to search for him, but they came up with no clues. Therefore, Jamie and her mother both feared that he may have been killed possibly by local bandits or perhaps met an unfortunate accident due to the hazards and rigors of this region of which a man his age was ill-prepared to deal with. His daughter was heartbroken as he had been very close to her and her friends could see that part of Jamie seemed to be distant and cold.

Jamie Nielson ==> Jamie is a free spirit who loves adventure and living on the edge. At the beginning of our tale, she is 35 years old, has been married once, but her husband could not deal with her fiery energy, love of life and desire to always want to be on the move. Jamie was born in California and she came from a well-to-do academic family. As previously mentioned, her father Professor Harry Nielson was a renown expert on the Mayans based on his numerous expeditions into these mystical lands. Thus, we can see that Jamie received a rich education and fell in love with traveling primarily due to some of the expeditions she would accompany her father when she was younger. Jamie believes that anything she sets her mind to, she will be successful. Jamie is at present one of the most successful journalist for a local paper in New York City (part of what was known as the state of New York) and is always eager to go after the hottest new stories, especially if they involve some danger.

Around the age of fourteen, she began to have a series of dreams and strange experiences which led her to study many of the world's religions and cultures, trying to understand her place in the universe. As she began to open up to her spirituality, money and material possession became less important and understanding universal truth and helping to create a world of peace and harmony became more important. Jamie always loved animals and a quiet vacation for her was being in nature. Her interest in quartz crystals began when her father gave her a birthday present of a mysterious crystal he found in one of the Mayan ruins. She still has the crystal and at times, wears it on a chain around her neck. Especially at the beginning of our story, this crystal represents an important link for her to the essence of her father, who she secretly hopes and prays is still alive somehow in Central America.

As our story begins, we find Jamie at a major crossroads in her life. Life is a bit boring for her at the moment. For many years now, Jamie has had a powerful inner feeling that she has something important to do or a contribution to make to the world. Even though many people admire her and wish they could live a life such as she; she feels as if she hasn't accomplished very much in her young life. Another aspect of her life she feels is missing is to really find that special person to love and share a dynamic relationship with. However, finding that right person, a man who is as strong willed and likes challenges as much as she does, has been very difficult.

Michael Richardson ==> Michael was born in Chicago and at the beginning of our story is 41 years of age. Michael is a born explorer but considers himself more of a researcher, lecturer and author. He started his professional career as a computer programmer, however at the age of 28, he began writing a series of articles based on various parts of the world he had traveled to on his vacations. Michael is totally fascinated by the diversity of cultures and people in our world and if he had the time, he would try to visit and experience every country on the face of the Earth. From 1983-1986, he submitted several of his travel articles to different magazines and journals and periodically some of them would actually be printed. At the end of 1986, he sent a piece about his journey to Tibet, to a magazine in New York City, where he was living at the time. Michael had always had a strong pull to visit this country and became totally enchanted with the land and its people. He also had a strange experience during his journey, a Tibetan Monk told his interpreter that he was a chosen one and seemed to want to introduce him to the head Lamas in the area. Michael couldn't quite understand what all the fuss was but he did feel as if Tibet was very familiar to him even though he had never traveled there before. This trip to Tibet was kind of a turning point in Michael's life.

In any case, the New York Magazine loved his article about Tibet very much and published it in February of 1987. The article received so many letters from the readers that the magazine decided to hire Michael as a staff writer, which was perfect timing for Michael as he was getting a bit bored just doing computer programming. This new job gave him the opportunity to continue to travel throughout the world, to many other exotic places such as Peru, Central America, Egypt, Israel, etc He started to become totally fascinated by all the incredible mysteries and ancient ruins he encountered along the way on these journeys (the pyramid and sphinx in Egypt, the Mayan Pyramids, etc ...), so much so that he developed a insatiable passion to find some answers to understand these wonders. To quote Michael: “How can I go on in my life when there are so many incredible mysterious in our world that must have an answer? I can hardly sit by and ignore this as I intuitively feel these mysteries have a message for mankind that could literally change our world for the better ... I must find out what this message is”

Being a technically literate person, Michael utilized his computer to document and record information about each place he visited. In addition, he would access many of the Online Computer Databases commercially available at this time as well as such as the service known as the Internet (a global network of computers that were linked together at this time – similar to our global knowledge bank, the pre-cursor to our system) to pursue additional insights about these ancient cultures and sites. He developed friendships with many experts in many fields and received thousands of electronic mail from all over the world. Beginning in 1993, he received an invitation from a Book Publisher in New York City (who had fallen in love with Michael’s articles about his adventures) to write a book about all the different World Mysteries he had encountered in his journeys as well as share any theories and conclusions he had developed to explain their existence and purpose. Because of the wealth of information he had collected so far, it was just a matter of organizing his various computer files including his personal experiences from his journals and in almost no time, he had a completed book. This Publisher knew from Michael’s writing style and popularity that Michael could write a great book and made him an offer he couldn't refuse including a generous advance.

The Book was published in 1994 and was a smash hit, sitting on top of the New York Best Sellers list for 37 weeks. As a result of the success of Michael's first book, he was able to become a full time writer and speaker. This change in his financial position enabled him to travel a great deal more and continue his research to uncover some answer about these mysterious ancient civilizations. His lecture tours were offered to packed audiences who were totally fascinated with his adventures. One of the factors that helped Michael immensely to prepare for his travels into many isolated and un-populated regions was the military training he received as a young man. He volunteered at 18 to join the army and received a chance to not only to earn his degree in Computer Science through this service but learned many survival skills that he used extensively (even getting him out of some tough and dangerous situations) on his journeys. Even though he was not happy about the four years he spent in the military, since he was a person who was very committed to non-aggression and peace, this military training helped him to improve his body strength and stamina and prepared him for living in the wilderness without many supplies.

In 1994, during an exploration of Guatemala, Michael heard about the legends of an ancient artifact that the natives called a head of crystal or a crystal skull. This crystal skull was described as being human sized and shaped and was made from a clear quartz crystal. It also was rumored to have some special symbols carved into the quartz itself. Although he found this legend interest, it really did not catch his fancy although he did include the legend in his second book, "Journeys of a Modern Explorer, Book II" (published in 1995). Michael was one lucky fellow as once again, his second book was a best seller, outselling his first book handily. As a result of the success of his two books, Hollywood was considering to make a movie based on some of his exploits, portraying him as a modern Indiana Jones (Editor's Note: Indiana Jones was a popular explorer figure who was portrayed in a series of movies in the late twenty century .. he was a professor turned archaeologist - explorer).

Another aspect to Michael's personally was his desire to work cooperatively with scientists and archaeologists in a concrete way to help him unravel the many mysteries left by these ancient civilizations. His first and foremost goal was to determine by what means the ancients were able to build some of the most remarkable structures known to the world (purportedly without any modern machines). Next he felt it was vital to determine the meaning and purpose of various mysteries artifacts discovered in these incredible cities (the ruins) that had been left behind. Actually his best friend, Joshua Conde, a physicist who was also quite intrigued by Michael's adventures and curious about these mysteries, helped Michael on numerous occasions with some of the research for both of his books. Michael knew Joshua when they were growing up in Chicago and stayed close friends since that time. Thus, since Michael was a very logical and analytical person, he felt he would need the best conventional scientific and archaeological approaches using empirical data to discover some answers to these ancient puzzles. A big turning point comes into Michael's life as he becomes involved with the crystal skull in this story. (Note from rJis: I shall say no more and allow the viewer to discover this last point for themselves)

(Tibetan Lama) Rinpoche Kewtsang Dipo ==> Kewtsang Dipo was a Tibetan Lama, who from 1989 - 1997 was the head of a Tibetan monastery in New York City. He had earned this right by hard work and devotion and was considered one of the best teachers of Tibetan Meditation. Kewtsang Dipo was born in Tibet in 1938 ... before the Chinese invaded Tibet. When he was young, he entered the Buddhist Order at the age of six, upon the insistence of his father, who also was a respected Lama. When he was in his teens, living in the city of Lhasa in 1955, he was doing a meditation in a special chamber provided for the monks and lamas. He was alone in this room (which is unusual as the meditation room is always in use) and as usual, there were many lit candles as well as the heavy swirl and smell of incense. This room has a unique artifact that is present, which is what we know today as a black mirror that the monks and lamas use during their meditation. When a person stares upon this mirror and gazes sharply inside of it, they can begin to see visions. There are numerous legends of such mirrors existing in the past including the possibly these mirrors were left by the Atlantean magi. Also we believe that it is such a device which Nostradamous used to see his visions and prophecies. This particular magic or black mirror was discovered by a monk, who was wandering in the caves underneath the monastery. It is said that if one knows the proper route, they can travel through the caves, deep into the earth and reach the magic underground city known as Shambala. Shambala is told in the Tibetan Legend as the home of a very tall race of people who at certain times have come to the surface of the earth to teach the Tibetan people.

Returning to Kewtsang's meditation and experience with this special mirror: As Kewtsang relaxes and gazes deeply in the mirror he is surprised to see a vision quite clearly of the face of man he has never met. He is totally surprised because this face is not that of an oriental person but a face of a person from the West, a white male ... and he hears a voice inside of him say, "This person is very important to your destiny!!! He is connected to the sacred Tibetan Prophecy, which shall bring the return of the 'Green Jewel'." This vision was so powerful and real that Kewtsang never forgot this man's face and from that moment was attentive to meeting him in the future

When the Chinese began to put more pressure upon the Tibetans, which forced the Dalai Lama to leave Tibet, Kewtsang followed his religious leader to India in 1959. In 1982, he felt inspired to leave for the Tibetan Monastery in New York, to be a teacher in the West, with an inner hope that perhaps one day, he would see the face of the man he saw in his vision over 25 years ago. By the time he left for New York he had earned the title of Rinpoche (a respected teacher) and thus from his long years of dedicated work he was given the head master position of the Monastery there. He was loved by his disciplines and spread the Buddhist Teachings of Tibet numerous regions of the United States. His monastery was honored by a visit of his old teacher, the Dalai Lama in 1993. The only thing that Kewtsang felt he must do is to become familiar with the ways of the West. He learned how to read and speak English and read many books about history and philosophy.

(Peruvian Amyrian Shaman) Felipe Pumakawa Tupayachi ==>

Felippe is an Peruvian Amyrian Shaman and Teacher. He was born in the Andes Mountains in Peru, in a very poor village and became a student of the holy men who lived in these mountains. From the environment he grew up, he gained a reverence for the Earth (the Pacha Mama) which helped him to open to his natural spiritual gifts as a teacher and a healer. Through the ancient teachers of the Andes, he learned many of the sacred Inca teachings and mysteries. One day, his teacher, an elderly man in his late seventies, shared with him about the prophecy of the Inca. This prophecy basically states, that when the Condor of the South meets the Eagle of the North, a new time of peace and enlightenment will come. Felipe took this prophecy to heart and in 1987, begin to travel by foot, throughout various parts of Peru, to share with the people, especially many of the native Indian tribes who are quite isolated, about the spiritual traditions of the Inca. The priesthood, of which he was a member, took it as a sacred trust to continue to teach these traditions so that the people would never lose them.

Felippe felt that in order for him to be a pure messenger of spirit, he must dedicate himself towards the balancing of the ego. Thus in his teaching and approach to life he was a very gentle and soft-spoken person.

Felippe trained himself to be able to go very deep in meditation and be able to communicate very clearly with the spirits. Felippe was known to have powerful visions about future events and spiritual insights, which could happen at any time. While traveling to educate the people in the north part of Peru, more of a mountainous jungle region, he began to hear the legend of a sacred stone, which was described as a crystal oracle. Trusting his intuition implicitly, he knew that he must pay attention to this legend, as he felt this crystal oracle was a powerful tool that could help many.

In 1994, the elders in the Andes asked for Felippe to travel to the United States, to continue to share with the people of the North the Inca sacred traditions and to make contact with the people of the Eagle, the Native Americans. Eventually, during one of his visits to Lima, he was introduced to an individual from the United States, who was interested in organizing tours for Americans to Peru and was looking for a guide. Felippe accepted to work with this American and knew that through him, he would have an opportunity to fulfill his spiritual quest to travel to North America. The American was looking specifically for a tour guide who could teach the spiritual significance of the spiritual ruins in Peru as well as the Inca philosophy. This American was very impressed with the knowledge and insights that Felippe possessed and also felt it was important to bring Felippe to the United States so possible passengers could meet him and Felippe could present more of what Peru is about. So, Felippe thanked Pachamac ("The Creator") for his fortune, as this provided him the way to travel to the United States to do his spiritual work since he did not have the money to pay for an airline ticket. Felippe traveled throughout the U.S. during 1995-1996 and during a visit to the Arizona area, he had a very powerful connection with a family of Hopis where they discussed the Hopi & Inca Prophecies. This family of Hopi, recognized a long lost brother in the spirit of Felippe and he became a member of their extended family.

Jacob Schwartz: Jacob is an a Jewish American, 32 years of age (in 1996) who at this time in his life is finding himself jumping from job to job as he tried hard to figured out exactly what he wants to do. His family wanted him to become a Rabbi, as this has been a dream of the Schwartz family for over 100 years. In appearance, Jacob has the typical Jewish dark curly hair and a beard. His family were quite encouraged when Jacob was younger because he had a strong interest in the religious philosophies of Judaism that he was learning in Hebrew School. But as Jacob got older he drifted away from his upbringing and started exploring spiritual and New Age studies during his twenties. After graduating from college, to the horror of his parents, with very little money in his pocket, he took off for California (1988, almost on total “faith”) because of a reading he had with a psychic, suggesting that his destiny lay in California, that it would be a good place to find himself and be with kindred souls. The psychic also told him that he would become publicly known in the future but was vague how such an incredible thing could happen. So he dismissed this part of her reading as one of the things he hates to do is draw attention to himself. His main reason for going to California was to learn more about the New Age Movement (the state of California was rumored to be the best place to learn about anything connected with this movement as well as a great place for some incredible spiritual experiences (Editors Note: – the geological fault-line in the state of California was known for setting up small energy vortexes that permitted access to etheric energy levels for creativity) as well as contact with UFOs. Jacob has always been a dreamer and the California energies kind of made him even more ungrounded than he was already.

Somehow during his travels to the western part of the U.S. he becomes attracted to going to Peru and works out a deal with a wealthy family to help him take a short journey there in 1989 ... he has no idea why he must go but if the compulsion is so strong, he will go crazy if he doesn't do this. While doing a meditation in an ancient Peruvian ruin known as Olyantitabo, situated between the city of Cusco and the famous Inca city of Machu Picchu, he has a vision of a crystal skull ... one that he feels is somewhere in Peru. At this time his no idea what the visions means as he has no knowledge about crystal skulls and decides with all the other crazy experiences he has had over the past few years, this one is just another one of those. So he basically forgets about this experience.

After several years of continuing to roam in various parts of the U.S., doing odd jobs here and there, in 1995, he hears about a lecture being given about Peru in his new home in the state (of what was called) New Mexico. A Peruvian Shaman by the name of Felipe is going to be sharing information about the Inca Prophecy. Jacob decides to attend as the topic sounds fascinating plus he also wants to ask someone like a Shaman, who is knowledgeable about Peru to help him understand some of the unusual experiences he had during his visit several years ago. Also he wants to know from Felipe if such a thing as a head of quartz exists as in 1994, he began to see a mental image of this artifact around him. When Jacob describes to Felipe his vision, Felipe knows that he must begin to work with Jacob to find this skull as its description matches the legend of the crystal oracle he heard about before and somehow this crystal skull is involved in the Prophecy of the Condor and the Eagle.

(Special Note from Joshua, 2020 – while Jacob does not appear as a character in the movie script or novelization done later, I used a form of this name (Joseph Schwartz) for the main character in a novel I wrote with my friend Karen also during 2014-2017 which is called “Journey into the Unknown and Back Again”, that you will see listed in the special resource section after the conclusion.)

Francisco Hernandez ==> In the beginning of our story, Francisco is an elderly gentlemen (72 years of age) of Hispanic descent born in Mexico who has become one of the world famous art collectors in the world. He is a buyer, seller and collector of ancient artifacts that have been discovered all over the world. Since he was small boy, he has always been fascinated by the native Mayan culture that existed in his country. It is through his business in buying and selling Mayan artifacts that he meets Professor Nielson. One would think that these two men, who have such different personalities and life values that they would never become friendly, but somehow through their interest and fascination with the Maya, a close friendship develops. This is due to the fact that both men have a burning passion to truly understand the Mystery of the Mayan Culture and by working together, they feel they can find such an answer.

In order for Francisco to become an expert in dealing with these treasures, which of course to the society of the 20th Century are highly priced, he has to work with people of questionable ethics. Whereas the Professor always stays out of other people's affairs, Senior Francisco must use his wit to survive some very dangerous situations. Since the moment that Francisco met young Jamie, he was in love with this little girl and felt like he was her second father. Sometimes, Francisco would invite Jamie to join him (especially when she was younger) on some of his travels to collect special artifacts. Francisco was not an easy person to like as he was quite ruthless in his business dealings. Jamie knows that underneath that tough exterior is a very sweet man who she affectionately calls “Uncle Francisco”. Francisco only allows his closest friends to see the true part of himself, a man who is kind and comes from a great deal of integrity. Francisco never marries, as his life has just been too busy to settle down and have a family. He of course had his share of lady friends however.

Unfortunately, one of the key characters who represents the adversary in this story (a distant cousin of Francisco's Brother) has used a great deal of the information that Francisco has shared with him about Professor Nielson's work, and thus inadvertently tips his cousin off to the Professor's search for the Crystal Skull in Guatemala. Francisco has many business dealings with his cousin, in truth he just couldn't avoid him.

So one of the conflicts that Francisco has faced throughout his life is trying to choose between the good of his family and events that have more importance for Humanity as a whole. Really his close ties with the Nielson family is an escape route for him to do some good in the world (and secretly he hopes that something he does in his life can help many others). Francisco also shares a strong interest in the crystal skulls and is quite familiar with the legends told by the Mayan ancestors ...

The Adversary ==> As with any stories, there is always some type of conflict that the people are involved with ... that ultimately leads to answers about themselves. In our story this is also true as there are several individuals involved who would like to the powerful and mystical crystal skulls for their own purposes.

"The Master" (The Black Magician) – The real name of this person is never revealed and even in this future time we do not know. People would call him "The Master" but in truth he was an individual involved in the Dark Arts and Black Magic. This black magician always worked behind the scenes (he was able to manipulate people with his rituals, had the ability to perform mind control and could summon various types of evil demons and spirits). It is written in the ancient book of the Black Brotherhood, that to keep the world in darkness, the crystal skulls should never be brought together physically. Thus our arch villain, using all his psychic powers and spells pits himself against those people who work to bring the crystal skulls together. He is able on some telepathic level to know when a new crystal skull comes out and approximately when the crystal skull is moving or changes location. He worked through many other unsuspecting people, without their conscious awareness, to attempt to prevent such an event the crystal skulls from coming together..

As mentioned before when introducing Francisco, his cousin, Carlos Mendoza, who lived in Guatemala, is a cruel business man who controlled a crime syndicate in that country involved with drugs, gun running, gambling and prostitution. He was a very feared man in his country. His ultimate desire was to become the President of Guatemala as he was totally immersed into his mad passion for power and greed. He controls billions and billions of dollars and wants to continue to amass more wealth. Being familiar with the local legends about the crystal skull, it represented a great prize to him, a power object used by the Mayan High Priest to control the people. He saw the possession of such an artifact as a symbol that represents absolute power on Earth and he attempted to gain total control of the crystal skull seeing this as a sign of his destiny as a world leader. In any case, his organization was willing to do anything possible to gain possession of this special artifact. They were even aware of the Professor's search. They had been following him when arrived in Guatemala in 1994 and were involved with his disappearance. Carlos had secret agents constantly on the lookout for new clues about the crystal skull. His greed and desire for power made him an easy pawn to be manipulated by the power of "The Master", who visited him in his dreams and adds fuel to his desire to have this crystal skull, not realizing that he is doing the Master's bidding.

Secret Agency of the U.S. Government -- In the late part of the 20th Century, the U.S. Government was very involved in maintaining a secrecy about the UFO situation ... i.e. that our world was being visited by many races of extraterrestrials. With some of the information they had been able to gather from various contacts with the ETs (as they were called) ... they knew about the crystal skulls and that these power tools of the ancients could change the course of destiny for the Human Race. Although they did not have the understanding of the crystal skulls as say Professor Nielson or the "Master", they do get involved in our story from time to time. Unfortunately in the late part of the 20th Century life was very complicated as many small groups of individuals were vying for power and to stop the world from going through the "Time of Transformation".

The Guide in Guatemala (Mar-u) == During several of Michael's expedition to Guatemala he had become acquainted with a young Mayan man who was steeped in the traditions of his ancestors. Mar-u was actually a very psychic individual with incredible gifts that he was able to develop by living naturally in the jungle but he hid his nature from others by being very mischievous and always being funny and laughing. Since he lived a great deal of his life in the jungle areas of Guatemala, he is the perfect guide who was very familiar with the terrain and dangers of this region. His village has a legend about a sacred stone that states "When the Sacred Stone returns to the People, all of the People of Land will return to the traditional ways of Life."

The Crystal Skull(s): Mysterious artifacts originally discovered in the ruins of various ancient civilizations in Mexico and Central America. From the legends of the people in these lands, these human size and shaped skulls made from various types of quartz crystals are a gift from the Gods to the people ... they are important to humanity and have been sought after over the millennium

* CONCLUSION ****

Well, I hope you found this document interesting. The words from rJis discussing our potential future have only been shared upon our V J Enterprise website since 1997 until I was inspired to make this document available. I believe very few people are still visiting this website as it was the first site I created in 1991, but it is very archaic in its design only using the simple (HTML) techniques from the 1990's and of course, the information shared there is quite out-of-date.

Now, if you want to read the full version of the 1997 version of "Crystal Skull Chronicles" here is the main page to start at:

<http://www.v-j-enterprises.com/cschrons.html>

On that webpage is the introduction to the Chronicles' story but near the bottom of that page is a link to a Table of Contents page, if you want to see all the pages that I developed and finished. As I shared before I was not able to complete this version of the story but it was birthed during 2004-2011 as a movie script which then we made a novelization of the story (greatly expanded I will add) finishing this in 2016. I had hoped in 2020, because I am sharing publicly rJis' message about our potential future that it was the right time to offer the novel in an e-book form [2023 Update: -- but this only happened for a select group of people who joined our on-line membership service from 2020-2021. For the moment, I am waiting for the physical manifestation of the Center I spoke about in the Introduction to help me bring this story out to the public in both a printed and e-book format ☺].

On the previous page is the preliminary version of the cover for the novel which was designed by my friend Chris Ryason – this should provide for you a better idea what the story is about. If you would like to be put on a list to be contacted when this e-book version (a PDF format) of the novel edition is eventually ready, please feel free to send to me an email at:

crystalskullexplorers@gmail.com (in the subject put – “More info on the Chronicles Novel Please”)

So, as we move on I have an important question to ask which you might be thinking – so here goes ...

Do we have any evidence or any type of proof that what I am receiving from rJis or this so-called “Spirit Guide” could possibly be true? I mean we would all love to know that within 17-20 years from today (July 2020) that our world could become such a paradise, yes? One thought I have is there is a very powerful spiritual principle spoken about which might shed some light on this question which is: “we create our own reality at all times by the power of our thoughts and our mind”. Therefore, if this principle is true, then if enough people in our world were to begin thinking, and imagining and visualizing in their minds that this is the kind of world we want – and then, pour their whole soul and energy into this visualization with all of their concentration, I do believe we could do this. Through the power of our collective minds working in tandem with the “Law of Attraction”, we very well could make such a peaceful world become our reality right now, in this very moment regardless of the great challenges we are currently facing, yes?

One thing which happens to me a lot, is that in certain moments I feel inspired (or seemingly guided by an unseen but gentle force) to watch certain videos on Youtube which brings to me some amazing insights about a variety of subjects that I am studying on the paranormal or the fringe side of life let's say. And recently I have been drawn to learn more about a secret government project that is known and called by various whistle blowers (individuals who work on these secret government projects and then decide to publicly share their experiences and knowledge of such even if it will endanger their lives) as Project Looking Glass.

Before I share with you a link to a key video I watched, let me talk about what this project is about and then how it might related and support what rJis is sharing with us.

Based upon the videos I have watched about Project Looking Glass, it is a device which will project holographically possible futures that can be visually seen. What possible future events will be shown is linked to the individual or individuals close to the device and what future actions or activities they wish to introduce and engage in. It is kind of an answer to a "What If" question.

So for example, let's say you want to start a new business, and you have several ideas of different directions you might wish to try but you are not sure which is the best approach. Then you could ask about each of these possibilities and visually see what the end results would be for each. Obviously, in the hands of the wrong people such a tool could cause major problems for our world as they might try to guide future event just to profit themselves at a great expense to all the other people living in our world.

Below is a link to an interview Kerry Kassiday of Project Camelot did with a gentlemen named Bill Wood who worked with a secret group that was using a Looking Glass device. I will summary some of the key points Mr. Wood said and you can learn more by watching the full interview.

First, he discussed that the technology for the Looking Glass devices came from components they used from the real StarGates that the U.S. government has, which allows a person to travel from one StarGate to another within this current timeframe or even travel into other times as well. I would suspect this technology most likely came from crashed UFOs or through the interaction (as it is said by other whistle blowers) which we having with various Extraterrestrial Intelligences or ETs who gifted us such tech.

Secondly, Mr. Wood stated surprisingly, that they are no longer using the Looking Glass devices because they are not functioning properly or at least that is how the individuals linked to the project are thinking. Why is this? Mr. Wood explains that the Looking Glass devices are now all showing the very same future we will eventually head into in the near future and that no matter what new actions or planned activities may be engaged in, this projected future will and can not be changed.

Mr. Wood then explained two future possible timelines the people involved with these projects believed to exist – Timeline One is where some miraculous event happens and the Spiritual Awareness of Humanity is awoken and we ascend into a higher more spiritual state or; Timeline Two – the surface of our world is badly damaged with few survivors and most of the people who survive, such as the so-called elite, move to underground cities they have already constructed that contain all the supplies needed to last them for a very long time. Perhaps some of you have heard about this underground cities as obviously this subject is not being shared with the general public. But Mr. Wood also added, that the people overseeing the Looking Glass Project are so upset and frustrated with the one and only future these devices are showing (which is obviously Timeline One) that they won't allow anyone to use them anymore. So we can only conclude, the Looking Glass devices are showing a very positive and peaceful future just as what rJis is talking about.

Lastly, Mr. Wood spoke about a change which happened to our world during December 21st, 2012, the date given by the Mayan Prophecy (as an Age of our world ended). He stated it was around this time that the Looking Glass devices started to have these so-called problems. Now, I was aware that there were many people during December 2012 who participated in various meditations or ceremonies to focus on peace. I can still remember the inner feeling or sensing I had at that time which was that our world had just made a tremendous vibrational shift and that it would take a number of years until this positive shift would be seen, felt and experienced by everyone in our physical world. Anyway below is the link to Mr. Wood's full interview with Kerri Cassidy if you wish to investigate what he had to share directly:

<https://youtu.be/XieC8HFwRO4>

(A discussion about Project Looking Glass through Project Camelot with Kerry Cassidy interviewing Bill Wood, an ex-Navy Seal and individual who worked on this project)

So then, we could ask what kind of Event could happen that would take our world into such a higher vibrational state or help to awaken humanity to our true potential or divine essence? Well I will take some literary liberties here to share with you various ideas or theories that have either come to me or I heard others discuss over the years which could describe an unbelievable future event from our perspective here in July of 2020. I have also be waiting for some concrete or visible sign how the current pandemic will be arrested as all the news we received right now hasn't been hopeful. There are reports that more and more people are catching the virus and now in many places people are having to mandatorily wear masks, whether they wish to not.

Then there is much discussion and speculation about a vaccine that will be able to cure the corona virus (covid19) that is being developed however, we are receiving warnings from various knowledgeable people (including the whistleblowers) who say it could be filled with toxic agents and some type of small nano-type device to go into our body to track us? Anyway, here is my list of six possible scenarios I feel strongly about that could be linked to the special event Mr. Wood referenced:

#1 Possibility – Divine Intervention – that Creator has a plan for our world and will send HIS/HER Angels to physically appear and stop the current process of the shutdown the world – but some say if we have so-called “FREE WILL” then would this not be a direct interference in our natural growth and development as the human race? – or –

#2 Possibility – I have felt inspired again, recently, to watch the old TV series called ‘Heroes’ where certain individuals have developed special abilities to do miraculous things. Further, they eventually discover a way through a formula how anyone can receive their own special ability. It is interesting to note there was even an episode in this series where in the so-called future they had a pandemic that was caused by a virus. Anyway, this idea would refer to our spiritual gifts I believe – that we all do have such special abilities or powers inside of us. However, many believe that the so-called secret groups who control the world have been creating high-frequency devices (like the new 5G phones and wireless communications) to block these natural and God-given abilities from ever coming out. Perhaps, our Earth is passing through a part of space right now which is reactivating these gifts and is raising the frequency of the world? – or –

#3 Possibility – As told in our story, “Crystal Skull Chronicles” and discussed in some of the Indigenous prophecies, there could exist a very powerful and highly energetic set of 13 crystal skulls, which were present and used in the healing temples of Atlantis. But then, when Atlantis was destroyed (according to Edgar Cayce about 12 thousand years ago plus), these skulls were scattered to various locations in the world to stay hidden until it was the proper time for them to come out and be re-united. And when that day comes, and they are all back together again, the crystal skulls will collectively create a spiraling energy vortex which moves our world into a higher spiritual vibration (like 5D) instantly. – or –

#4 Possibility – A full UFO Disclosure finally happens, after all the lies and the so-called cover-ups orchestrated by various governments of the world is exposed related to the existence of ETs and UFOs visiting our world (happening since the 1940's and beyond, almost 80 years). After this event takes place, then we will all have access to the advance technologies these secret groups have received from the ETs or I call them the "Galactics". We will have a cure for every disease known to Man, free energy, and basically a solution to solve all challenges humanity now faces within our world which would no doubt eventually create a Utopia here. A second option I see related to the "Galactics" (Extraterrestrials) is that they have told our world leaders in no uncertain terms, if they don't publicly share the truth (or come clean) about their existence to everyone, everywhere on Earth, they will just show up anyway in their own timing and choosing. When this type of event happens, there will be no doubt whatsoever they are real and wish to be our friends and there will be nothing the world leaders with their so-called strong military forces can do to stop them. That sounds pretty good to me!! – or –

#5 Possibility – I believe there is convincing proof now, here in 2020, that not only planet Earth is totally hollow but all planets including our moon are hollow as well. What this means is that the very core of the Earth is a mini-sun which gives the inner inhabitants sunlight 24 hours a day. Next, gravity holds those people to the inner surface the same as it does for us on the outer surface. Further, it is reported by people who were allowed to go inside to the so-called "Inner Earth" that these people are very advanced both technologically and spiritually. Also, this might be one of the locations where many Galactics go to when they visit our world. For example, I have seen a diary claimed to be written by Admiral Byrd (released by one of his family members) that reports about him flying to the North Pole during the late 1940's and entering into a huge opening up there (you can see photos of this opening on the internet). Whereupon, after he entered he was met by these Inner Earth people in their own flying ships. They told the admiral that humanity is their younger brothers and sisters and that some of the UFOs we see in our skies are their anti-gravity ships. In order to prevent the so-called secret groups in the world from destroying this planet which is their home too, they would come out to prevent this. Once again, once their presence is publicly known, we would have access to their amazing technical marvels and spiritual wisdom that no doubt would help us to create a peaceful surface world.

In addition to the Inner Earth people, there is also reports of descendants from Atlantis and Lemuria, who fled massive destruction which took place on the surface of our world in the far past, that they created huge cities under the ground. One such city exists under Mt. Shasta (a sacred mountain for the Native Americans in Northern, California which has a great deal of UFO activity around it BTW) that contains descendants from Lemuria. (Joshua's note – I have heard stories of a Lemurian Princess who came out of the Mountain and had contact with several people. She even created some audio recordings describing her city and her civilization that can be found on Youtube). And then finally, there is one other group of people (I have to call them such) who live on this Earth with us, who love us and want to help us which are the Sasquatch People or we call Bigfoot (they don't like that name). For those individuals who have had contact with Sasquatch, they are said to live in another dimension of the Earth but that they can enter our physical world and visit us from time to time if they wish. Further, it is claimed that Sasquatch has been on the Earth before Man came to be in our current physical form and they were brought here by other ETs. And lastly, there is one other possibility I can think of ...

#6 Possibility – Somehow, one of the groups or organizations who setup these periodic large group meditations for world peace – they come up with a revolutionary new idea for a different type of world peace meditation which just literally takes off and everyone wants to join them and become a part of it. So then let's say, more than 10 million people all over the world perform the same meditation at the very same time. If we consider the geometric power and energy of the collective thoughts and visualizations of such a large group all doing the same activity at the very same time -- why it could become so powerful that it would instantaneous transform the entire collective consciousness of all of humanity. There actually was a book written by Ken Keyes called "The Hundredth Monkey" where a real life experiment following this principle was done with a certain species of monkey. Therefore, in that moment of unity of purpose, all of a sudden, the true inner spiritual essence of our being held within every person would spontaneously emerge and wah-lah – world peace becomes a true reality. In such a world we would feel true love for all other people and totally respect the unique individuality of each person as well. Is such a world just our imagination of a pure fantasy or could there be a parallel Earth out there (or actually right next to our dimension) where such an Event has already happened?

Now which of these possibilities do you like? As I stated before if we can imagine such circumstance happening, then somewhere in God's infinite universe or universes these scenarios have taken place or are taking place. So, the bottom line is then, that no matter how hopeless life may look right now or no matter how crazy our world may get, I know within my being that by 2037-2040, that what rJis has described as being his future is where we are heading and no one can convince me otherwise.

To properly finish this document, I would like to share with you the reader, our contact information if anyone feels inspired to talk with us about something you have read here. Also, there are (2023 update) eight other free e-books we are offering at this time (our free crystal skull e-book, 2023 edition; do we live in a computer simulation?; A High Level Overview of What's Happen in our World {2021}; Tartaria, Flat Earth; 2023: The Year the Full Truth begins to be Revealed; and from two outside sources – James W. Lee – Everything is a Lie, Nothing is True; and Majestic 12).

So feel free to either to email us if you would like copies of any of these other free e-books or within the On-line Resource Section at the back, there are direct links to download your copy to your device of choice. Lastly, I am including the website page links to the last four books we have written in the past 12+ years which you might find interesting as well.

To a glorious future and to a time when the secrets of the universe will be know by all of us, in peace and light always ...

The Center for the Advancement of Humanity (A Brief Description and our On-line Resources)

June 2023

Welcome to our Center

Who Are We?

What is this New Center About?

The Center for the Advancement of Humanity is a spiritually inspired and based Center which is being created right now by an extended family of people all over the world. As its name implies, we will be involved in all type of projects linked to Advancing the state of Humanity and working towards creating a totally peaceful and harmonious world.

The vision for our center was given to our founder, Joshua Shapiro in the summer of 2018. Joshua is known throughout the world as a crystal skull and paranormal explorer, author and public speaker. At that time, the resources necessary to build a physical Center were not yet available as this will be a very large project. However, since March of 2022, Joshua has been inspired by guiding "Spirits" and felt a call to begin working on setting up the energetic version of the foundation in preparation of birthing forth the first Main Center (now in 2023 within the Central Part of Florida) along with other Sister Centers in other parts of the U.S. and all over the world. Already, as of June of 2023, there are now teams of people to support the center in: U.S. / CANADA / VIRGIN ISLANDS / FRANCE / ENGLAND / HOLLAND / ITALY SCOTLAND / AUSTRALIA / NEW ZEALAND.

Here are some of the early projects we will be working on

Crystal Skulls

Their Importance to Humanity in the Future

UFOs - ET/Galactic Contact

Are we Alone? UFO Disclosure ...

Talking with the Galactics Directly

Spiritual Dimensions of Existence and the Paranormal

Wholistic Health & Healing

MedBeds, Organic Remedies, Spiritual Healing

Our Publishing and Distribution Dept.

We will help people who have key books to share, musical creations, documentaries, and more

These are just of some of the projects that our Center will be involved with - Does it sound Exciting to You? We are definitely open to be involved in other areas of study and we will be a part of the process to create a world for Humanity of Total Peace and Light.

If you would like to know more about our Center or how you can partake to help us build it, please contact us at:
